After due notice, a telephone hearing was held on February 19, 2015, from Detroit, Michigan. Participants on behalf of Claimant included Claimant. Participants on behalf of the Department of Human Services (Department) included ██████████

ISSUE

Did the Department properly deny Claimant's State Emergency Relief (SER) application to prevent eviction?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. On October 28, 2014, Claimant applied for SER to prevent eviction.
2. On November 3, 2014, the Department sent Claimant a State Emergency Relief Decision Notice informing Claimant that she failed to provide a court-ordered eviction notice.
3. On November 12, 2014, Claimant requested a hearing to protest the Department's denial of her SER application.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Department of Human Services Bridges Eligibility Manual

(BEM), Department of Human Services Reference Tables Manual (RFT), and Department of Human Services Emergency Relief Manual (ERM).

The State Emergency Relief (SER) program is established by the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1-.119b. The SER program is administered by the Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) pursuant to MCL 400.10 and Mich Admin Code, R 400.7001 through R 400.7049.

At the hearing, the Department stated in its hearing summary that Claimant had failed to provide documentation of her "landlord's registration" and that the SER decision was awaiting same.

Although policy (ERM 401) demands registration of the landlord before payment can be made to the landlord, there is nothing in policy that demands such registration before a decision can be made on a claimant's SER application.

In addition, the Department failed to recognize that Claimant provided a court-ordered eviction notice on the same day that she applied for her SER. This fact was never officially recognized and documented by the Department.

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, finds that the Department

- acted in accordance with Department policy when it .
- did not act in accordance with Department policy when it failed to decide Claimant's eligibility for the SER requested.
- failed to satisfy its burden of showing that it acted in accordance with Department policy when it .
