ISSUES

- 2. Did the Department establish, by clear and convincing evidence, that Respondent committed an Intentional Program Violation (IPV)?
- 3. Should Respondent be disqualified from receiving benefits for Food Assistance Program (FAP)?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

- 1. The Department's OIG filed a hearing request on February 25, 2015, to establish an OI of benefits received by Respondent as a result of Respondent having allegedly committed an IPV.
- 2. The OIG has requested that Respondent be disqualified from receiving program benefits.

- 3. Respondent was a recipient of FAP and MA benefits issued by the Department.
- 4. Respondent signed an Assistance Application (DHS-1171) on February 12, 2014, acknowledging that she understood her failure to give timely, truthful, complete and accurate information could result in a civil or criminal action or an administrative claim against her. (Dept. Ex A, pp 10-41).
- 5. During the period of May 1, 2014, and December 8, 2014, Respondent was receiving FAP benefits from the State of Tennessee. (Dept. Ex A, p 58).
- 6. Respondent received $ in FAP benefits from the State of Michigan during the alleged fraud period of May 1, 2014, and December 8, 2014. If Respondent had properly reported that she had moved to and was receiving benefits from Tennessee, Respondent would have been entitled to receive $0 in FAP. (Dept. Ex A, p 61).
- 7. Respondent received $2000 in MA benefits from the State of Michigan during the alleged fraud period of July 1, 2014, through September 30, 2014. If Respondent had properly reported that she had moved to Tennessee, Respondent would have been entitled to receive $0 in MA. (Dept. Ex A, pp 62-65).
- 8. According to the FAP Purchase History, Respondent used her Michigan FAP benefits exclusively in Tennessee from May 12, 2014, to October 2, 2014. (Dept. Ex A, pp 59-60).
- Respondent failed to report her move to Tennessee in a timely manner, resulting in a FAP overissuance of for the fraud period of May 1, 2014, through September 30, 2014, and an overissuance of for MA benefits from July 1, 2014, through September 30, 2014.

- 12. Respondent did not have an apparent physical or mental impairment that would limit the understanding or ability to fulfill this requirement.
- 13. A notice of hearing was mailed to Respondent at the last known address and was not returned by the US Post Office as undeliverable.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food and Nutrition Act of 2008, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 273. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10; the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1-.119b; and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 to .3015.

The Medical Assistance (MA) program is established by Title XIX of the Social Security Act, 42 USC 1396-1396w-5; 42 USC 1315; the Affordable Care Act of 2010, the collective term for the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act, Pub. L. No. 111-148, as amended by the Health Care and Education Reconciliation Act of 2010, Pub. L. No. 111-152; and 42 CFR 430.10-.25. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers the MA program pursuant to 42 CFR 435, MCL 400.10 and MCL 400.105-.112k.

Department policies are contained in the Department of Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Department of Human Services Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), and Department of Human Services Reference Tables Manual (RFT). Prior to August 1, 2008, Department policies were contained in the Department of Human Services Program Administrative Manuals (PAM), Department of Human Services Program Eligibility Manual (PEM), and Department of Human Services Reference Schedules Manual (RFS). The following are the relevant policy statements and instructions Department caseworkers follow.

The Department's OIG requests IPV hearings for the following cases:

- FAP trafficking OIs that are not forwarded to the prosecutor.
- Prosecution of welfare fraud or FAP trafficking is declined by the prosecutor for a reason other than lack of evidence, and
  - the total OI amount for the FIP, SDA, CDC, MA and FAP programs is $500 or more, or
  - the total OI amount is less than $500, and
    - ➤ the group has a previous IPV, or
    - the alleged IPV involves FAP trafficking, or
    - the alleged fraud involves concurrent receipt of assistance (see BEM 222), or
    - the alleged fraud is committed by a state/government employee. BAM 720, p 12 (10/1/2014).

Intentional Program Violation

Suspected IPV means an OI exists for which all three of the following conditions exist:

• The client intentionally failed to report information or intentionally gave incomplete or inaccurate information needed to make a correct benefit determination, and

- The client was clearly and correctly instructed regarding his or her reporting responsibilities, and
- The client has no apparent physical or mental impairment that limits his or her understanding or ability to fulfill reporting responsibilities. BAM 700 (10/1/2014), p 7; BAM 720, p 1.

An IPV requires that the Department establish by clear and convincing evidence that the client has intentionally withheld or misrepresented information for the purpose of establishing, maintaining, increasing or preventing reduction of program benefits or eligibility. BAM 720, p 1 (emphasis in original); see also 7 CFR 273(e)(6). Clear and convincing evidence is evidence sufficient to result in a clear and firm belief that the proposition is true. See M Civ JI 8.01.

Disqualification

A court or hearing decision that finds a client committed an IPV disqualifies that client from receiving program benefits. BAM 720, p 15. A disqualified recipient remains a member of an active group as long as he lives with them, and other eligible group members may continue to receive benefits. BAM 720, p 16.

Clients who commit an IPV are disqualified for a standard disqualification period except when a court orders a different period, or except when the OI relates to MA. BAM 720, p 13. Refusal to repay will not cause denial of current or future MA if the client is otherwise eligible. BAM 710 (7/1/2013), p 2. Clients are disqualified for periods of one year for the first IPV, two years for the second IPV, lifetime disqualification for the third IPV, and ten years for a FAP concurrent receipt of benefits. BAM 720, p 16.

In this case, this is a concurrent receipt of FAP benefits IPV.

Overissuance

When a client group receives more benefits than they are entitled to receive, the Department must attempt to recoup the OI. BAM 700, p 1.

In this case, Respondent was receiving concurrent FAP benefits in Michigan and Tennessee from May 1, 2014, through September 30, 2014.

The Department submitted correspondence from the State of Tennessee dated December 8, 2014, showing dual assistance. In addition, Respondent had notified the Department on August 11, 2014, that she had moved to Tennessee.

The Department submitted the FAP Benefit Summary Inquiry from May 1, 2014, through September 30, 2014, showing Respondent received $ a month in Michigan FAP benefits. The summary supports that Respondent received a total of $ 100 in Michigan FAP benefits from May 1, 2014, through September 30, 2014. In addition, the Department submitted evidence Respondent received $ 100 in MA benefits while residing in Tennessee from July 1, 2014, through September 30, 2014. Had Respondent timely notified the Department of her move to Tennessee, she would not have been eligible for FAP or MA during the fraud periods.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, concludes that:

- 1. The Department has established by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent committed an IPV.
- 2. Respondent did receive an OI of FAP benefits in the amount of $ and an OI of MA benefits in the amount of $ for a total of $

The Department is ORDERED to initiate recoupment procedures for the amount of fin accordance with Department policy.

It is FURTHER ORDERED that Respondent be personally disqualified from participation in the FAP program for 10 years.
