Respondent did not appear at the hearing; and it was held in Respondent's absence pursuant to 7 CFR 273.16(e), Mich Admin Code R 400.3130(5), or Mich Admin Code R 400.3178(5).

ISSUES

1. Did Respondent receive an overissuance (OI) of Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits that the Department is entitled to recoup?
2. Did the Department establish, by clear and convincing evidence, that Respondent committed an Intentional Program Violation (IPV)?
3. Should Respondent be disqualified from receiving FAP benefits for 12 months?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. The Department's OIG filed a hearing request on [REDACTED], to establish an OI of benefits received by Respondent as a result of Respondent having allegedly committed an IPV.
2. The OIG has requested that Respondent be disqualified from receiving program benefits.
3. Respondent was a recipient of FAP benefits issued by the Department.
4. Respondent was aware of the responsibility to notify the Department of any changes in her circumstances that might affect her benefits.
5. Respondent did not have an apparent physical or mental impairment that would limit the understanding or ability to fulfill this requirement.
6. The Department's OIG indicates that the time period it is considering the fraud period is [REDACTED], through [REDACTED], (fraud period).
7. During the fraud period, Respondent was issued $ [REDACTED] in FAP benefits by the State of Michigan; and the Department alleges that Respondent was entitled to $ [REDACTED] in such benefits during this time period.
8. The Department alleges that Respondent received an OI in FAP benefits in the amount of $ [REDACTED]
9. This was Respondent's first alleged IPV.
10. A notice of hearing was mailed to Respondent at the last known address and was not returned by the U.S. Post Office as undeliverable.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Health and Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), Adult Services Manual (ASM), and Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food and Nutrition Act of 2008, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 273. The Department (formerly known as the Department of Human Services) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10; the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1-.119b; and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 to .3015.

Effective October 1, 2014, the Department's OIG requests IPV hearings for the following cases:

- Willful overpayments of $500.00 or more under the AHH program.
- FAP trafficking overissuances that are not forwarded to the prosecutor.
- Prosecution of welfare fraud or FAP trafficking is declined by the prosecutor for a reason other than lack of evidence, and
  - The total amount for the FIP, SDA, CDC, MA and FAP programs combined is $500 or more, or
  - the total amount is less than $500, and
    - the group has a previous IPV, or
    - the alleged IPV involves FAP trafficking, or
    - the alleged fraud involves concurrent receipt of assistance (see BEM 222), or
    - the alleged fraud is committed by a state/government employee.

BAM 720 (October, 2014), p. 12.

Intentional Program Violation

Suspected IPV means an OI exists for which all three of the following conditions exist:

- The client intentionally failed to report information or intentionally gave incomplete or inaccurate information needed to make a correct benefit determination, and
- The client was clearly and correctly instructed regarding his or her reporting responsibilities, and
- The client has no apparent physical or mental impairment that limits his or her understanding or ability to fulfill reporting responsibilities.

BAM 700 (May, 2014), p. 7; BAM 720, p. 2.

An IPV is also suspected for a client who is alleged to have trafficked FAP benefits. BAM 720, p. 1.

An IPV requires that the Department establish by clear and convincing evidence that the client has intentionally withheld or misrepresented information for the purpose of establishing, maintaining, increasing or preventing reduction of program benefits or eligibility. BAM 720, p. 1 (emphasis in original); see also 7 CFR 273(e)(6). Clear and convincing evidence is evidence sufficient to result in a clear and firm belief that the proposition is true. See M Civ JI 8.01.

In this case on [REDACTED], Agents of the USDA/OIG conducted raids of the [REDACTED], [REDACTED], and 6 [REDACTED], [REDACTED]. Both stores are operated by the same individual [REDACTED] and are located within one block of each other at the intersection of [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] in the City of [REDACTED]. The raids were a culmination of a federal investigation that determined Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) benefits were being trafficked at the markets.

Both markets are gas station/convenience stores that carry a moderate inventory of chips, pop, candy, and basic food essentials, much of which was past the sell by date. They have no shopping carts or baskets and one point-of-sale device. The cash register areas are enclosed with bullet-proof glass making it impractical to purchase large amounts of merchandise. There is also no conveyor-belt system or bagging area for processing large purchases. The total store sales and Electronic Benefits Transfer (EBT) transactions were greatly in excess of the reported authorized food inventory for the store; and an examination of the EBT purchase histories revealed transactions indicative of trafficking, including high dollar purchases that were excessive for a store of this size and multiple purchases in a short time period.

During the USDA-OIG investigation, agents exchanged SNAP benefits for cash and ineligible items at an exchange rate of approximately $ [REDACTED] in SNAP benefits for $ [REDACTED] cash. The trafficking scheme involved both stores jointly and severally. It was not uncommon for illegal SNAP transactions to be completed where half of the transactions were completed at [REDACTED] and the other half at [REDACTED] in order to obscure the total amount trafficked with each individual.

The EBT transactions history shows strong evidence of trafficking.

Pursuant to this information, DHS-OIG reviewed the EBT Bridge card transactions at [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] and identified a large number of clients, including the above-listed subject, whose purchase history displayed activity indicative of trafficking.

Based upon the EBT transaction history and USDA/OIG investigation, the Food and Nutrition Service (FNS) determined that there was clear and convincing evidence of FAP trafficking at [REDACTED] and ordered that the stores be disqualified as authorized retailers in the Food Stamp Program. Federal criminal charges against the store owner are being pursued by the USDA/OIG and the information was referred to the MI DHS-OIG for the investigation.

Disqualification

A client who is found to have committed an IPV by a court or hearing decision is disqualified from receiving program benefits. BAM 720, p. 13. Clients are disqualified for ten years for a FAP IPV involving concurrent receipt of benefits, and, for all other IPV cases involving FIP, FAP or SDA, for standard disqualification periods of one year for the first IPV, two years for the second IPV, and lifetime for the third IPV. BAM 720, p. 13. A disqualified recipient remains a member of an active group as long as he/she lives with them, and other eligible group members may continue to receive benefits. BAM 720, p. 16.

In this case, previous findings of trafficking FAP benefits lead one to view many of the EBT transactions listed as trafficking.

This is the Respondent's first alleged IPV, and the OIG has requested a disqualification from FAP for a period of 12 months.

Overissuance

When a client group receives more benefits than entitled to receive, the Department must attempt to recoup the OI. BAM 700, p. 1.

In this case, the Department has adequately documented an overissuance of FAP benefits in the amount of $ [REDACTED]

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, concludes that:

1. The Department has established by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent committed an IPV.
2. Respondent did receive an OI of program benefits in the amount of $ [REDACTED] from the FAP program.

The Department is ORDERED to initiate recoupment/collection procedures for the amount of $ [REDACTED] in accordance with Department policy.

It is FURTHER ORDERED that Respondent be disqualified from FAP for a period of 12 months.
