CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Department of Human Services Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), and Department of Human Services Reference Tables Manual (RFT). Prior to August 1, 2008, Department policies were contained in the Department of Human Services Program Administrative Manuals (PAM), Department of Human Services Program Eligibility Manual (PEM), and Department of Human Services Reference Schedules Manual (RFS).

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 273. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10; the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1-.119b; and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 to .3015.

The Department's OIG requests IPV hearings for the following cases:

- FAP trafficking Ols that are not forwarded to the prosecutor.
- Prosecution of welfare fraud or FAP trafficking is declined by the prosecutor for a reason other than lack of evidence, and

- the total OI amount for the FIP, SDA, CDC, MA and FAP programs is $500 or more, or
- the total OI amount is less than $500, and
 - > the group has a previous IPV, or
 - the alleged IPV involves FAP trafficking, or
 - ➤ the alleged fraud involves concurrent receipt of assistance (see BEM 222), or
 - the alleged fraud is committed by a state/government employee.

BAM 720 (May 1, 2014), p. 12-13.

Intentional Program Violation

Suspected IPV means an OI exists for which all three of the following conditions exist:

- The client intentionally failed to report information or intentionally gave incomplete or inaccurate information needed to make a correct benefit determination, and
- The client was clearly and correctly instructed regarding his or her reporting responsibilities, and
- The client has no apparent physical or mental impairment that limits his or her understanding or ability to fulfill reporting responsibilities.

BAM 700 (May 1, 2014), p. 7; BAM 720, p. 1.

An IPV is also suspected for a client who is alleged to have trafficked FAP benefits. BAM 720, p. 1.

An IPV requires that the Department establish by clear and convincing evidence that the client has intentionally withheld or misrepresented information for the purpose of establishing, maintaining, increasing or preventing reduction of program benefits or eligibility. BAM 720, p. 1 (emphasis in original); see also 7 CFR 273(e)(6). Clear and convincing evidence is evidence sufficient to result in a clear and firm belief that the proposition is true. See M Civ JI 8.01.

Disqualification

A court or hearing decision that finds a client committed IPV disqualifies that client from receiving program benefits. BAM 720, p. 15-16. A disqualified recipient remains a member of an active group as long as he lives with them, and other eligible group members may continue to receive benefits. BAM 720, p. 16.

Clients who commit an IPV are disqualified for a standard disqualification period except when a court orders a different period, or except when the OI relates to MA. BAM 720, p. 13. Refusal to repay will not cause denial of current or future MA if the client is otherwise eligible. BAM 710 (July 1, 2013), p. 2. Clients are disqualified for periods of one year for the first IPV, two years for the second IPV, lifetime disqualification for the third IPV, and ten years for a FAP concurrent receipt of benefits. BAM 720, p. 16.

Overissuance

When a client group receives more benefits than they are entitled to receive, the Department must attempt to recoup the OI. BAM 700, p. 1.

In this case, the Respondent acknowledged on an application for assistance dated May 25, 2010, the responsibility to report all income to the Department. On her May 25, 2010, application for assistance, the Respondent reported that her husband was receiving weekly sick pay in the gross amount of $ The Respondent also reported that she was receiving disability payments in the gross monthly amount of $ and her two daughters were receiving disability payments in the gross monthly amount of $ and her two daughters were receiving disability payments in the gross monthly amount of $ and her two daughters were receiving disability payments in the gross monthly amount of $ and her two daughters were receiving disability payments in the gross monthly amount of $ and her two daughters were receiving disability payments in the gross monthly amount of $ and her two daughters were receiving disability payments in the gross monthly amount of $ and her two daughters were receiving disability payments in the gross monthly amount of $ and her two daughters were receiving disability payments in the gross monthly amount of $ and her two daughters were receiving disability payments in the gross monthly amount of $ and her two daughters were receiving disability payments in the gross monthly amount of $ and her two daughters were receiving disability payments in the gross monthly amount of $ and her two daughters were receiving disability payments in the gross monthly amount of $ and her two daughters were received and the second of the

On May 26, 2010, the Department approved the Respondent for FAP benefits with a monthly allotment of benefits. The Department determined that the Respondent's benefit group was receiving a total monthly unearned income in the gross monthly amount of $ 100.

A Work Number report indicates that the Respondent's husband has been receiving payments from his employer from August 19, 2007, through May 27, 2012, although the report indicates 0 hours worked.

On April 20, 2012, the Respondent sent her caseworker a message "I thought that I let you know that was getting sick pay."

The Department alleges that the Respondent intentionally failed to report the sick pay her husband received for the purpose of receiving benefits that she was not entitled to.

The Department has the burden of establishing by clear and convincing evidence that the Respondent committed an Intentional Program Violation (IPV). The clear and convincing evidence standard, which is the most demanding standard applied in civil cases, is established where there is evidence so clear, direct and weighty and convincing that a conclusion can be drawn without hesitancy of the truth of the precise facts in issue. Smith v Anonymous Joint Enterprise, 487 Mich 102; 793 NW2d 533 (2010), reh den 488 Mich 860; 793 NW2d 559 (2010).

Clear and convincing proof is that which produces in the mind of the trier of fact a firm belief or conviction as to the truth of the precise facts in issue. Evidence may be uncontroverted and yet not be clear and convincing. Conversely, evidence may be clear and convincing even if contradicted. Id.

This Administrative Law Judge finds that sick pay was reported on May 25, 2010, and the Department appears to have counted the sick pay when it approved the Respondent for a monthly allotment of benefits. On April 20, 2012, the Respondent reported that she believed that her caseworker was aware of the sick pay.

From February 1, 2012, through May 31, 2012, a group of four with a net income between $ and $ and $ was entitled to a $ monthly allotment of FAP benefits. Department of Human Services Reference Table Manual (RFT) 260 (October 1, 2011), p 5.

No evidence was presented on the record showing the amount of FAP benefits the Respondent actually received from February 1, 2012, through May 31, 2012.

This Administrative Law Judge finds that the Department has failed to establish by clear and convincing evidence that the Respondent intentionally failed to report her husband's sick leave to the Department for the purposes of receiving and maintaining Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits that she would not have been eligible to receive otherwise.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, concludes that:

- 1. The Department has not established by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent committed an IPV.
- 2. The Department is ORDERED to delete the OI and cease any recoupment action.
