CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Health and Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Department of Health and Human Services Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), Department of Health and Human Services Reference Tables Manual (RFT), and Department of Health and Human Services Emergency Relief Manual (ERM).

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food and Nutrition Act of 2008, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 273. The Department (formerly known as the Department of Human Services) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10, the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1-.119b, and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001-.3011.

All earned and unearned income available to the Claimant is countable. Earned income means income received from another person or organization or from self-employment for duties for duties that were performed for compensation or profit. Unearned income means all income that is not earned, including but not limited to funds received from the Family Independence Program (FIP), State Disability Assistance (SDA), Child Development and Care (CDC), Medicaid (MA), Social Security Benefits (RSDI/SSI), Veterans Administration (VA), Unemployment Compensation Benefits (UCB), Adult Medical Program (AMA), alimony, and child support payments. The amount counted may be more than the client actually receives because the gross amount is used prior to any deductions. Department of Human Services Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM) 500 (July 1, 2015).

Clients have the right to contest a department decision affecting eligibility or benefit levels whenever it is believed that the decision is incorrect. The Department will provide an administrative hearing to review the decision and determine the appropriateness. The Michigan Administrative Hearing System (MAHS) may grant a hearing for any of the following:

- Denial of an application and/or supplemental payments.
- Reduction in the amount of program benefits or service.
- Suspension or termination of program benefits or service.
- Restrictions under which benefits or services are provided.
- Delay of any action beyond standards of promptness.
- For FAP only, the current level of benefits or denial of expedited service. Department of Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM) 600 (April 1, 2015), pp 3-4.

A request for hearing must be in writing and signed by the claimant, petitioner, or authorized representative. Rule 400.904(1). Moreover, the Department of Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM) 600 (April 1, 2015), p. 6, provides in relevant part as follows:

The client or authorized hearing representative has 90 calendar days from the date of the written notice of case action to request a hearing. The request must be received anywhere in DHS within the 90 days.

The Claimant is an ongoing FAP recipient and the Department notified him that it would reduce his benefits to $█ per month on September 13, 2014. The Department received the Claimant's request for a hearing on July 8, 2015, which is an untimely request with respect to this reduction of benefits.

However, the Claimant is entitled under BAM 600 to a hearing protesting his ongoing FAP benefits, and the hearing proceeded with a determination of his current FAP allotment.

The Claimant receives Retirement, Survivors, and Disability Insurance (RSDI) and Supplemental Security Income (SSI) benefits totaling in the gross monthly amount of $█. The Claimant's adjusted gross income of $█ was determined by reducing his total gross monthly income by the standard $█ deduction. The Claimant has a monthly housing expenses of $█, which includes all heat and utility expenses other than for telephone. Since the Claimant's monthly shelter expenses are less than 50% of his adjusted gross income, he is not entitled to an excess shelter deduction for these expenses.

Therefore, the Claimant's net income is the same as his gross income, which is $█. A group of one with a net income of $█ is entitled to a $█ monthly allotment of FAP benefits.

The Claimant objected to the Department's explanation that he makes too much money to receive more FAP benefits and that he is classified as very poor by the Department of Housing and Urban Development.

The only relevant factors in this hearing are whether the Department properly applied the Claimant's income and expenses towards his FAP eligibility determination as directed by the Department's policies. This Administrative Law Judge finds that those policies have been properly applied to his circumstances with respect to countable income and allowable expenses.

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, finds that the Department acted in accordance with Department policy when it determined the Claimant's current eligibility for the Food Assistance Program (FAP).
