CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Department of Human Services Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), and Department of Human Services Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food and Nutrition Act of 2008, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 273. The Department (formerly known as the Department of Human Services) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10; the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1-.119b; and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 to .3011.

Bridges Administration Manual (BAM) 725 Collection Actions states that when the client group or CDC provider receives more benefits than entitled to receive, DHS must attempt to recoup the over-issuance. Additionally, anyone who was an eligible, disqualified, or other adult in the program group at the time the over-issuance occurred is responsible for repayment of the over-issuance.

DHHS requests a debt collection hearing when the grantee of an inactive program requests a hearing after receiving the DHS-4358B, Agency and Client Error Information and Repayment Agreement. Active recipients are afforded their hearing rights automatically, but DHHS must request hearings when the program is inactive.

In this case the Department alleges that Respondent caused two separate client error over-issuances by failing to report she had exceeded her Food Assistance Program (FAP) Simplified Reporting income limit. The evidence in this record shows that Respondent was not on Food Assistance Program (FAP) Simplified Reporting during the alleged over-issuance periods and had no requirement to calculate and report if her income exceeded a Simplified Reporting income limit.

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, finds that the Department did not establish that Respondent received a Client Error over-issuance of Food Assistance Program or a Client Error over-issuance of Food Assistance Program.

DECISION AND ORDER

Accordingly, the Department's decision is NOT UPHELD.
