MICHIGAN ADMINISTRATIVE HEARING SYSTEM
ADMINISTRATIVE HEARINGS FOR THE
DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES

IN THE MATTER OF:

[REDACTED]

Reg. No.: 15-002711
Issue No.: 3005
Case No.: [REDACTED]
Hearing Date: April 16, 2015
County: Muskegon

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE: Vicki Armstrong

HEARING DECISION FOR INTENTIONAL PROGRAM VIOLATION

Upon the request for a hearing by the Department of Health and Human Services (Department), this matter is before the undersigned Administrative Law Judge pursuant to MCL 400.9, and in accordance with Titles 7, 42 and 45 of the Code of Federal Regulation (CFR), particularly 7 CFR 273.16 and 45 CFR 235.110; and with Mich Admin Code, R 400.3130 and 400.3178. After due notice, a telephone hearing was held on April 16, 2015, from Lansing, Michigan. The Department was represented by [REDACTED] Regulation Agent of the Office of Inspector General (OIG).

Respondent did not appear at the hearing and it was held in Respondent's absence pursuant to 7 CFR 273.16(e), Mich Admin Code R 400.3130(5), or Mich Admin Code R 400.3178(5).

ISSUES

1. Did Respondent receive an overissuance of Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits that the Department is entitled to recoup?
2. Did the Department establish, by clear and convincing evidence, that Respondent committed an Intentional Program Violation (IPV)?
3. Should Respondent be disqualified from receiving benefits for Food Assistance Program (FAP)?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. The Department's OIG filed a hearing request on February 27, 2015, to establish an overissuance of benefits received by Respondent as a result of Respondent having allegedly committed an IPV.
2. The OIG has requested that Respondent be disqualified from receiving program benefits.

3. Respondent was a recipient of FAP benefits issued by the Department.
4. On August 27, 2013, Respondent gave his Bridge Card (FAP) benefits to his sister-in-law to use. (Dept. Ex A, p 4).
5. Respondent received $ [REDACTED] in Michigan FAP benefits from January 1, 2013, and January 31, 2015.
6. The Department alleges Respondent trafficked $ [REDACTED] in FAP benefits from the State of Michigan during the fraud period of January 1, 2013, and January 31, 2015. (Dept. Ex A, p 4).
7. The evidence shows Respondent trafficked $ [REDACTED] from November 9, 2014, through January 9, 2015.
8. Respondent received an overissuance in FAP benefits in the amount of $ [REDACTED]
9. Respondent did not have an apparent physical or mental impairment that would limit the understanding or ability to fulfill this requirement.
10. This was Respondent's first alleged IPV.
11. A notice of hearing was mailed to Respondent at the last known address and was not returned by the US Post Office as undeliverable.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food and Nutrition Act of 2008, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 273. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10; the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1-.119b; and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 to .3015.

Department policies are contained in the Department of Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Department of Human Services Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), and Department of Human Services Reference Tables Manual (RFT). Prior to August 1, 2008, Department policies were contained in the Department of Human Services Program Administrative Manuals (PAM), Department of Human Services Program Eligibility Manual (PEM), and Department of Human Services Reference Schedules Manual (RFS). The following are the relevant policy statements and instructions Department caseworkers follow.

The Department's OIG requests IPV hearings for the following cases:

- FAP trafficking overissuances that are not forwarded to the prosecutor.

- Prosecution of welfare fraud or FAP trafficking is declined by the prosecutor for a reason other than lack of evidence, and
  - the total overissuance amount for the FIP, SDA, CDC, MA and FAP programs is $500 or more, or
  - the total overissuance amount is less than $500, and
    - the group has a previous IPV, or
    - the alleged IPV involves FAP trafficking, or
    - the alleged fraud involves concurrent receipt of assistance (see BEM 222), or
    - the alleged fraud is committed by a state/government employee. BAM 720, p 12 (10/1/2014).

Intentional Program Violation

Suspected IPV means an overissuance exists for which all three of the following conditions exist:

- The client intentionally failed to report information or intentionally gave incomplete or inaccurate information needed to make a correct benefit determination, and
- The client was clearly and correctly instructed regarding his or her reporting responsibilities, and
- The client has no apparent physical or mental impairment that limits his or her understanding or ability to fulfill reporting responsibilities. BAM 700 (10/1/2014), p 7; BAM 720, p 1.

An IPV is also suspected for a client who is alleged to have trafficked FAP benefits. BAM 720, p 1.

Disqualification

A court or hearing decision that finds a client committed an IPV disqualifies that client from receiving program benefits. BAM 720, p 15. A disqualified recipient remains a member of an active group as long as he lives with them, and other eligible group members may continue to receive benefits. BAM 720, p 16.

Clients who commit an IPV are disqualified for a standard disqualification period except when a court orders a different period, or except when the OI relates to MA. BAM 720, p 13. Refusal to repay will not cause denial of current or future MA if the client is otherwise eligible. BAM 710 (7/1/2013), p 2. Clients are disqualified for periods of one year for the first IPV, two years for the second IPV, lifetime disqualification for the third IPV, and ten years for a FAP concurrent receipt of benefits. BAM 720, p 16.

The amount for trafficking-related IPV is the value of the trafficked benefits as determined by:

- The court decision.
- The individual's admission.
- Documentation used to establish the trafficking determination, such as an affidavit from a store owner or sworn testimony from a federal or state investigator of how much a client could have reasonably trafficked in that store. This can be established through circumstantial evidence. BAM 720, p 8 (10/1/2014).

In this case, this is Respondent's first IPV.

Overissuance

When a client group receives more benefits than they are entitled to receive, the Department must attempt to recoup the overissuance. BAM 700, p 1.

A FAP recipient may not sell, trade, or give away FAP benefits, PIN or Michigan Bridge card. A recipient may not allow a retailer to buy FAP benefits in exchange for cash. No one is allowed to use someone else's FAP benefits or Bridge card for their household. DHS-Pub-322 (11-10).

Here, the Department has established that Respondent was aware that misuse of his food benefits is a violation of state and federal laws for which he may be disqualified from the program, fined, put in prison, or all three and repayment of the food benefits.

The evidence shows Respondent's sister-in-law, purchasing groceries at [REDACTED] on August 27, 2013, using Respondent's Bridge card. Respondent's sister-in-law was interviewed and stated Respondent gave her his Bridge card to use in repayment on money he had borrowed from her.

Again, on November 11, 2013, two women are shown using Respondent's Bridge card at [REDACTED], and Respondent is not with them.

Respondent submitted a FAP application on February 14, 2014. On the application, Respondent indicated he was homeless and listed a PO Box as his address. On May 10, 2014, Respondent applied for FAP benefits, giving his address as a PO Box and indicated he was homeless staying with friends and family with no income.

In this case, the first application was dated February 14, 2014, showing Respondent was aware that misuse of his food benefits is a violation of state and federal laws for which he may be disqualified from the program, fined, put in prison, or all three and repayment of the food benefits. Since that was the earliest application showing Respondent knew of his rights and responsibilities, any FAP usage prior to that date will not be considered by this Administrative Law Judge. And as of May 10, 2014, Respondent admitted he is staying with family and friends.

Therefore, based on the evidence presented, Respondent trafficked his FAP benefits on November 9, 2014, December 12, 2014, and January 9, 2015, where there are images of someone other than Respondent using Respondent's Bridge card. While there are images, there is no receipt for the December 12, 2014, purchase. On November 9, 2014, the receipt shows purchases in the amount of $ [REDACTED] and $ [REDACTED] on January 9, 2015, for a total of $ [REDACTED].

The remaining purchases from March 13, 2014, through August 9, 2014, are not evidence of trafficking. The Department alleges some of the items purchased on the receipts during these dates would require refrigeration or storage and Respondent had maintained he was homeless. While the Department is correct Respondent maintained he was homeless, he also indicated on the May 10, 2014, application that he was staying with family and friends.

An IPV requires that the Department establish by clear and convincing evidence that the client has intentionally withheld or misrepresented information for the purpose of establishing, maintaining, increasing or preventing reduction of program benefits or eligibility. BAM 720, p 1 (emphasis in original); see also 7 CFR 273(e)(6). Clear and convincing evidence is evidence sufficient to result in a clear and firm belief that the proposition is true. See M Civ JI 8.01.

Here, it is not clear whether Respondent was also living with family and friends during the February 14, 2014, application and he failed to indicate it, because he listed himself as homeless and with a PO Box address on both applications. Without more, the evidence is unclear and unconvincing that Respondent did not have access to storage and refrigeration at his family and friends.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, concludes that:

1. The Department has established by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent committed an IPV.
2. Respondent did receive an overissuance of FAP program benefits in the amount of $ [REDACTED].

The Department is ORDERED to initiate recoupment procedures for the amount of $ [REDACTED] in accordance with Department policy.

It is FURTHER ORDERED that Respondent be disqualified for 12 months from receiving FAP benefits.
