CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Health and Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Department of Health and Human Services Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), Department of Health and Human Services Reference Tables Manual (RFT), and Department of Health and Human Services Emergency Relief Manual (ERM).

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food and Nutrition Act of 2008, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 273. The Department (formerly known as the Department of Human Services) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10, the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1-.119b, and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001-.3011.

In this case, Petitioner testified that she completed the initial application at the Department. Petitioner further testified that at the time of application, she provided a copy of her current pay stubs. Petitioner acknowledged receipt of the VCL and indicated that she submitted a second copy of her current pay stubs upon receipt of the VCL.

The Department confirmed that Petitioner submitted documentation on and but testified that each submission only contained one paystub. Petitioner's assigned worker at the time of application left the Department on and Petitioner was transferred to her current worker on Petitioner brought pay stubs to the hearing and testified that the pay stubs she brought to the hearing were identical to the ones submitted on . The Department indicated that the pay stubs provided at the hearing would have been sufficient if they had been received by the due date listed on the VCL. Petitioner's previous worker did not appear for the hearing. As such, it is possible that Petitioner submitted the documentation which later became lost in the transfer.

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, finds that the Department did not act in accordance with Department policy when it denied Petitioner's application for FAP benefits.
