After due notice, a telephone hearing was held on October 22, 2015, from Lansing, Michigan. The Department was represented by [REDACTED], Regulation Agent of the Office of Inspector General (OIG). The Respondent, [REDACTED] appeared on her own behalf. [REDACTED], Assistance Payments Supervisor, provided interpretation services.

ISSUES

1. Did Respondent receive an overissuance (OI) of Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits that the Department is entitled to recoup?
2. Did the Department establish, by clear and convincing evidence, that Respondent committed an Intentional Program Violation (IPV)?
3. Should Respondent be disqualified from receiving benefits for FAP?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. The Department's OIG filed a hearing request on [REDACTED], to establish an OI of benefits received by Respondent as a result of Respondent having allegedly committed an IPV.
2. The OIG has requested that Respondent be disqualified from receiving program benefits.

3. Respondent was a recipient of FAP benefits issued by the Department.
4. Respondent was aware of the responsibility to timely report any household changes, including changes with income, to the Department.
5. Respondent did not have an apparent physical or mental impairment that would limit the understanding or ability to fulfill this requirement.
6. The Department's OIG indicates that the time period it is considering the fraud period is [REDACTED], (fraud period).
7. During the fraud period, Respondent was issued $ [REDACTED] in FAP benefits by the State of Michigan, and the Department alleges that Respondent was entitled to $ [REDACTED] in such benefits during this time period.
8. The Department alleges that Respondent received an OI in FAP benefits in the amount of $ [REDACTED]
9. This was Respondent's first alleged IPV.
10. A notice of hearing was mailed to Respondent at the last known address and was not returned by the US Post Office as undeliverable.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Health and Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), Adult Services Manual (ASM), and Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

Effective October 1, 2014, the Department's OIG requests IPV hearings for the following cases:

- FAP trafficking overissuances that are not forwarded to the prosecutor.
- Prosecution of welfare fraud or FAP trafficking is declined by the prosecutor for a reason other than lack of evidence, and
 - The total amount for the FIP, SDA, CDC, MA and FAP programs combined is $500 or more, or
 - the total amount is less than $500, and
 - the group has a previous IPV, or
 - the alleged IPV involves FAP trafficking, or
 - the alleged fraud involves concurrent receipt of assistance (see BEM 222), or

- the alleged fraud is committed by a state/government employee.

BAM 720 (October 1, 2014), pp. 12-13.

Intentional Program Violation

Suspected IPV means an OI exists for which all three of the following conditions exist:

- The client intentionally failed to report information or intentionally gave incomplete or inaccurate information needed to make a correct benefit determination, and
- The client was clearly and correctly instructed regarding his or her reporting responsibilities, and
- The client has no apparent physical or mental impairment that limits his or her understanding or ability to fulfill reporting responsibilities.

BAM 700 (May 1, 2014), p. 7; BAM 720, p. 1.

An IPV is also suspected for a client who is alleged to have trafficked FAP benefits. BAM 720, p. 1.

An IPV requires that the Department establish by clear and convincing evidence that the client has intentionally withheld or misrepresented information for the purpose of establishing, maintaining, increasing or preventing reduction of program benefits or eligibility. BAM 720, p. 1 (emphasis in original); see also 7 CFR 273(e)(6). Clear and convincing evidence is evidence sufficient to result in a clear and firm belief that the proposition is true. See M Civ JI 8.01.

In this case, the Department verified that Respondent was hired at Panera Bread [REDACTED], and her first pay date was [REDACTED]. (Department Exhibit A, p. 81) The Department alleges that Respondent committed an IPV by failing to timely report this employment income to the Department, resulting in an OI of FAP benefits.

The evidence establishes that Respondent was aware of the responsibility to timely and accurately report to the Department all household changes, including changes with income. Department policy requires clients to report any change in circumstances that will affect eligibility or benefit amount within 10 days of receiving the first payment reflecting the change. BAM 105 (November 1, 2012), pp. 7-8. Respondent's signature on the DHS-1171-SP Assistance Application (Spanish version) in this record certifies that she was aware of the reporting responsibilities and that fraudulent participation in benefits could result in criminal or civil or administrative claims. (Department Exhibit A, pp. 12-32) Additionally, DHS-2240-SP Change Reports (Spanish Version) were issued to Respondent on [REDACTED], and [REDACTED]. (Department Exhibit A, pp. 40-41 and 74-75) Respondent's testimony also indicated that she was aware of the reporting responsibilities.

However, Respondent's testimony that she reported the employment to the Department when she started working was not supported by the other evidence and cannot be found fully credible. Respondent stated she reported and verified her employment when she first applied as her husband had lost his employment. Respondent thought this was around [REDACTED] (Respondent Testimony) However, the documentary record shows that Respondent applied for FAP in [REDACTED], before her employment began. (Department Exhibit A, pp. 12-32) Respondent was hired at [REDACTED] [REDACTED] and her first pay date was [REDACTED]. (Department Exhibit A, p. 81) Accordingly, Respondent was responsible for reporting this change within 10 days of receiving the first payment reflecting the change.

Respondent testified that she cannot read English and would sign forms when she was told without understanding them. This may explain how the employment was not listed on the [REDACTED], Assistance Application, which Respondent testified was completed with the assistance of a bilingual Department worker. (Department Exhibit A, pp. 48-67) However, Respondent was responsible for reporting the change with employment income well before [REDACTED]. Respondent was hired at [REDACTED], with a first pay date was [REDACTED], and was responsible for reporting this change within 10 days of receiving the first payment reflecting the change. (Department Exhibit A, p. 81) As noted above, Respondent certified that she was aware of the reporting responsibilities and that fraudulent participation in benefits could result in criminal or civil or administrative claims when she signed the [REDACTED], 1171-SP Assistance Application (Spanish version), and she had been issued an DHS-2240-SP Change Report (Spanish Version) on [REDACTED]. (Department Exhibit A, pp. 40-41) Respondent did not allege any impairment with reading or understanding documents in Spanish.

There is no evidence that Respondent timely reported this change in income to the Department within 10 days, as required per policy. Rather, the evidence indicates Respondent first reported the employment income on a [REDACTED], MIChild application. (Department Exhibit A, pp. 76-79)

The verified income from employment was utilized to re-determine FAP eligibility during the fraud period. (Department Exhibit A, pp. 84-110) Respondent's failure to timely report the employment income resulted in an OI of FAP benefits. Accordingly, the Department has established that Respondent committed an IPV by clear and convincing evidence.

Disqualification

A client who is found to have committed a FAP IPV by a court or hearing decision is disqualified from receiving program benefits. BAM 720, p. 15. Clients are disqualified for ten years for a FAP IPV involving concurrent receipt of benefits, and, for other IPV cases involving FAP, for standard disqualification periods of one year for the first IPV, two years for the second IPV, and lifetime for the third IPV. BAM 720, p. 16. A disqualified recipient remains a member of an active group as long as he lives with them, and other eligible group members may continue to receive benefits. BAM 720, p. 16.

In this case, the evidence of record shows that Respondent committed an FAP IPV; therefore, she is subject to disqualification.

Overissuance

When a client group receives more benefits than entitled to receive, the Department must attempt to recoup the OI. BAM 700, p. 1.

The verified income from employment was utilized to re-determine FAP eligibility during the fraud period. (Department Exhibit A, pp. 84-110) The evidence of record shows that during the above-mentioned fraud period Respondent received an OI of FAP benefits in the amount of $ [REDACTED]

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, concludes that:

1. The Department has established by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent committed an IPV.
2. Respondent did receive an OI of program benefits in the amount of $ [REDACTED] from the FAP program.

The Department is ORDERED to initiate recoupment/collection procedures for the amount of $ [REDACTED] in accordance with Department policy.

It is FURTHER ORDERED that Respondent be disqualified from FAP in accordance with Department policy.
