2. On November 21, 2014, the Department sent Claimant an appointment notice for November 25, 2014.
3. On November 25, 2014, the Department sent Claimant a notice of missed interview.
4. On December 22, 2014, the Department sent Claimant a notice of case action informing her that her FAP application had been denied for failure to complete the interview requirement.
5. On January 13, 2015, Claimant requested a hearing to protest the denial of her FAP application.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Department of Human Services Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), Department of Human Services Reference Tables Manual (RFT), and Department of Human Services Emergency Relief Manual (ERM).

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 273. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10, the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1-.119b, and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 to .3015.

At the hearing, the Department presented documentation of its having sent an appointment notice to Claimant on November 21, 2014, for an appointment to take place on November 25 2014, four days after the appointment notice was mailed.

On December 22, 2014, the Department sent Claimant a notice of case action denying her FAP application due to Claimant's failure to complete an interview.

Claimant and her mother both testified that Claimant did not receive the appointment notice until after the specified time for the appointment. Both also testified as to their phone call to the Department the following day in an attempt to seek assistance. BEM 130 (October 2014).

This Administrative Law Judge finds Claimant and her mother credible especially given that the notice for the interview appointment was not mailed until four days before the scheduled appointment.

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, finds that the Department

- acted in accordance with Department policy when it .
- did not act in accordance with Department policy when it mailed the appointment notice four days before the scheduled appointment and failed to respond to Claimant's call to the Department for assistance.
- failed to satisfy its burden of showing that it acted in accordance with Department policy when it .
