HEARING DECISION FOR INTENTIONAL PROGRAM VIOLATION

Upon the request for a hearing by the Department of Health and Human Services (Department), this matter is before the undersigned Administrative Law Judge pursuant to MCL 400.9, and in accordance with Titles 7, 42 and 45 of the Code of Federal Regulation (CFR), particularly 7 CFR 273.16 and 45 CFR 235.110; and with Mich Admin Code, R 400.3130 and 400.3178. After due notice, a telephone hearing was held on April 4, 2016, from Detroit, Michigan. The Department was represented by [REDACTED], Regulation Agent of the Office of Inspector General (OIG).

Respondent did not appear at the hearing; and it was held in Respondent's absence pursuant to 7 CFR 273.16(e), Mich Admin Code R 400.3130(5), or Mich Admin Code R 400.3178(5).

ISSUES

1. Did Respondent receive an overissuance (OI) of Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits that the Department is entitled to recoup?
2. Did the Department establish, by clear and convincing evidence, that Respondent committed an Intentional Program Violation (IPV)?
3. Should Respondent be disqualified from receiving benefits for FAP?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. The Department's OIG filed a hearing request on [REDACTED], to establish an OI of benefits received by Respondent as a result of Respondent having allegedly committed an IPV.
2. The OIG has requested that Respondent be disqualified from receiving program benefits.
3. Respondent was a recipient of FAP benefits issued by the Department.
4. Respondent was aware of the responsibility to report changes in self-employment income.
5. Respondent did not have an apparent physical or mental impairment that would limit the understanding or ability to fulfill this requirement.
6. The Department's OIG indicates that the time period it is considering the fraud period is [REDACTED] (fraud period).
7. During the fraud period, Respondent was issued $1,323 in FAP benefits by the State of Michigan, and the Department alleges that Respondent was entitled to $326 in such benefits during this time period.
8. The Department alleges that Respondent received an OI in FAP benefits in the amount of $997.
9. This was Respondent's first alleged IPV.
10. A notice of hearing was mailed to Respondent at the last known address and was not returned by the US Post Office as undeliverable.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Health and Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), Adult Services Manual (ASM), and Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food and Nutrition Act of 2008, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 273. The Department (formerly known as the Department of Human Services) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10; the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1-.119b; and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 to .3015.

Effective October 1, 2014, the Department's OIG requests IPV hearings for the following cases:

- Willful overpayments of $500.00 or more under the AHH program.
- FAP trafficking overissuances that are not forwarded to the prosecutor.
- Prosecution of welfare fraud or FAP trafficking is declined by the prosecutor for a reason other than lack of evidence, and
 - The total amount for the FIP, SDA, CDC, MA and FAP programs combined is $500 or more, or
 - the total amount is less than $500, and
 - the group has a previous IPV, or
 - the alleged IPV involves FAP trafficking, or
 - the alleged fraud involves concurrent receipt of assistance (see BEM 222), or
 - the alleged fraud is committed by a state/government employee.

BAM 720 (October 2014), pp. 12-13; ASM 165 (May 2013), pp. 1-7.

Intentional Program Violation

Suspected IPV means an OI exists for which all three of the following conditions exist:

- The client intentionally failed to report information or intentionally gave incomplete or inaccurate information needed to make a correct benefit determination, and
- The client was clearly and correctly instructed regarding his or her reporting responsibilities, and
- The client has no apparent physical or mental impairment that limits his or her understanding or ability to fulfill reporting responsibilities.

BAM 700 (May 2014), p. 7; BAM 720, p. 1.

An IPV is also suspected for a client who is alleged to have trafficked FAP benefits. BAM 720, p. 1.

An IPV requires that the Department establish by clear and convincing evidence that the client has intentionally withheld or misrepresented information for the purpose of establishing, maintaining, increasing or preventing reduction of program benefits or eligibility. BAM 720, p. 1 (emphasis in original); see also 7 CFR 273(e)(6). Clear and convincing evidence is evidence sufficient to result in a clear and firm belief that the proposition is true. See M Civ JI 8.01.

In this case, the Department alleges that Respondent committed an IPV of his FAP benefits because he failed to report his self-employment income to the Department, which caused an overissuance of FAP benefits.

Clients must report changes in circumstance that potentially affect eligibility or benefit amount. BAM 105 (October 2013), p. 9. Changes must be reported within 10 days of receiving the first payment reflecting the change. BAM 105, p. 9.

Income reporting requirements are limited to the following:

- Earned income:
 - Starting or stopping employment.
 - Changing employers.
 - Change in rate of pay.
 - Change in work hours of more than five hours per week that is expected to continue for more than one month.

BAM 105, p. 9. Other changes must be reported within 10 days after the client is aware of them. BAM 105, p. 9.

First, the Department presented Respondent's application dated [REDACTED], to show that the Respondent was aware of his responsibility to report changes as required. See Exhibit A, pp. 12-31. Also, the Department included a letter from Respondent's previous employer dated [REDACTED] which indicated that he gave Respondent $200 for him helping on a job. See Exhibit A, p. 32.

Second, the Department presented Respondent's semi-annual contact report (contact report) received on February 3, 2014, which was submitted during the alleged fraud period. See Exhibit A, pp. 33-34. In the contact report, Respondent reported no income even though the evidence indicated that he received self-employment income at the time. See Exhibit A, pp. 34 and 75-84.

Third, the Department presented Respondent's social media page showing pictures of what appeared to be him doing construction/labor type jobs. See Exhibit A, pp. 35-39.

Fourth, the Department presented a Front-End Eligibility (FEE) Investigation Report (FEE report) dated May of 2014, in which OIG agent spoke to Respondent on or around [REDACTED], regarding the alleged self-employment income. See Exhibit A, pp. 41-

42. As a result of the initial FEE investigation, the Department generated on [REDACTED], [REDACTED] Self-Employment Income and Expense Statement (DHS-431) verifications that Respondent had to complete for the time period of February 2014 to April 2014. See Exhibit A, pp. 42-47. On or around [REDACTED], Respondent completed the DHS-431 forms and reported self-employment income from “various construction” jobs from February 2014 to April 2014. See Exhibit A, pp. 42-47.

Fifth, the Department presented evidence of Respondent’s bank statements and deposited check images showing income from multiple sources of self-employment income beginning on [REDACTED]. See Exhibit A, pp. 11 and 48-98. The Department indicated that Respondent did not report his self-employment until the May 2014 FEE investigation conducted by OIG. See Exhibit A, p. 11.

Based on the foregoing information and evidence, the Department has established by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent committed an IPV of FAP benefits. In this case, the Department presented Respondent’s contact report received on [REDACTED]. See Exhibit A, pp. 33-34. In the contact report, Respondent reported no income even though the evidence indicated that he received self-employment income at the time. See Exhibit A, pp. 34 and 75-84. This is persuasive evidence that Respondent committed an IPV of his FAP benefits because he intentionally withheld or misrepresented his income information for the purpose of maintaining his FAP benefits. In summary, there was clear and convincing evidence that Respondent intentionally withheld or misrepresented his income information for the purpose of establishing, maintaining, increasing or preventing reduction of his FAP program benefits or eligibility.

Disqualification

A client who is found to have committed an IPV by a court or hearing decision is disqualified from receiving program benefits. BAM 720, pp. 15-16; BEM 708 (April 2014), p. 1. Clients are disqualified for ten years for a FAP IPV involving concurrent receipt of benefits, and, for all other IPV cases involving FIP, FAP or SDA, for standard disqualification periods of one year for the first IPV, two years for the second IPV, and lifetime for the third IPV. BAM 720, p. 16. CDC clients who intentionally violate CDC program rules are disqualified for six months for the first occurrence, twelve months for the second occurrence, and lifetime for the third occurrence. BEM 708, p. 1. A disqualified recipient remains a member of an active group as long as he lives with them, and other eligible group members may continue to receive benefits. BAM 720, p. 16

In this case, the Department has satisfied its burden of showing that Respondent committed an IPV concerning FAP benefits. Therefore, Respondent is subject to a disqualification under the FAP program. BAM 720, p. 16.

Overissuance

When a client group receives more benefits than they are entitled to receive, the Department must attempt to recoup the OI. BAM 700, p. 1. The amount of the OI is the benefit amount the group or provider actually received minus the amount the group was eligible to receive. BAM 720, p. 8.

Applying the overissuance period standards and in consideration of the Respondent receiving self-employment income on [REDACTED], the Department determined that the OI period began on [REDACTED]. See Exhibit A, pp. 4 and 68. It is found that the Department applied the appropriate OI begin date. See BAM 720, p. 7

An individual who runs his own business is self-employed. BEM 502 (July 2013), p. 1. The amount of self-employment income before any deductions is called total proceeds. BEM 502, p. 3. Countable income from self-employment equals the total proceeds minus allowable expenses of producing the income. BEM 502, p. 3. If allowable expenses exceed the total proceeds, the amount of the loss cannot offset any other income except for farm loss amounts. BEM 502, p. 3. Allowable expenses are the higher of 25 percent of the total proceeds, or actual expenses if the client chooses to claim and verify the expenses. BEM 502, p. 3. A list of allowable and non-allowable expenses are located in BEM 502. See BEM 502, pp. 3-4. Verification sources for self-employment include income tax returns; secondary source – DHS 431 (with receipts); or third source - DHS – 431 (without receipts and FEE referral required). See BEM 502, p. 7.

In this case, the Department presented OI budgets for December 2013 to June 2014. See Exhibit A, pp. 100-114. The budgets included Respondent's self-employment income that was not previously budgeted. See Exhibit A, pp. 48-98. A review of the OI budgets found them to be fair and correct. See BAM 720, pp. 7 and 10 and BEM 502, pp. 1-7. Thus, the Department is entitled to recoup $997 of FAP benefits it issued from [REDACTED].

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, concludes that:

1. The Department has established by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent committed an IPV.
2. Respondent did receive an OI of FAP program benefits in the amount of $997.

The Department is ORDERED to initiate recoupment/collection procedures for the amount of $997 in accordance with Department policy.

It is FURTHER ORDERED that Respondent be disqualified from FAP for a period of 12 months.
