ISSUES

- Did Respondent receive an overissuance (OI) of Food Assistance Program (FAP) and State Emergency Relief (SER) benefits that the Department is entitled to recoup?
- 2. Did the Department establish, by clear and convincing evidence, that Respondent committed an Intentional Program Violation (IPV)?
- 3. Should Respondent be disqualified from receiving FAP benefits for 12 months?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

- 1. The Department's OIG filed a hearing request on June 19, 2015, to establish an OI of benefits received by Respondent as a result of Respondent having allegedly committed an IPV.
- 2. The OIG has requested that Respondent be disqualified from receiving program benefits.
- 3. Respondent was a recipient of FAP and SER benefits issued by the Department.
- 4. Respondent was aware of the responsibility to timely and accurately report group income.
- 5. Respondent did not have an apparent physical or mental impairment that would limit the understanding or ability to fulfill this requirement.
- 6. The Department's OIG indicates that the time period it is considering the fraud period is March 21, 2012 for SER and March 1, 2012 through August 31, 2013 for FAP (fraud period).
- 7. During the fraud period, Respondent was issued $ in SER benefits and $ in FAP benefits by the State of Michigan, and the Department alleges that Respondent was entitled to $ in SER benefits and $ in FAP benefits during this time period.
- 8. The Department alleges that Respondent received an OI in FAP benefits in the amount of $ and an OI in SER o
- 9. This was Respondent's first alleged IPV.
- 10. A notice of hearing was mailed to Respondent at the last known address and was not returned by the US Post Office as undeliverable.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Health and Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), Adult Services Manual (ASM), and Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food and Nutrition Act of 2008, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 273. The Department (formerly known as the Department of Human Services) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10; the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1-.119b; and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 to .3015.

The State Emergency Relief (SER) program is established by the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1-.119b. The SER program is administered by the Department (formerly known as the Department of Human Services) pursuant to MCL 400.10 and Mich Admin Code, R 400.7001-.7049.

Effective October 1, 2014, the Department's OIG requests IPV hearings for the following cases:

- Willful overpayments of $500.00 or more under the AHH program.
- FAP trafficking overissuances that are not forwarded to the prosecutor.
- Prosecution of welfare fraud or FAP trafficking is declined by the prosecutor for a reason other than lack of evidence, and
 - The total amount for the FIP, SDA, CDC, MA and FAP programs combined is $500 or more, or
 - the total amount is less than $500, and
 - the group has a previous IPV, or
 - > the alleged IPV involves FAP trafficking, or
 - the alleged fraud involves concurrent receipt of assistance (see BEM 222), or
 - the alleged fraud is committed by a state/government employee.

BAM 720 (1/1/16), p. 12; ASM 165 (5/1/13), p. 1.

"Suspected IPVs can be combined with FIP, SDA, CDC and FAP programs to meet the OIG referral threshold of $500." BAM 720 p. 6.

Intentional Program Violation

Suspected IPV means an OI exists for which all three of the following conditions exist:

- The client intentionally failed to report information or intentionally gave incomplete or inaccurate information needed to make a correct benefit determination, and
- The client was clearly and correctly instructed regarding his or her reporting responsibilities, and
- The client has no apparent physical or mental impairment that limits his or her understanding or ability to fulfill reporting responsibilities.

BAM 700 (1/1/16), p. 6; BAM 720, p. 1.

An IPV is also suspected for a client who is alleged to have trafficked FAP benefits. BAM 720, p. 1.

An IPV requires that the Department establish by clear and convincing evidence that the client has intentionally withheld or misrepresented information for the purpose of establishing, maintaining, increasing or preventing reduction of program benefits or eligibility. BAM 720, p. 1 (emphasis in original); see also 7 CFR 273(e)(6). Clear and convincing evidence is evidence sufficient to result in a clear and firm belief that the proposition is true. See M Civ JI 8.01.

In this case, Respondent submitted an application for SER on July 19, 2013 (Exhibit 1 Page 65) in which she reported that she was the only group member with employment income (Pages 74-76). She was asking for help with her heat and electric utilities. She reported that she was working 40 hours per week (Page 74) in the Department provided a Wage Match Client Notice (Page 86) completed by her Employer and received at the Department on July 25, 2013, which provides evidence that she was working for the same Employer in the since August 22, 2005. In a Redetermination (Page 82) she reported, as of July 23, 2013, that she was the sole income source for the group. The Department also provided a Wage Match Client Notice (Page 90) which was evidence that her son (a member of her group) worked at a restaurant beginning October 4, 2011, and that he was still working there as of August 16, 2013.

During its investigation, the Department reviewed the respective income earned by Respondent and her son and found that the withholding of information regarding the son's employment resulted in Respondent receiving more in FAP than she would have otherwise received. The Department has presented clear and convincing evidence that Respondent withheld material information regarding the employment and income of the group members, and that she did so for the purpose of receiving benefits she would not have otherwise received. The Department has established an IPV in both the SER and the FAP programs.

Disqualification

A client who is found to have committed a FAP IPV by a court or hearing decision is disqualified from receiving program benefits. BAM 720, p.15; BEM 708 (4/1/14), p. 1. Clients are disqualified for ten years for a FAP IPV involving concurrent receipt of benefits, and, for all other IPV cases involving FIP, FAP or SDA, for standard disqualification periods of one year for the first IPV, two years for the second IPV, and lifetime for the third IPV. BAM 720, p. 16. CDC clients who intentionally violate CDC program rules are disqualified for six months for the first occurrence, twelve months for the second occurrence, and lifetime for the third occurrence. BEM 708, p. 1. A disqualified recipient remains a member of an active group as long as he/she lives with them, and other eligible group members may continue to receive benefits. BAM 720, p. 16.

In this case, Respondent committed an intentional program violation in the FAP program. This is her first IPV in the FAP program. She will be disqualified for 12 months. There is no disqualification period in the SER program.

Overissuance

When a client group receives more benefits than entitled to receive, the Department must attempt to recoup the OI. BAM 700, p. 1.

In this case, the Department presented evidence (Pages 109-153) that Respondent received an OI of $ in SER that she was not eligible to receive. The same evidence shows that she received $ in FAP during the fraud period and that she was eligible to receive just $ in FAP of $ in FAP

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, concludes that:

- 1. The Department has established by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent committed an IPV.
- 2. Respondent receive an OI of program benefits in the amount of $ from the FAP and SER program(s).

The Department is ORDERED to initiate recoupment/collection procedures for the amount of $ amount of $

It is FURTHER ORDERED that Respondent be disqualified from FAP for a period of 12 months.
