ISSUE

Did the Department properly deny Claimant's application for Medical Assistance (MA)?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

- 1. Claimant applied for MA on December 23, 2013.
- 2. The Department mailed to Claimant a Verification Checklist (VCL) on December 15, 2014, with a due date of December 26, 2014, requiring "Verification of income, bank accounts, and medical expenses for January, February and March 2014 are needed to determine eligibility. Please also include medical records pertaining to the nature of your disability. These may be mailed in the enclosed envelope, or faxed." (Exhibit A Pages 7-8.)
- 3. Claimant provided copies of medical expenses, but did not provide medical records regarding her claimed disability.

- 4. On January 7, 2015, the Department mailed to Claimant a Benefit Notice (Exhibit A Pages 3-4) denying her medical coverage for January, February, and March 2014.
- 5. The Department received Claimant's hearing request on April 1, 2015.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Health and Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Department of Health and Human Services Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), Department of Health and Human Services Reference Tables Manual (RFT), and Department of Health and Human Services Emergency Relief Manual (ERM).

The Medical Assistance (MA) program is established by Title XIX of the Social Security Act, 42 USC 1396-1396w-5; 42 USC 1315; the Affordable Care Act of 2010, the collective term for the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act, Pub. L. No. 111-148, as amended by the Health Care and Education Reconciliation Act of 2010, Pub. L. No. 111-152; and 42 CFR 430.10-.25. The Department (formerly known as the Department of Human Services) administers the MA program pursuant to 42 CFR 435, MCL 400.10, and MCL 400.105-.112k.

Per BAM 130 (10/1/14), at page 6:

Verifications are considered to be timely if received by the date they are due. For electronically transmitted verifications (fax, email or Mi Bridges document upload), the date of the transmission is the receipt date. Verifications that are submitted after the close of regular business hours through the drop box or by delivery of a DHS representative are considered to be received the next business day.

Send a negative action notice when:

The client indicates refusal to provide a verification, or

The time period given has elapsed and the client has not made a reasonable effort to provide it.

The evidence is persuasive that the documents requested by the Department were not received by the due date. Consequently, the Department was to send a negative action notice. Although she submitted copies of medical bills, she did not submit documents that would provide evidence of her claimed disability. During the hearing she admitted that she did not pay close attention to what she was asked to provide and did not realize that she actually needed to provide medical records rather than medical bills. She needed to provide suitable verification by the due date but she failed to comply with policy.

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, finds that the Department acted in accordance with Department policy when it denied Claimant's application for MA.
