ISSUE

Did the Department properly calculate Claimant's Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. On November 15, 2014, the Department sent Claimant a notice of case action informing her that her FAP benefits would be reduced to $19 a month.
2. On November 24, 2014, Claimant requested a hearing to protest the reduction of her FAP benefits.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Department of Human Services Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), Department of Human Services Reference Tables Manual (RFT), and Department of Human Services Emergency Relief Manual (ERM).

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 273. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10, the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1-.119b, and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 to .3015.

At the hearing, Claimant argued that, because her income had not increased, she did not understand how her FAP benefits decreased.

The Department recalculated Claimant's FAP benefits based on new information that Claimant was no longer paying for heat and utilities. Previous FAP budgets had allowed the Claimant a $553.00 per month deduction for a standard heat and utility deduction. New information supplied by Claimant showed that she was not responsible for paying for heat and utilities; therefore, the $553.00 per month deduction was removed.

This ALJ reviewed the Department's FAP budgets with Claimant before and after the above change and found the Department's calculations to be correct.

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, finds that the Department

- acted in accordance with Department policy when it reduced Claimant's FAP benefits.
- did not act in accordance with Department policy when it .
- failed to satisfy its burden of showing that it acted in accordance with Department policy when it .
