ISSUE

Did the Department properly deny Claimant's Food Assistance Program (FAP) application?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. Claimant applied for FAP benefits.
2. Claimant was sent a DHS-3503, Verification Checklist on December 8, 2014, requesting verification of assets.
3. Claimant did not return the verifications in question.
4. Claimant did not request an explanation for the request until mid-January.
5. Claimant's FAP benefits were closed on February 1, 2015.
6. On December 28, 2014, Claimant was sent notice that her initial FAP benefits would close on February 1, 2015.
7. On January 5, 2015, Claimant requested a hearing.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Department of Human Services Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), Department of Human Services Reference Tables Manual (RFT), and Department of Human Services Emergency Relief Manual (ERM).

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 273. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10, the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1-.119b, and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 to .3015.

Per policy found in BAM 130 (2014) pg. 1, verification can be requested if required by policy. Failure to return verification can result in application denial and/or case closure. Among other things, verification of assets is required for FAP benefits. BEM 400 (2014), pg. 56. The Department sent Claimant a verification checklist; Claimant admitted to receiving these forms, and furthermore, to a failure to return these forms.

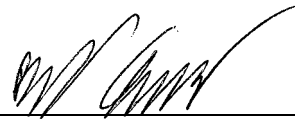

As such, the Department properly closed and denied Claimant's FAP application, because Claimant failed to return required verification.

Claimant alleges that she did not understand the request for verifications; however, no assistance was requested until after the Department action had been taken, in mid-January. Given the time elapsed, the undersigned does not believe that Claimant performed due diligence in attempting to satisfy the request of the verification request, and the request for help does not change the correctness of the Department's actions at the time the action was taken.

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, finds that the Department acted in accordance with Department policy when it denied Claimant's FAP application.

DECISION AND ORDER

Accordingly, the Department's decision is AFFIRMED.
