Participants on behalf of the Department of Human Services (Department) included [REDACTED] [REDACTED].

ISSUE

Whether the Department of Human Services (Department) properly denied the Claimant's application for Medical Assistance (M.A.) and Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the competent, material and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. The Claimant applied for Medical Assistance (M.A.) and Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits.
2. On January 15, 2014, the Department sent the Claimant a Verification Checklist (DHS-3503) requesting the Claimant provide verification of a bank account by January 27, 2014.
3. On January 24, 2014, the Claimant provided the Department with some documents.
4. On February 6, 2014, the Department notified the Claimant that it had denied her application for Medical Assistance (M.A.) and Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits.
5. The Department received the Claimant's request for a hearing on February 11, 2014, protesting the denial of her application for assistance.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The Medical Assistance (MA) program is established by the Title XIX of the Social Security Act, 42 USC 1396-1396w-5, and is implemented by 42 CFR 400.200 to 1008.59. The Department of Human Services (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers the MA program pursuant to MCL 400.10 and MCL 400.105.

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 271.1 to 285.5. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10 and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 to .3015.

Clients must cooperate with the local office in determining initial and ongoing eligibility. This includes the completion of necessary forms. Department of Human Services Bridges Assistance Manual (BAM) 105 (March 1, 2013), p 5. Verification means documentation or other evidence to establish the accuracy of the client's verbal or written statements. Department of Human Services Bridges Assistance Manual (BAM) 130 (May 1, 2012), p 1. Verification is usually required at application/redetermination and for a reported change affecting eligibility or benefit level when it is required by policy, required as a local office option, or information regarding an eligibility factor is unclear, inconsistent, incomplete, or contradictory. BAM 130. The Department uses documents, collateral contacts, or home calls to verify information. BAM 130. A collateral contact is a direct contact with a person, organization, or agency to verify information from the client. BAM 130. When documentation is not available, or clarification is needed, collateral contact may be necessary. BAM 130.

The Claimant applied for Medical Assistance (M.A.) and Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits. On January 15, 2014, the Department sent the Claimant a Verification Checklist (DHS-3503) requesting that the Claimant provide several verification documents including verification of a bank account. The Department had requested that the Claimant provide the documents by January 27, 2014.

On January 24, 2014, the Claimant provided the Department with some verification documents.

The Department determined that the documents supplied by the Claimant were insufficient to be used a verification of the bank account because they do not identify the Claimant as the owner of the asset, or the name of the bank where the account is located.

On February 6, 2014, the Department notified the Claimant that it had denied his application for failure to provide the Department with information necessary to determine his eligibility to receive benefits.

On February 7, 2014, the Claimant provided the Department with additional material, but this information is also insufficient to be used a verification of the bank account.

Based on the evidence and testimony available during the hearing, this Administrative Law Judge finds that the Department was acting in accordance with policy when it denied the Claimant's application for Medical Assistance (M.A.) and Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits for failure to provide the Department with information necessary to determine his eligibility to receive benefits.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, finds that the Department acted in accordance with Department policy when it denied the Claimant's Medical Assistance (M.A.) and Food Assistance Program (FAP) application.

Accordingly, the Department's decision is AFFIRMED.
