DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES

[REDACTED]

Reg. No.: 15-003637
Issue No.: 1005: 3005
Case No.: [REDACTED]
Hearing Date: May 12, 2015
County: Wayne-District 17

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE: Vicki Armstrong

HEARING DECISION FOR INTENTIONAL PROGRAM VIOLATION

Upon the request for a hearing by the Department of Health and Human Services (Department), this matter is before the undersigned Administrative Law Judge pursuant to MCL 400.9, and in accordance with Titles 7, 42 and 45 of the Code of Federal Regulation (CFR), particularly 7 CFR 273.16 and 45 CFR 235.110; and with Mich Admin Code, R 400.3130 and 400.3178. After due notice, a telephone hearing was held on May 12, 2015, from Lansing, Michigan. The Department was represented by [REDACTED], Regulation Agent of the Office of Inspector General (OIG).

Respondent did not appear at the hearing and it was held in Respondent's absence pursuant to 7 CFR 273.16(e), Mich Admin Code R 400.3130(5), or Mich Admin Code R 400.3178(5).

ISSUES

1. Did Respondent receive an overissuance of Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits and an overissuance of Family Independence Program (FIP) benefits that the Department is entitled to recoup?
2. Did the Department establish, by clear and convincing evidence, that Respondent committed an Intentional Program Violation (IPV)?
3. Should Respondent be disqualified from receiving benefits for Food Assistance Program (FAP) and Family Independence Program (FIP)?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. The Department's OIG filed a hearing request on March 16, 2015, to establish an OI of benefits received by Respondent as a result of Respondent having allegedly committed an IPV.
2. The OIG has requested that Respondent be disqualified from receiving program benefits.

3. Respondent was a recipient of FAP and FIP benefits issued by the Department.
4. Respondent signed an Assistance Application (DHS-1171) on March 11, 2003, acknowledging that she understood her failure to give timely, truthful, complete and accurate information could result in a civil or criminal action or an administrative claim against her. (Dept. Ex A, pp 12-19).
5. Respondent signed an Assistance Application (DHS-1171) on February 24, 2004, acknowledging that she understood her failure to give timely, truthful, complete and accurate information could result in a civil or criminal action or an administrative claim against her. (Dept. Ex A, pp 20-27).
6. On March 31, 2004, the Department received documentation from the Office of Child Support. An Order signed by the Judge on July 24, 2002 severed Respondent's rights to the child [REDACTED]. It was additionally ordered that the child be placed for adoption. (Dept. Ex A, p 28).
7. On July 24, 2002, Respondent's son [REDACTED] was adopted. (Dept. Ex A, p 30).
8. Respondent received $ [REDACTED] in FAP benefits from the State of Michigan during the alleged fraud period of March 1, 2003, through April 30, 2004. Respondent also received $ [REDACTED] in FIP benefits March 1, 2003, through March 31, 2004. If Respondent had properly reported that her son was no longer living with her and her parental rights had been terminated, Respondent would have been entitled to receive $ [REDACTED] in FAP benefits and $0 in FIP benefits. (Dept. Ex A, pp 32-39).
9. Respondent fraudulently reported her son as residing with her, resulting in a FAP overissuance of $ [REDACTED] for the fraud period of March 1, 2003, through April 30, 2004, and a $ [REDACTED] FIP overissuance for the fraud period of March 1, 2003, through March 31, 2004.
10. Respondent was clearly instructed and fully aware of the responsibility to truthfully report all information to the Department.
11. Respondent did not have an apparent physical or mental impairment that would limit the understanding or ability to fulfill this requirement.
12. This was Respondent's first alleged IPV.
13. A notice of hearing was mailed to Respondent at the last known address and was not returned by the US Post Office as undeliverable.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The Family Independence Program (FIP) was established pursuant to the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996, Pub. L. No. 104-193, and 42 USC 601 to 679c. The Department (formerly known as the Department of Human Services) administers FIP pursuant to 45 CFR 233-260; MCL 400.10; the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1-.119b; and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3101 to .3131.

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food and Nutrition Act of 2008, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 273. The Department (formerly known as the Department of Human Services) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10; the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1-.119b; and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 to .3015.

Department policies are contained in the Department of Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Department of Human Services Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), and Department of Human Services Reference Tables Manual (RFT). Prior to August 1, 2008, Department policies were contained in the Department of Human Services Program Administrative Manuals (PAM), Department of Human Services Program Eligibility Manual (PEM), and Department of Human Services Reference Schedules Manual (RFS). The following are the relevant policy statements and instructions Department caseworkers follow.

The Department's OIG requests IPV hearings for the following cases:

- FAP trafficking OIs that are not forwarded to the prosecutor.
- Prosecution of welfare fraud or FAP trafficking is declined by the prosecutor for a reason other than lack of evidence, and
  - the total OI amount for the FIP, SDA, CDC, MA and FAP programs is $500 or more, or
  - the total OI amount is less than $500, and
    - the group has a previous IPV, or
    - the alleged IPV involves FAP trafficking, or
    - the alleged fraud involves concurrent receipt of assistance (see BEM 222), or
    - the alleged fraud is committed by a state/government employee. BAM 720, p 12 (10/1/2014).

Intentional Program Violation

Suspected IPV means an OI exists for which all three of the following conditions exist:

- The client intentionally failed to report information or intentionally gave incomplete or inaccurate information needed to make a correct benefit determination, and
- The client was clearly and correctly instructed regarding his or her reporting responsibilities, and

- The client has no apparent physical or mental impairment that limits his or her understanding or ability to fulfill reporting responsibilities. BAM 700 (10/1/2014), p 7; BAM 720, p 1.

An IPV is also suspected for a client who is alleged to have trafficked FAP benefits. BAM 720, p 1.

An IPV requires that the Department establish by clear and convincing evidence that the client has intentionally withheld or misrepresented information for the purpose of establishing, maintaining, increasing or preventing reduction of program benefits or eligibility. BAM 720, p 1 (emphasis in original); see also 7 CFR 273(e)(6). Clear and convincing evidence is evidence sufficient to result in a clear and firm belief that the proposition is true. See M Civ JI 8.01.

On March 31, 2004, the Department received notification from the Office of Child Support that Respondent's parental rights had been terminated on July 24, 2002, yet it appeared Respondent was receiving FIP benefits. On investigation the Department determined Respondent was receiving FIP and FAP benefits.

By signing the March 11, 2003, FAP/FIP application, Respondent acknowledged she was clearly instructed and fully aware of the responsibility to truthfully report all information to the Department. Respondent's fraudulent listing of her son in her household caused Respondent to receive FIP benefits she was not otherwise entitled to, in addition to an increase in FAP benefits.

Disqualification

A court or hearing decision that finds a client committed an IPV disqualifies that client from receiving program benefits. BAM 720, p 15. A disqualified recipient remains a member of an active group as long as he lives with them, and other eligible group members may continue to receive benefits. BAM 720, p 16.

Clients who commit an IPV are disqualified for a standard disqualification period except when a court orders a different period, or except when the OI relates to MA. BAM 720, p 13. Refusal to repay will not cause denial of current or future MA if the client is otherwise eligible. BAM 710 (7/1/2013), p 2. Clients are disqualified for periods of one year for the first IPV, two years for the second IPV, lifetime disqualification for the third IPV, and ten years for a FAP concurrent receipt of benefits. BAM 720, p 16.

In this case, this is Respondent's first IPV.

Overissuance

When a client group receives more benefits than they are entitled to receive, the Department must attempt to recoup the OI. BAM 700, p 1.

The FAP Issuance Summary from March, 2003, through April, 2004, supports Respondent received an overissuance of $ [REDACTED] in FAP benefits. The FIP overissuance summary shows Respondent received $ [REDACTED] in FIP benefits during the fraud period of March, 2003, through March, 2004, to which she was not otherwise entitled too. Had Respondent properly reported her son was not living in her home, should would have been eligible to receive $0 in FIP benefits, and $ [REDACTED] in FAP benefits.

In this case, the Department has shown by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent received an OI of benefits. The OI was due to Respondent fraudulently reporting her son was living in the home. According to BAM 700, the Department may recoup this OI.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, concludes that:

1. The Department has established by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent committed an IPV.
2. Respondent did receive an OI of FAP benefits in the amount of $ [REDACTED] and a $ [REDACTED] FIP OI.

The Department is ORDERED to initiate recoupment procedures for the total amount of $ [REDACTED] in accordance with Department policy.

It is FURTHER ORDERED that Respondent be disqualified from FIP and FAP for a period of 12 months.
