MICHIGAN ADMINISTRATIVE HEARING SYSTEM
ADMINISTRATIVE HEARINGS FOR THE DEPARTMENT OF HUMAN SERVICES

IN THE MATTER OF:

[REDACTED]

Reg. No.: 14-011540
Issue No.: 3005
Case No.: [REDACTED]
Hearing Date: January 22, 2015
County: WAYNE-DISTRICT 76

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE: Susan C. Burke

HEARING DECISION FOR INTENTIONAL PROGRAM VIOLATION

Upon the request for a hearing by the Department of Human Services (Department), this matter is before the undersigned Administrative Law Judge pursuant to MCL 400.9, and in accordance with Titles 7, 42 and 45 of the Code of Federal Regulation (CFR), particularly 7 CFR 273.16, and with Mich Admin Code, R 400.3130 and R 400.3178. After due notice, a telephone hearing was held on January 22, 2015, from Detroit, Michigan. The Department was represented by [REDACTED], Regulation Agent of the Office of Inspector General (OIG).

Respondent did not appear at the hearing and it was held in Respondent's absence pursuant to 7 CFR 273.16(e), Mich Admin Code R 400.3130(5), or Mich Admin Code R 400.3178(5).

ISSUES

1. Did Respondent receive an overissuance (OI) of Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits that the Department is entitled to recoup?
2. Did the Department establish by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent committed an Intentional Program Violation (IPV)?
3. Should Respondent be disqualified from receiving FAP benefits?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. The Department's OIG filed a hearing request on [REDACTED], to establish an OI of benefits received by Respondent as a result of Respondent having allegedly committed an IPV.
2. The OIG requested that Respondent be disqualified from receiving program benefits.

3. Respondent applied for FAP benefits on [REDACTED].
4. Respondent used his EBT card exclusively in [REDACTED] from [REDACTED] through [REDACTED].
5. Respondent used his EBT card exclusively in [REDACTED] from [REDACTED] through [REDACTED].
6. Respondent obtained employment in [REDACTED] on [REDACTED].
7. Respondent received an OI in FAP benefits in the amount of $756.00 for the period of [REDACTED].
8. A notice of hearing was mailed to Respondent at the last known address in [REDACTED] and was not returned by the US Post Office as undeliverable.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Department of Human Services Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), and Department of Human Services Reference Tables Manual (RFT). Prior to August 1, 2008, Department policies were contained in the Department of Human Services Program Administrative Manuals (PAM), Department of Human Services Program Eligibility Manual (PEM), and Department of Human Services Reference Schedules Manual (RFS).

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 271.1 to 285.5. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10 and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 to .3015.

The Department's OIG requests IPV hearings for the following cases:

- FAP trafficking OIs that are not forwarded to the prosecutor,
- prosecution of welfare fraud or FAP trafficking is declined by the prosecutor for a reason other than lack of evidence, and
  - the total OI amount for the FIP, SDA, CDC, MA and FAP programs is $1000 or more, or
  - the total OI amount is less than $1000, and
    - the group has a previous IPV, or
    - the alleged IPV involves FAP trafficking, or
    - the alleged fraud involves concurrent receipt of assistance (see BEM 222), or

- the alleged fraud is committed by a state/government employee.

BAM 720 (7/2013), p. 12

Intentional Program Violation

Suspected IPV means an OI exists for which all three of the following conditions exist:

- The client intentionally failed to report information or intentionally gave incomplete or inaccurate information needed to make a correct benefit determination, and
- The client was clearly and correctly instructed regarding his or her reporting responsibilities, and
- The client has no apparent physical or mental impairment that limits his or her understanding or ability to fulfill reporting responsibilities.

An IPV requires that the Department establish by clear and convincing evidence that the client has intentionally withheld or misrepresented information for the purpose of establishing, maintaining, increasing or preventing reduction of program benefits or eligibility. BAM 720, p. 1 (emphasis in original); see also 7 CFR 273(e)(6). Clear and convincing evidence is evidence sufficient to result in a clear and firm belief that the proposition is true. See M Civ JI 8.01.

In this case, the Department alleged a fraud period of [REDACTED], [REDACTED] in which Respondent failed to report his change of residence from Michigan. However, it is just as likely as not that Respondent simply did not read the application booklet of [REDACTED] thoroughly, with respect to Respondent's obligation to report change of residency. The Department presented no further documentation signed by Respondent showing that he deliberately falsified information.

Based on the above discussion, this Administrative Law Judge is not persuaded that Respondent intentionally withheld information for the purpose of establishing, maintaining, increasing or preventing reduction of program benefits or eligibility. Therefore it is concluded that the Department did not establish by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent committed an IPV.

Disqualification

A court or hearing decision that finds a client committed an IPV disqualifies that client from receiving program benefits. BAM 720, p. 15

In this case, the Department has not established that Respondent committed an IPV. Therefore, Respondent is not disqualified from receiving FAP benefits.

Overissuance

When a client group receives more benefits than entitled to receive, the Department must attempt to recoup the OI. BAM 725 (7/2013), p. 1

In addition, BEM 220 (1/2014) instructs that to be eligible for assistance in Michigan, a person must be a Michigan resident. For FAP purposes, a person is considered a resident while living in Michigan for any purpose other than a vacation, even if there is no intent to remain in the state permanently or indefinitely.

BEM 220 does not give a maximum time limit that a person may leave the state and lose residency in the State of Michigan for FAP purposes. The simple act of leaving the state—even for an extended length of time—does not remove a person’s residency status for the purposes of Michigan’s food assistance program. It is noted that the Department may cite BEM 212 regarding temporary absences, but BEM 212 addresses who must be included in FAP groups; it does not address residency. For instance, a person may be absent from a FAP group, but still be a resident of Michigan. It is also noted that BEM 220, which does address residency, speaks to temporary absences only with regard to the Family Independence Program, State Disability Assistance program and Medical Assistance program.

The Department presented information that Respondent used his EBT card in North Carolina from November 15, 2013 through March 9, 2014. However, Respondent may have still considered himself to be a Michigan resident while he pursued employment. Therefore, it is not concluded that Respondent was a non-resident of Michigan for this time period, and it is not concluded that Respondent received an OI based on non-residency for this time period.

The Department also presented information that Respondent used his EBT card exclusively in [REDACTED] from [REDACTED]. During this time period, Respondent obtained employment in [REDACTED] and used a [REDACTED] address with his employer. It is also noted that the Notice of Hearing in this matter was mailed to Respondent at a Texas address and was not returned as undeliverable. It is logical to conclude based on this information that Respondent was not a Michigan resident as of April of 2014.

In this case, Respondent received an OI in FAP benefits based on non-residency from April of 2014 through July of 2014 in the amount of $756.00, as sufficiently demonstrated by the Department (See Exhibit 1, p. 28 for calculation of the OI).

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, concludes that:

1. The Department has not established by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent committed an IPV.
2. Respondent received an OI of FAP program benefits in the amount of $756.00

The Department is ORDERED to initiate recoupment procedures for the amount of $756.00, in accordance with Department policy.
