Reg. No.: 14-019177
Issue No.: 2001
Case No.: ██████████
Hearing Date: March 19, 2015
County: Washtenaw (District 20)

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE: Alice C. Elkin

HEARING DECISION

Following Claimant's spouse's request for a hearing, this matter is before the undersigned Administrative Law Judge pursuant to MCL 400.9 and 400.37; 7 CFR 273.15 to 273.18; 42 CFR 431.200 to 431.250; 45 CFR 99.1 to 99.33; and 45 CFR 205.10. After due notice, an in-person hearing was held on March 19, 2015, from Ypsilanti, Michigan. Attorney ██████████ represented Claimant. Assistant Attorney General ██████████ ██████████ represented the Department of Human Services (Department). Department witnesses included ██████████, Eligibility Specialist, and ██████████ Departmental Specialist with the Department's Office of Legal Services, who participated via 3-way telephone conference. ██████████, Assistance Payment Supervisor with the Department, was present at the hearing but did not participate.

ISSUE

Did the Department properly deny Claimant's January 30, 2014 application for Medical Assistance (MA) benefits based upon its determination that Claimant had excess assets?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. Claimant and her spouse (Spouse) were married during the relevant time period.
2. On December 5, 2013 (the initial asset assessment date), Claimant entered a long-term care (LTC) facility, where she remained for more than 30 days.

3. On January 10, 2014, Spouse executed the “[Spouse] Irrevocable Trust” indicating that the trust was intended as a “solely for the benefit of” trust (SBO Trust) (Exhibit D, pp. 16-25).
4. The SBO Trust was funded with assets of Claimant and Spouse.
5. Section 2.2 of the SBO Trust describe the distributions from the Trust to Spouse:

During each fiscal year of the Trust, Trustee shall from time to time during the fiscal year pay or distribute to me, or for my sole benefit, during my lifetime whatever part of the net income and principal (the Resources) of the Trust that Trustee determines is necessary to distribute the resources on an actuarially sound basis. However, during the first fiscal year of the Trust, the distribution shall be made to me after August 1, 2014, but before December 1, 2014. In determining an actuarially sound basis for distribution, Trustee shall use the life expectancy table attached to this Agreement as exhibit A, to determine the appropriate minimum portion of the Resources to be distributed in any fiscal year. During my lifetime, no Resources of the Trust may be used for anyone other than me, except for Trustee fees. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, Trustee shall distribute the Resources of the Trust at a rate that is calculated to use up all of the Resources during my lifetime. The Resources of the Trust shall be valued on the first day of July of each fiscal year of the Trust, except that in the first fiscal year the Resources of the Trust shall be valued as of the date of their contribution to the Trust.

(Exhibit D, p. 18.)

6. On January 30, 2014, an application for MA for Claimant was submitted to the Department.
7. In connection with processing the application, the Department sent the SBO Trust to its Office of Legal Services/Trust and Annuities Unit for evaluation.
8. On March 26, 2014, the Office of Legal Services/Trust and Annuities Unit issued a memo to the Department worker processing the case finding that the SBO Trust was not a countable asset and the transfer of assets to the SBO Trust was not a divestment (Exhibit C).
9. On August 29, 2014, while Claimant’s MA application was still being processed, the Office of Legal Services/Trust and Annuities Unit issued a second memo to the Department worker processing the case that replaced the March 26, 2014, evaluation and confirmed that the transfer of assets to the SBO Trust was not a divestment but concluded that the SBO Trust was a countable asset, with a value equal to all the countable net income and the countable assets in the principal of the Trust (Exhibit B).

10. In an initial asset assessment, the Department determined that the protected spousal amount (PSA) applicable to Claimant's MA asset-eligibility was $117,240 (Exhibit E).
11. The Department concluded that, due to the SBO Trust being a countable asset, Claimant's total countable assets in the application month of January 2014 exceeded the applicable asset limit for MA eligibility.
12. On September 29, 2014, the Department sent Claimant a Health Care Coverage Determination Notice denying her MA application on the basis that her countable assets exceeded the MA asset limit (Exhibit A).
13. On December 25, 2014, Spouse timely filed a request for hearing disputing the Department's decision.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Department of Human Services Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), Department of Human Services Reference Tables Manual (RFT), and Department of Human Services Emergency Relief Manual (ERM).

The Medical Assistance (MA) program is established by Title XIX of the Social Security Act, 42 USC 1396-1396w-5; 42 USC 1315; the Affordable Care Act of 2010, the collective term for the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act, Pub. L. No. 111-148, as amended by the Health Care and Education Reconciliation Act of 2010, Pub. L. No. 111-152; and 42 CFR 430.10-.25. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers the MA program pursuant to 42 CFR 435, MCL 400.10, and MCL 400.105-.112k.

BACKGROUND

Medicaid is a federal-state cooperative program established by Title XIX of the Social Security Act of 1965 to assist needy individuals with medical expenses. 42 USC 1396-1396w-5. States are not required to participate in the Medicaid program, but states that do must comply with federal law and regulations in administering the program. Mackey v Dep't of Human Servs, 289 Mich App 688, 486; 808 NW2d 484 (2010), citing, in part, Atkins v Rivera, 477 US 154, 156-157; 106 S Ct 2456; 91 L Ed 2d 131 (1986). Michigan participates in the Medicaid program, and the Department administers the program, generally referred to as the Medical Assistance (MA) program, under MCL 400.105-.112k and Department policies contained in the Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM). BEM 105 (January 2014), p. 1.

In Michigan, individuals who are aged (age 65 or older), blind, disabled, entitled to Medicare, or formerly blind or disabled are eligible for MA under SSI-related categories. BEM 105, p. 1. Extended care is an SSI-related MA category that provides MA benefits to aged, blind or disabled individuals in a LTC facility who meet the financial and nonfinancial eligibility criteria. BEM 164 (July 2013), pp. 1-2. For any individual in a LTC facility, eligibility for MA is subject to a $2000 asset limit applicable to an asset group of one. BEM 211 (January 2014), p. 5; BEM 402 (July 2013), p. 4; BEM 400 (December 2013), p. 7. However, when the individual in the LTC facility is married, the Department excludes the protected spousal amount (PSA), a portion of the individual's and his/her spouse's assets protected for use by the community spouse,¹ from the calculation of the institutionalized spouse's asset-eligibility for MA. BEM 402, pp. 4, 9.

The Department determines the PSA by performing an initial asset assessment to calculate the couple's total countable assets as of the first day of the institutionalized spouse's first continuous period of care. BEM 402, pp. 1, 7. In general, in the absence of a court order or hearing to the contrary, the PSA is equal to one-half of the couple's total countable assets as calculated at the initial asset assessment, subject at the time of Claimant's MA application in 2014 to a minimum of $23,448 and a maximum of $117,240. BEM 402, p. 9.

When the institutionalized spouse applies for MA, the amount of his or her countable assets for initial asset eligibility² is equal to (i) the value of the couple's (his, her, their) countable assets for the month being tested minus (ii) the PSA. BEM 402, p. 4. If the result of this calculation is greater than the institutionalized spouse's applicable $2000 asset limit for MA eligibility, the institutionalized spouse is ineligible for MA based on excess assets. BEM 402, p. 4.³

DISCUSSION

² The initial asset eligibility is the institutionalized spouse's asset eligibility for MA during the application month and any retroactive month (up to three months prior to the application month). BEM 401, pp. 3-4. In contrast, the initial asset assessment is the calculation of the couple's total countable assets on the first day of the institutionalized spouse's first continuous period of care and is used to calculate the PSA. BEM 401, p. 7.

In this case, an application for MA extended care benefits was submitted for Claimant, a resident of a LTC facility, on January 30, 2014. The Department concluded that the applicable PSA for Spouse was $117,240. The Department contends that the SBO Trust was a countable asset in determining Claimant's asset-eligibility for MA, and, because the sum of Claimant's assets including the SBO Trust, less the PSA, exceeded $2000, Claimant was not asset-eligible for MA.

Claimant's counsel argues that the Department's conclusion that the SBO Trust is a countable asset is contrary to its long-standing policy that irrevocable "solely for the benefit" trusts for a community spouse are not countable. At the hearing, the departmental specialist for the Department's Office of Legal Services acknowledged that, prior to August 20, 2014, the Department had found irrevocable "solely for the benefit" of a community spouse trusts not countable when determining the institutionalized spouse's asset eligibility for MA but that effective August 20, 2014, it concluded that such trusts were in fact countable and applied this standard to applications being processed during that period. In fact, in Claimant's case, the Department had initially concluded in a March 26, 2014, internal memo that the SBO Trust was not a countable asset (Exhibit C). However, because the application had not been certified as of August 20, 2014, it was resubmitted to the Office of Legal Services for reevaluation resulting in a new internal memo dated August 29, 2014, concluding that the SBO Trust was a countable asset (Exhibit B). The parties agree that there was no change in existing policy or law but there was a change in the Department's application of existing law and policy.

Claimant's counsel argues that the Department's undue delay in processing the application, far beyond the applicable 45-day standard of promptness for processing MA applications under BAM 115 (January 2014), p. 15, resulted in the SBO Trust being a countable asset and, consequently, the denial of Claimant's MA application for excess assets. Where Department policy is not contrary to existing law, the authority of an administrative law judge is limited to determining whether the Department's actions were in accordance with Department policy. BAM 600 (July 2013), p. 35. Administrative law judges presiding over Department hearings "have no authority to make decisions on constitutional grounds, overrule statutes, overrule promulgated regulations, or overrule or make exceptions to Department policy." Delegation of Hearing Authority executed by Maura Corrigan, Department Director, July 13, 2011. Furthermore, in the absence of an express legislative conferral of authority, an administrative agency generally lacks the powers of a court of equity. Delke v Scheuren, 185 Mich App 326, 332; 460 NW2d 324 (1990). Because the Legislature has not conferred equitable authority to the Michigan Administrative Hearing System with respect to hearings relating to Department actions, the undersigned is precluded from addressing Claimant's undue delay allegations.

Accordingly, the matter presented in this case is limited to the legal issue of (i) whether Spouse's SBO Trust is a countable asset under existing law and policy and (ii) if so, the value of the SBO Trust for Claimant's MA asset eligibility purposes.

Under Department policy, the determination of whether a trust is a countable asset requires that the trust be evaluated to determine if it is a Medicaid trust, and, if so, whether it is a revocable or irrevocable trust. BEM 401 (October 2013), pp. 3-4, 10-12. A Medicaid trust is a trust that meets the following criteria:

1. The person whose resources were transferred to the trust is someone whose assets or income must be counted to determine MA eligibility, an MA post-eligibility patient-pay amount, a divestment penalty or an initial assessment amount. A person's resources include his spouse's resources (see definition).
2. The trust was established by:
 - The person.
 - The person's spouse.
 - Someone else (including a court or administrative body) with legal authority to act in place of or on behalf of the person or the person's spouse, or an attorney, or adult child.
 - Someone else (including a court or administrative body) acting at the direction or upon the request of the person or the person's spouse or an attorney ordered by the court.
3. The trust was established on or after August 11, 1993.
4. The trust was not established by a will.
5. The trust is not described in Exception A, Special Needs Trust, or Exception B, Pooled Trust in this item.

BEM 401, pp. 5-6.

In this case, Spouse's SBO Trust contains funds transferred by Claimant and Spouse; the Trust was established by Spouse after August 11, 1993; the Trust was not established by will; and it is not a Special Needs Trust or Pooled Trust. Therefore, the SBO Trust is a Medicaid trust.

Determining whether assets in a Medicaid trust are countable depends on whether the Medicaid trust is revocable or irrevocable. In this case, the SBO Trust is identified as irrevocable, and the Department has not disputed that conclusion. (Exhibit D, p. 17, § 1.5). If a Medicaid trust is an irrevocable trust, BEM 401, p. 11, provides the person's countable assets include the value of the countable assets in the trust principal and the value of the trust's countable income if there is any condition under which the principal or income from the trust could be paid to or on behalf of the person. If a trust allows use of one portion of the principal but not another portion, only the usable portion is a countable asset. BEM 401, p. 11.

The provisions in BEM 401 are based on, and consistent with, those in 42 USC 1396p(d)(3)(B), which provide, in relevant part, that in the case of an irrevocable trust

- (i) if there are any circumstances under which payment from the trust could be made to or for the benefit of the individual, the portion of the corpus from which . . . payment to the individual could be made shall be considered resources available to the individual
- (ii) any portion of the trust from which . . . no payment could under any circumstances be made to the individual shall be considered, as of the date of the establishment of the trust (or, if later, the date on which payment to the individual was foreclosed) to be assets disposed by the individual for purposes of subsection (c) of this section, and the value of the trust shall be determined for purposes of such subsection by including the amount of any payments made from such portion of the trust after such date.

Claimant's counsel contends that BEM 401 and § 1396p(d)(3)(B) require only that trusts to, or for the benefit of, the institutionalized spouse be considered in calculating countable assets and, accordingly, BEM 401 and § 1396p(d)(3)(B)(i) do not require that the SBO Trust, which is to the sole benefit of the community spouse, be counted in determining Claimant's MA asset eligibility. In support of this argument, counsel argues that BEM 401, which requires consideration of payment made to or on behalf of "the person," and § 1396p(d)(3)(B), which requires consideration of payment from the trust to or for the benefit of "the individual," are intended to apply only to the institutionalized spouse. Counsel contends that, because payments from the SBO Trust are made solely to the community spouse and no payment from the SBO Trust could be made to the institutionalized spouse, the SBO Trust should be evaluated under § 1396p(d)(3)(B)(ii) concerning divestments.

This argument fails to consider § 1396p(d)(3)(B) within the context of the remaining provisions of § 1396p(d). Section 1396p(d)(1) provides that in determining an individual's eligibility for MA benefits, the rules in subparagraph (3) apply to a trust "established by such individual." Under § 1396p(d)(2), an individual is considered to have established a trust if (i) assets of the individual were used to form all or part of the corpus of the trust and (ii) either the individual or the individual's spouse established such trust other than by will. In this case, Claimant's and Spouse's assets were used to fund the SBO Trust, and the SBO Trust was established by Spouse. Therefore, the SBO Trust is a trust established by Claimant and the value of the trust under § 1396p(d)(3)(B) must be considered in determining Claimant's MA asset eligibility.

Moreover, 42 USC 1936p(h)(1), which defines the terms used in § 1396p, broadly defines "assets" to include all resources of the individual and of the individual's spouse, including any “resources which the individual is entitled to but does not receive because of action by the individual or such individual’s spouse.” BEM 401, p. 4 defines resources consistent with this definition. Therefore, Spouse’s SBO Trust is a resource to Spouse, the value of which must be considered in assessing Claimant’s initial asset eligibility calculation.

This conclusion is consistent with the underlying policy for the initial asset eligibility evaluation requiring that assets of both the institutionalized spouse and the community spouse be counted in determining the institutionalized spouse’s initial MA asset eligibility. BEM 211 (January 2014), pp. 6-7 provides that, for purposes of determining a couple’s countable assets for an initial asset assessment or the institutionalized spouse’s initial eligibility for MA at application, the institutionalized spouse and the community spouse are considered a single asset group. 42 USC § 1396r-5(c)(2) concerning the calculation of resources at the time of an institutionalized spouse’s initial asset eligibility at application provides, in relevant part, as follows:

In determining the resources of an institutionalized spouse at the time of application for benefits under this subchapter, regardless of any State laws relating to community property or the division of marital property –

(A) except as provided in subparagraph (B), all the resources held by either the institutionalized spouse, community spouse, or both, shall be considered to be available to the institutionalized spouse, and

(B) resources shall be considered to be available to an institutionalized spouse, but only to the extent that the amount of such resources exceeds the amount computed under section (f)(2)(A) of this section [the community spouse resource allowance]⁴ (as of the date of application for benefits).

See also Palomba-Bourke v Comm’r of Social Services, 312 Conn 196; 92 A3d 932, 941, 943-944 (Conn 2014) (concluding that the assets of a trust available to the community spouse at the time of the institutionalized spouse’s MA application are also available to the institutionalized spouse). Therefore, under both federal law and Department policy, the SBO Trust, which was an asset to Spouse at the time of Claimant’s MA application, is considered in calculating Claimant’s initial asset eligibility at application. Although Michigan courts have not addressed the application of § 1396p(d)(3)(B) to irrevocable trusts “solely for the benefit of” a community spouse and the determination of whether such trusts are countable assets under federal law, other jurisdictions have addressed the issue and concluded that such a trust is a countable asset to the institutionalized spouse for Medicaid eligibility purposes. Johnson v Guhl, 357 F3d 403 (CA 3, 2004) (Johnson III) and Daily v Oklahoma Dep’t of Human Services, 228 P3d 1199 (Okla App, 2009).

⁴ For purposes herein, the “community spouse resource allowance” is the PSA.

In determining the value of the SBO Trust, both BEM 401 and § 1396p(d)(3)(B) provide that if there is any condition or circumstance under which the principal in an irrevocable trust could be paid to or on behalf of the person, the portion of the corpus from which payment to the individual can be made is a resource. The State Medicaid Manual, which provides guidance to states in administering their Medicaid programs, explains through examples when there are circumstances under which payments can or cannot be made for purposes of determining the value of an irrevocable trust. State Medicaid Manual, Health Care Financing Administration⁵ Publication No. 45-3, Transmittal 64 (November 1994) available at <http://www.cms.gov/Regulations-and-Guidance/Guidance/Manuals/Paper-Based-Manuals/Items/CMS021927.html?DLPage=1&DLSort=0&DLSortDir=ascending>. Although the State Medicaid Manual does not have the force and effect of law, its provisions are relevant and entitled to consideration. Hughes v McCarthy, 734 F3d 473, 478 (CA 6, 2013) (finding that statutory interpretations in Health and Human Services' agency manuals are not afforded deference but are entitled to respect "only to the extent that those interpretations have the 'power to persuade'"); Morris v Okla Dep't of Human Servs, 685 F3d 925, 931 (CA 10, 2012) (finding that the provisions in the State Medicaid Manual are entitled to deference "to the extent that they are consistent with the purposes of the federal statute and provide reasonable interpretation thereof").

In determining whether payments can be made from an irrevocable trust, rendering the trust countable, § 3259.6(E) of the State Medicaid Manual provides the following example:

For example, if an irrevocable trust provides that the trustee can disburse only $1,000 to or for the individual out of a $20,000 trust, only the $1,000 is treated as a payment that could be made under the rules in subsection B [concerning payments from an irrevocable trust]. The remaining $19,000 is treated as an amount which cannot, under any circumstances, be paid to or for the benefit of the individual. On the other hand, if a trust contains $50,000 that the trustee can pay to the grantor only in the event that the grantor needs, for example, a heart transplant, this full amount is considered as payment that could be made under some circumstances, even though the likelihood of payment is remote. Similarly, if a payment cannot be made until some point in the distant future, it is still payment that can be made under some circumstances. (Emphasis in original.)

In this case, the terms of Spouse's SBO Trust provide in §2.2 as follows:

During each fiscal year of the Trust, Trustee shall from time to time during the fiscal year pay or distribute to me, or for my sole benefit, during my lifetime whatever part of the net income and principal (the Resources) of the Trust that Trustee determines is necessary to distribute the resources on an actuarially sound basis. However, during the first fiscal year of the Trust, the distribution shall be made to me after August 1, 2014, but before December 1, 2014. In determining an actuarially sound basis for distribution, Trustee shall use the life expectancy table attached to this Agreement as exhibit A, to determine the appropriate minimum portion of the Resources to be distributed in any fiscal year. During my lifetime, no Resources of the Trust may be used for anyone other than me, except for Trustee fees. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, Trustee shall distribute the Resources of the Trust at a rate that is calculated to use up all of the Resources during my lifetime. The Resources of the Trust shall be valued on the first day of July of each fiscal year of the Trust, except that in the first fiscal year the Resources of the Trust shall be valued as of the date of their contribution to the Trust.

(Exhibit D, p. 18.)

Under its terms, Spouse's SBO Trust requires the annual distribution of funds from the Trust to Spouse with the expectation that the entire principal of the Trust property would be distributed to Spouse over his expected lifetime based on life expectancy tables. The conditions for distributions of all income and principal from the SBO Trust to Spouse are more likely to be satisfied than the conditions leading to disbursement in the State Medicaid Manual example above where funds are disbursed to the beneficiary only in the event the beneficiary needs a heart transplant. Because there is a condition or circumstance for payment of the entire SBO Trust principal to Spouse, the SBO Trust is a countable asset under the State Medical Manual, with a value equal to the full value of the countable assets in the SBO Trust.

The Social Security Administration's (SSA's) Program Operations Manual System (POMS) SI 01120.201D.2. concerning irrevocable trusts provides a similar example as that in the State Medicaid Manual, further supporting the conclusion that the value of the SBO Trust is the value of all the countable assets within the trust corpus. While the POMS, which contains the instructions used by SSA employees and agents to carry out the law, regulations, and rulings in evaluating Social Security claims, are not binding authority, they are entitled to some consideration in evaluating Medicaid claims. <http://www.socialsecurity.gov/regulations/#a0=3>; Bubnis v Apfel, 150 F3d 177, 181 (CA 2, 1998); Davis v Sec'y of Health and Human Servs, 867 F2d 336, 340 (CA 6, 1989); Landy v Velez, 958 F Supp 2d 545, 553 (D NJ, 2013); 70A Am Jur 2d, Social Security and Medicare § 16.

The fact that the trustee controls distribution of the Trust assets does not affect the assessment of whether the Trust is a countable asset. As discussed above, the Department's conclusion that the SBO Trust is a countable asset, despite the fact that the trustee controls the distribution of assets, is supported by federal law, Department policy, and the State Medicaid Manual and POMS. Furthermore, under § 1396p(d)(2)(C), the determination of a countable asset under § 1396p(d)(3)(B) is not dependent on whether the trustee has or exercises any discretion to make payments. In fact, in In re Rosckes, 783 NW2d 220, 225 (Minn App, 2010), the court held that, where the trust allowed the trustee to pay the beneficiary income and principal at such times and in such portions as he deemed advisable, all of the trust income and principal could have been paid to the beneficiary in some capacity and was, thus, available to the beneficiary under § 1396p(d). Any argument that the assets in the SBO Trust are unavailable is further undermined by BEM 400, p. 9, which states that the determination of whether the asset is available for purposes of determining whether it is countable does not apply when the asset is a trust, and BEM 401, p. 10, which states that an asset is not considered unavailable because it is owned by the Medicaid trust rather than the person.

Therefore, Spouse's SBO Trust is, in accordance with Department policy and consistent with federal law, a countable asset valued at the full amount of the value of the assets in the trust corpus at the time of application. Claimant's counsel does not dispute that, when the value of Claimant's assets includes Spouse's SBO Trust, the difference between the value of those assets and the applicable PSA exceeds the $2000 MA asset limit applicable to Claimant's MA asset eligibility. Therefore, the Department acted in accordance with Department policy and federal law when it denied Claimant's MA application on the basis that the value of her countable assets exceeded the limit for MA eligibility.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the above findings of fact and conclusions of law, AFFIRMS the Department's September 29, 2014 determination denying Claimant's MA application.
