MICHIGAN ADMINISTRATIVE HEARING SYSTEM
ADMINISTRATIVE HEARINGS FOR THE DEPARTMENT OF HUMAN SERVICES

IN THE MATTER OF:

[REDACTED]

Reg. No.: 2014-3420
Issue No.: 3005
Case No.: [REDACTED]
Hearing Date: January 8, 2014
County: Wayne DHS (31)

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE: Christian Gardocki

HEARING DECISION FOR INTENTIONAL PROGRAM VIOLATION

Upon the request for a hearing by the Department of Human Services (DHS), this matter is before the undersigned Administrative Law Judge pursuant to MCL 400.9, and in accordance with Titles 7, 42 and 45 of the Code of Federal Regulation (CFR), particularly 7 CFR 273.16, and with Mich Admin Code, R 400.3130 and R 400.3178. After due notice, a telephone hearing was held on January 8, 2014, from Detroit, Michigan. [REDACTED], Regulation Agent for the Office of Inspector General (OIG), testified on behalf of DHS. Respondent did not appear at the hearing and it was held in Respondent's absence pursuant to 7 CFR 273.16(e), Mich Admin Code R 400.3130(5), or Mich Admin Code R 400.3178(5).

ISSUES

The first issue is whether Respondent committed an Intentional Program Violation (IPV).

The second issue is whether Respondent received an overissuance of benefits.

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. Respondent was an ongoing FAP benefit recipient.
2. Over the period of 8/2010-7/2011, Respondent made 20 purchases totaling $2850.27 from a store that engaged in FAP benefit trafficking.

3. O [REDACTED]/13, DHS requested a hearing to establish that Respondent committed an IPV for trafficking $2,850.27 in FAP benefits over the period from 7/2011 through 4/2012.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 271.1 to 285.5. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10 and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 to .3015. Department policies are contained in the Department of Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM) and Department of Human Services Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM) and Department of Human Services Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

This hearing was requested by DHS, in part, to establish that Respondent committed an IPV. DHS may request a hearing to establish an IPV and disqualification. BAM 600 (8/2012), p. 3.

The client/authorized representative (AR) is determined to have committed an IPV by:

- A court decision.
- An administrative hearing decision.
- The client signing a DHS-826, Request for Waiver of Disqualification Hearing or DHS-830, Disqualification Consent Agreement or other recoupment and disqualification agreement forms. Id.

There is no evidence that Respondent signed a DHS-826 or DHS-830. There is also no evidence that a court decision found Respondent responsible for an IPV. Thus, DHS seeks to establish an IPV via administrative hearing.

The Code of Federal Regulations defines an IPV. Intentional program violations shall consist of having intentionally: (1) made a false or misleading statement, or misrepresented, concealed or withheld facts; or (2) committed any act that constitutes a violation of the Food Stamp Act, the Food Stamp Program Regulations, or any State statute for the purpose of using, presenting, transferring, acquiring, receiving, possessing or trafficking of coupons, authorization cards or reusable documents used as part of an automated benefit delivery system. 7 CFR 273.16 (c).

The hearing authority shall base the determination of intentional program violation on clear and convincing (emphasis added) which demonstrates that the household member(s) committed, and intended to commit, intentional program violation as defined in paragraph (c) of this section. 7 CFR 273.16 (e) (6). Clear and convincing evidence is evidence sufficient to result in a clear and firm belief that the proposition is true. See M Civ JI 8.01. It is a standard which requires reasonable certainty of the truth; something that is highly probable. Black's Law Dictionary 888 (6th ed. 1990).

DHS alleged that Respondent intentionally trafficked $2,850.27 in FAP benefits over the period of 7/2011 through 4/2012. The evidence against Respondent was circumstantial. Generally, circumstantial evidence is less persuasive than direct evidence, however, at some point, the circumstantial evidence may accumulate to meet the clear and convincing requirements for an IPV. The simplified trafficking argument against Respondent is as follows:

- there exists a food store (for purposes of this decision, it shall be known as “Store”) where it was administratively established that food trafficking was sufficiently rampant to result in Store’s loss of accepting FAP benefit purchases;
- Store has a limited supply of food where it is unlikely that someone would make regular and/or large purchases of food;
- over a period of time, Respondent regularly spent FAP benefits at Store;
- therefore, Respondent trafficked FAP benefits.

DHS presented a letter (Exhibits 18-19) dated [REDACTED]/12 from the United States Department of Agriculture. The letter stated that Store shall be permanently disqualified from the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP). SNAP is understood to be the federal equivalent of State of Michigan FAP benefits. The letter did not state that trafficking caused the disqualification but it was stated that eligibility for a trafficking civil money penalty was considered.

DHS presented pictures (Exhibit 20) of Store including a drawn diagram of Store’s inside. The photos were in black and white but appeared to show a relatively small store with a small shelf area of food items and an area where hot food was prepared. The diagram of the Store was stated by the testifying specialist to have been made by a person investigating Store’s trafficking activities. The diagram showed the following areas: snack, various canned items, and a cooler area which included nuts.

DHS presented Store FS Transactions by Month (Exhibit 22). It was noted that Store’s EBT transactions rapidly increased in quantity and amount in a relatively short amount of time. From 5/2010-3/2011, Store only had one month where the maximum EBT transaction exceeded $90. From 4/2011 through 5/2012, Store’s maximum transaction amount was never less than $199 and rose as high as $797 in 3/2012. Store’s EBT transactions also grew from less than 40 or less per month in 2010 to over 100 every month from 9/2011-1/2012. Store’s average monthly transaction grew from a high of $23.54 in 2010 to the following: $160.83 in 3/2012, $211.09 in 4/2012 and $257.63 in 5/2012. For comparison, DHS presented reports (Exhibits 23-25) of an average EBT transaction for stores considered to be Store’s “type”. From 2010-2012, the average FAP transaction from a store of Store’s “type” never exceeded $10.

DHS presented Respondent’s FAP transaction history with Store. The history verified that Respondent had 20 transactions with Store ranging in date from [REDACTED]/11 through [REDACTED]/12. The transactions totaled $2850.27. The average transaction was $142.51. Of the transactions, 14 were for more than $100. Of the 14 purchases exceeding $100, 6 were for more than $200 including one which reached $301.67.

The testifying agent stated that she interviewed Respondent. The testifying agent stated that Respondent was asked what items were purchased from Store that could possibly amount to hundreds of dollars. The testifying agent stated that Respondent stated that she bought sausage sold which was sold by the pound and pizza dough. The testifying regulation agent noted that pizza crusts were available for $3.48 at a retail store (see Exhibits 30-31) and that Store did not sell any meats by the pound.

Given the administrative proceedings against Store, the very limited food inventory of Store and Respondent's improbably high dollar transactions with Store, it is found by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent trafficked FAP benefits at Store. The consequences of a trafficking finding must be addressed.

The standard disqualification period is used in all instances except when a court orders a different period. Id., p. 13. DHS is to apply the following disqualification periods to recipients determined to have committed IPV: one year for the first IPV, two years for the second IPV and lifetime for the third IPV. Id. DHS established a basis for a one-year disqualification against Respondent.

When a client group receives more benefits than they are entitled to receive, DHS must attempt to recoup the over-issuance (OI). BAM 700 (1/2011), p. 1. An OI is the amount of benefits issued to the client group in excess of what they were eligible to receive. Id. Recoupment is a DHS action to identify and recover a benefit OI. Id.

DHS may pursue an OI whether it is a client caused error or DHS error. Id. at 5. Client and DHS error OIs are not pursued if the estimated OI amount is less than $125 per program. Id., p. 7. The present case concerns an alleged OI of $1401. Establishing whether DHS or Respondent was at fault for the OI is of no importance because DHS may seek to recoup the amount in either scenario.

For over-issued benefits to clients who are no longer receiving benefits, DHS may request a hearing for debt establishment and collection purposes. The hearing decision determines the existence and collectability of a debt to the agency. BAM 725 (4/2011), p. 13. Over-issuance balances on inactive cases must be repaid by lump sum or monthly cash payments unless collection is suspended. Id. at 6. Other debt collection methods allowed by DHS regulations include: cash payments by clients, expunged FAP benefits, State of Michigan tax refunds and lottery winnings, federal salaries, federal benefits and federal tax refunds. Id. at 7.

The OI amount for trafficking-related IPV is the value of the trafficked benefits as determined by:

- the court decision;
- the individual's admission;
- documentation used to establish the trafficking determination, such as an affidavit from a store owner or sworn testimony from a federal or state investigator of how much a client could have reasonably trafficked in that store. This can be established through circumstantial evidence.

BAM 720 (8/2012), p. 7.

In the IPV analysis, it was found that Respondent trafficked FAP benefits at Store. Given Store's limited food supply, and the relatively high amount of Respondent's transactions at Store, it is very probable that all of Respondent's transactions at Store involved FAP trafficking. Accordingly, DHS established an overissuance of $2,850.27.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above findings of fact and conclusions of law, finds that DHS established that Respondent committed an intentional program violation by FAP benefit trafficking in the amount of $2,850.27. It is further found that DHS may impose a one year disqualification against Respondent. The DHS hearing request is AFFIRMED.
