

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Health and Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), Reference Tables Manual (RFT), and Emergency Relief Manual (ERM).

The Family Independence Program (FIP) was established pursuant to the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996, Pub. L. No. 104-193, and 42 USC 601 to 679c. The Department (formerly known as the Department of Human Services) administers FIP pursuant to 45 CFR 233-260, MCL 400.10, the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1-.119b, and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3101-.3131.

In this case, Claimant attended a telephone triage and the Department explained to Claimant that she was required to participate in work-related activities and that PATH would work around her schedule.

Claimant produced a document from a clinician for the [REDACTED] that stated "(D)ue to her daughter's difficult behaviors and numerous medical appointments, [REDACTED] attendance at Work First may be difficult."

This Administrative Law Judge finds that the Department's stated willingness to work with Claimant to solve any conflicts between the necessary appointments for her daughter and PATH activities is controlling in this instance.

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, finds that the Department acted in accordance with Department policy when it moved to close Claimant's FIP benefits for her failure to participate in work-related activities.
