1. The Claimant was an ongoing Food Assistance Program (FAP) recipient.
2. On January 13, 2015, the Department sent the Claimant a Redetermination (DHS-1010) with a due date of February 2, 2015.
3. On January 13, 2015, the Department sent the Claimant a Food Assistance Benefits Redetermination Filing Record (DHS-2063).
4. A Redetermination interview did not take place on February 2, 2015.
5. On February 2, 2015, the Department sent the Claimant a Notice of Missed Interview (DHS-254).
6. On March 11, 2015, the Department received the Claimant's request for a hearing protesting the closure of her Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Health and Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Department of Health and Human Services Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), Department of Health and Human Services Reference Tables Manual (RFT), and Department of Health and Human Services Emergency Relief Manual (ERM).

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food and Nutrition Act of 2008, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 273. The Department (formerly known as the Department of Human Services) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10, the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1-.119b, and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001-.3011.

Clients must cooperate with the local office in determining initial and ongoing eligibility and this includes the completion of necessary forms. Department of Human Services Bridges Assistance Manual (BAM) 105 (April 1, 2015), p 5.

Verification means documentation or other evidence to establish the accuracy of the client's verbal or written statements. Verification is usually required at application/redetermination and for a reported change affecting eligibility or benefit level when it is required by policy, required as a local office option, or information regarding an eligibility factor is unclear, inconsistent, incomplete, or contradictory. The Department uses documents, collateral contacts, or home calls to verify information. A collateral contact is a direct contact with a person, organization, or agency to verify information from the client. When documentation is not available, or clarification is needed, collateral contact may be necessary. Department of Human Services Bridges Assistance Manual (BAM) 130 (October 1, 2014), pp 1-9.

The Claimant was an ongoing FAP recipient when the Department initiated a routine redetermination of her eligibility to receive continuing benefits. On January 13, 2015, the Department sent the Claimant a Redetermination (DHS-1010). This form instructed the Claimant to complete it and return it before a required redetermination interview would take place on February 2, 2015. On January 13, 2015, the Department sent the Claimant a Food Assistance Benefits Redetermination Filing Record (DHS-2063) instructing the Claimant that her benefits would end on February 28, 2015, unless further action was taken. The Redetermination interview did not take place on February 2, 2015. On February 2, 2015, the Department sent the Claimant a Notice of Missed Interview (DHS-254) instructing the Claimant that it was her responsibility to reschedule the interview to maintain her FAP benefits.

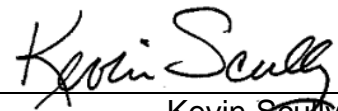

The Claimant testified that the Department's closure of her FAP benefits was based on discrimination.

A complaint as to alleged misconduct or mistreatment by a state employee shall not be considered through the administrative hearing process, but shall be referred to the department personnel director. Mich Admin Code, R 400.903.

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, finds that the Department acted in accordance with Department policy when it closed the Claimant's Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits for failure to provide the Department with information necessary to determine her eligibility to receive benefits, and failure to comply with a required interview.

DECISION AND ORDER

Accordingly, the Department's decision is AFFIRMED.
