ISSUE

Did the Department properly deny Claimant's February 13, 2015, application for Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

- 1. On February 13, 2015, Claimant applied for FAP benefits online, indicating that he had two vehicles, a and a control (Exhibit E, p. 6).
- 2. On February 18, 2015, the Department sent Claimant a Notice of Case Action notifying him that his application was denied because the value of his assets exceeded the asset limit for FAP eligibility.
- 3. On April 21, 2015, Claimant filed a request for hearing disputing the Department's actions.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Health and Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Department of Health and Human Services Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), Department of Health and Human Services Reference Tables Manual (RFT), and Department of Health and Human Services Emergency Relief Manual (ERM).

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food and Nutrition Act of 2008, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 273. The Department (formerly known as the Department of Human Services) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10, the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1-.119b, and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001-.3011.

Claimant disputed the denial of his FAP application. The February 18, 2015, Notice of Case Action notified Claimant that his FAP application was denied because the value of his countable assets was higher than allowed for FAP. In order to be eligible for FAP, a client may not have assets in excess of the asset limit. BEM 400 (January 2015), pp. 1, 14. The asset limit for FAP is $5000. BEM 400, p. 5.

The Department must verify asset value at application unless countable assets exceed the limit based on a person's own statement of value. BEM 400, p. 56. In this case, Claimant did not identify a fair market value for the in his application but indicated that he owed over $31,000 on the inhibit and had not exercised the option to purchase. Although the Department indicated that the application asks clients to identify whether vehicles are owned or leased, there was no indication on the application that clients are asked to make such a distinction. Because there is no evidence that a client is asked to identify whether a vehicle is leased, if Claimant's testimony that the is a leased vehicle is verified, the would be excluded from the asset valuation.

Furthermore, when the value of a vehicle must be verified, Department policy requires that the Department use the lower of the value of the vehicle under the fair condition option or at wholesale, applying the greater of actual mileage or 12,000 miles per year and the client's ZIP code. BEM 400, pp. 60-61. In this case, even though the Department testified that the value of the vehicles led it to conclude that Claimant had excess assets, there was no evidence presented that the Department assessed the fair market vehicle of either vehicle. Moreover, the Department is required to exclude, after all other exclusions are applied, from Claimant's vehicle value one vehicle with the highest fair market value per household. If the second is excluded as a leased vehicle and the sis the remaining vehicle, the value of the would be excluded from assessing the value of Claimant's vehicles regardless of its value.

Because the Department did not verify the lease status of the condition or determine the fair market value of the countable vehicles, if any, the Department did not act in accordance with Department policy when it denied Claimant's FAP application for excess assets due to vehicle value.

DECISION AND ORDER

Accordingly, the Department's decision is REVERSED.

THE DEPARTMENT IS ORDERED TO BEGIN DOING THE FOLLOWING, IN ACCORDANCE WITH DEPARTMENT POLICY AND CONSISTENT WITH THIS HEARING DECISION, WITHIN 10 DAYS OF THE DATE OF MAILING OF THIS DECISION AND ORDER:

- 1. Reregister and reprocess Claimant's February 13, 2015, FAP application;
