CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Department of Human Services Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), and Department of Human Services Reference Tables Manual (RFT). Prior to August 1, 2008, Department policies were contained in the Department of Human Services Program Administrative Manuals (PAM), Department of Human Services Program Eligibility Manual (PEM), and Department of Human Services Reference Schedules Manual (RFS).

☒ The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 273. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10; the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1-.119b; and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 to .3015.

The Department's OIG requests IPV hearings for the following cases:

- FAP trafficking OIs that are not forwarded to the prosecutor.
- Prosecution of welfare fraud or FAP trafficking is declined by the prosecutor for a reason other than lack of evidence, and
 - the total OI amount for the FIP, SDA, CDC, MA and FAP programs is $1000 or more, or
 - the total OI amount is less than $1000, and
 - the group has a previous IPV, or
 - the alleged IPV involves FAP trafficking, or
 - the alleged fraud involves concurrent receipt of assistance (see BEM 222), or
 - the alleged fraud is committed by a state/government employee.

BAM 720 (May 14, 2014), p. 12,13.

Intentional Program Violation

Suspected IPV means an OI exists for which all three of the following conditions exist:

- The client intentionally failed to report information or intentionally gave incomplete or inaccurate information needed to make a correct benefit determination, and
- The client was clearly and correctly instructed regarding his or her reporting responsibilities, and
- The client has no apparent physical or mental impairment that limits his or her understanding or ability to fulfill reporting responsibilities.

BAM 700 (May 2014), p. 7; BAM 720, p. 1.

An IPV is also suspected for a client who is alleged to have trafficked FAP benefits. BAM 720, p. 1.

An IPV requires that the Department establish by clear and convincing evidence that the client has intentionally withheld or misrepresented information for the purpose of establishing, maintaining, increasing or preventing reduction of program benefits or eligibility. BAM 720, p. 1 (emphasis in original); see also 7 CFR 273(e)(6). Clear and convincing evidence is evidence sufficient to result in a clear and firm belief that the proposition is true. See M Civ JI 8.01.

In this case, the Respondent applied for FAP benefits on July 12, 2010, and at the time of the application, she reported receiving unemployment benefits and also reported that her partner and FAP group member was unemployed.

Thereafter, the Respondent completed a Semi Annual Contact Report on December 13, 2011, which asked the following: has your household's gross earned income changed by more that $100 from the amount above? The amount referred to is the gross earned income used to calculate benefits which was ██████0. The Claimant answered NO. Exhibit 1, pp. 33. At the time of the Semi Annual Report, the Claimant's partner had gross monthly earnings of $█████ and the Respondent had gross monthly earnings of $█████, which exceeded the ██████. The Semi Annual Report goes on to indicate that if the answer to the income increase change was yes, the proof of earnings were required to be provided. No proof of earnings was provided. Exhibit 1, pp. 47. Based upon the failure of the Respondent to report the income and that it exceeded the ██████ used to calculate the FAP benefits, it is determined that the Respondent intentionally failed to disclose the increased income and provide evidence of income so that she could continue to receive more FAP benefits than she was entitled to receive, as her income was more that the $█████. The Respondent also indicated that she had previously had her benefits decreased or closed due to failure to report unemployment benefits on her initial application filed in July 2010, thus establishing that Respondent was aware of her responsibilities to report income. Exhibit 1, pp. 24

Disqualification

A court or hearing decision that finds a client committed IPV disqualifies that client from receiving program benefits. BAM 720, p. 12. A disqualified recipient remains a member of an active group as long as he lives with them, and other eligible group members may continue to receive benefits. BAM 720, p. 13.

Clients who commit an IPV are disqualified for a standard disqualification period except when a court orders a different period, or except when the OI relates to MA. BAM 720, p. 13. Refusal to repay will not cause denial of current or future MA if the client is otherwise eligible. BAM 710 (July 2013), p. 2. Clients are disqualified for periods of one year for the first IPV, two years for the second IPV, lifetime disqualification for the third IPV, and ten years for a FAP concurrent receipt of benefits. BAM 720, p. 16.

In this case, the Department did establish by clear and convincing evidence that an IPV occurred and thus has established that its request for disqualification should be granted.

Overissuance

When a client group receives more benefits than they are entitled to receive, the Department must attempt to recoup the OI. BAM 700, p. 1.

In this case, the Department's evidence demonstrated that the Claimant was issued benefits of $ [REDACTED] in FAP benefits during the period November 1, 2011 through January 31, 2012, and provided detailed budgets for each of the months beginning with November 2011 through January 2012, which calculated and listed the unreported earned income based on verifications of income provided by Respondent's and her partner's employers. Exhibit 1PP. 43-49. The Department's budgets were reviewed, and demonstrated that the Department used the correct unreported income based upon the verification of wages received during the period which were never reported. Based upon this review, it is determined that the Respondent did receive an overissuance of $ [REDACTED] for the period November 1, 2011 through January 31, 2012.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, concludes that:

1. The Department has has not established by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent committed an IPV.
2. Respondent did did not receive an OI of program benefits in the amount of [REDACTED] from the following program(s) FIP FAP SDA CDC MA.

The Department is ORDERED to
