ISSUE

Did the Department of Health and Human Services (Department) properly close the Claimant's Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. The Claimant is an ongoing Food Assistance Program (FAP) recipient.
2. On July 30, 2015, the Department sent the Claimant a Verification of Employment (DHS-38) with a due date of August 10, 2015.
3. On September 1, 2015, the Department sent the Claimant a Semi-Annual Contact Report (DHS-1046).
4. On October 10, 2015, the Department notified the Claimant that it would close her Food Assistance Program (FAP) effective October 31, 2015, if the information requested was not returned.

5. On November 25, 2015, the Department notified the Claimant that it would close her Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits.
6. On December 8, 2015, the Department received the Claimant's request for a hearing protesting the closure of her Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Health and Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Department of Health and Human Services Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), Department of Health and Human Services Reference Tables Manual (RFT), and Department of Health and Human Services Emergency Relief Manual (ERM).

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food and Nutrition Act of 2008, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 273. The Department (formerly known as the Department of Human Services) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10, the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1-.119b, and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001-.3011.

Clients must cooperate with the local office in determining initial and ongoing eligibility and this includes the completion of necessary forms. Department of Human Services Bridges Assistance Manual (BAM) 105 (July 1, 2015), p 8.

Verification means documentation or other evidence to establish the accuracy of the client's verbal or written statements. Verification is usually required at application/redetermination and for a reported change affecting eligibility or benefit level when it is required by policy, required as a local office option, or information regarding an eligibility factor is unclear, inconsistent, incomplete, or contradictory. The Department uses documents, collateral contacts, or home calls to verify information. A collateral contact is a direct contact with a person, organization, or agency to verify information from the client. When documentation is not available, or clarification is needed, collateral contact may be necessary. Department of Human Services Bridges Assistance Manual (BAM) 130 (July 1, 2015), pp 1-9.

The Claimant was an ongoing FAP recipient and has reported ending income to the Department. The Department requested verification of the changes to her earned income and the nature of her loss of employment. The Claimant provided documentation of her income, but failed to provide sufficient verification of the nature of her ending income. On September 1, 2015, the Department notified her of a potential disruption to her FAP benefits. On November 25, 2015, the Department notified the Claimant that her FAP benefits had been closed.

The Claimant testified that she had relied on her employer to provide the Department with the necessary information. The Claimant testified that she was prevented from obtaining assistance from the Department because her caseworker's voicemail was full and no additional messages could be left.

The Claimant had a duty to provide the Department with information necessary to accurately determine her eligibility for continuing FAP benefits, which could not be delegated to a third party. The evidence on the record does not support a finding that the Claimant requested an extension to the deadline to provide verification of her employment status or that she requested assistance getting verification from her employer.

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, finds that the Department acted in accordance with Department policy when it closed the Claimant's Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits for failure to provide the Department with information necessary to determine her eligibility to receive continuing benefits.
