Agency No.: [REDACTED]
Petitioner: OIG
Respondent: [REDACTED]

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE: Eric J. Feldman

HEARING DECISION FOR INTENTIONAL PROGRAM VIOLATION

Upon the request for a hearing by the Department of Health and Human Services (Department), this matter is before the undersigned Administrative Law Judge pursuant to MCL 400.9, and in accordance with Titles 7, 42 and 45 of the Code of Federal Regulation (CFR), particularly 7 CFR 273.16 and 45 CFR 235.110; and with Mich Admin Code, R 400.3130 and 400.3178. After due notice, a telephone hearing was held on [REDACTED] from Detroit, Michigan. The Department was represented by [REDACTED], Regulation Agent of the Office of Inspector General (OIG). The Respondent was represented by [REDACTED] (Respondent).

ISSUES

1. Did Respondent receive an overissuance (OI) of Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits that the Department is entitled to recoup?
2. Did the Department establish, by clear and convincing evidence, that Respondent committed an Intentional Program Violation (IPV)?
3. Should Respondent be disqualified from receiving benefits for FAP?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. The Department's OIG filed a hearing request on October 5, 2015, to establish an OI of benefits received by Respondent as a result of Respondent having allegedly committed an IPV.

2. The OIG has requested that Respondent be disqualified from receiving program benefits.
3. Respondent was a recipient of FAP benefits issued by the Department.
4. Respondent was aware of the responsibility to report changes in income.
5. Respondent did not have an apparent physical or mental impairment that would limit the understanding or ability to fulfill this requirement.
6. The Department's OIG indicates that the time period it is considering the fraud period is [REDACTED], (fraud period).
7. During the fraud period, Respondent was issued $ [REDACTED] in FAP benefits by the State of Michigan; and the Department alleges that Respondent was entitled to $ [REDACTED] in such benefits during this time period.
8. The Department alleges that Respondent received an OI in FAP benefits in the amount of $ [REDACTED]
9. This was Respondent's first alleged IPV.
10. A notice of hearing was mailed to Respondent at the last known address and was not returned by the U.S. Post Office as undeliverable.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Health and Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), Adult Services Manual (ASM), and Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food and Nutrition Act of 2008, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 273. The Department (formerly known as the Department of Human Services) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10; the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1-.119b; and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 to .3015.

Effective October 1, 2015, the Department's OIG requests IPV hearings for the following cases:

- Willful overpayments of $500.00 or more under the AHH program.

- FAP trafficking overissuances that are not forwarded to the prosecutor.
- Prosecution of welfare fraud or FAP trafficking is declined by the prosecutor for a reason other than lack of evidence, and
  - The total amount for the FIP, SDA, CDC, MA and FAP programs combined is $500 or more, or
  - the total amount is less than $500, and
    - the group has a previous IPV, or
    - the alleged IPV involves FAP trafficking, or
    - the alleged fraud involves concurrent receipt of assistance (see BEM 222), or
    - the alleged fraud is committed by a state/government employee.

BAM 720 (October 2015), pp.12-13; ASM 165 (May 2013), pp. 1-7.

Intentional Program Violation

Suspected IPV means an OI exists for which all three of the following conditions exist:

- The client intentionally failed to report information or intentionally gave incomplete or inaccurate information needed to make a correct benefit determination, and
- The client was clearly and correctly instructed regarding his or her reporting responsibilities, and
- The client has no apparent physical or mental impairment that limits his or her understanding or ability to fulfill reporting responsibilities.

An IPV is also suspected for a client who is alleged to have trafficked FAP benefits. BAM 720, p. 1.

An IPV requires that the Department establish by clear and convincing evidence that the client has intentionally withheld or misrepresented information for the purpose of establishing, maintaining, increasing or preventing reduction of program benefits or eligibility. BAM 720, p. 1 (emphasis in original); see also 7 CFR 273(e)(6). Clear and convincing evidence is evidence sufficient to result in a clear and firm belief that the proposition is true. See M Civ JI 8.01.

In this case, the Department alleges that Respondent committed an IPV of her FAP benefits because she failed to report her ex-husband's (hereinafter referred to as "group member") earned income to the Department, which caused an overissuance of FAP benefits.

Clients must report changes in circumstance that potentially affect eligibility or benefit amount. BAM 105 (April 2014), p. 9. Changes must be reported within 10 days of receiving the first payment reflecting the change. BAM 105, p. 9.

Income reporting requirements are limited to the following:

- Earned income:
  - Starting or stopping employment.
  - Changing employers.
  - Change in rate of pay.
  - Change in work hours of more than five hours per week that is expected to continue for more than one month.

BAM 105, p. 9.

First, the Department presented Respondent's online application dated [REDACTED], to show that the Respondent was aware of her responsibility to report changes as required. Exhibit A, pp. 11-23.

Second, the Department presented Respondent's online redetermination dated [REDACTED], which was submitted during the alleged fraud period. Exhibit A, pp. 25-32. In the redetermination, Respondent indicated that the group member was still a part of the household, but the Department argued she failed to report his employment income. Exhibit A, pp. 25-32.

Third, the Department presented Respondent's Wage Match Client Notice (wage match) dated on or about [REDACTED], which reported the group member's income. Exhibit A, pp. 33-36. Also, the group member's employer completed two different Wage Match forms and submitted the group member's payroll information. Exhibit A, pp. 33-43. The group member's employment verification showed that he received wages from on or about [REDACTED]. Exhibit A, pp. 33-43.

Fourth, the OIG Investigation Report (OIG report) indicated that the OIG agent spoke to Respondent at her home on [REDACTED]. Exhibit A, p. 4.

At the hearing, Respondent testified and/or asserted the following: (i) she did not intend commit an IPV of her FAP benefits; (ii) she did not dispute that her group member resided with her during the alleged fraud period, but she was in a very abusive relationship with him that began on or about [REDACTED]; (iii) at the time, he began to leave the household and/or not spend nights in the home; (iv) the only income she received was from the group member, but she did not know the source; (v) she did not indicate in the redetermination dated [REDACTED], that no one in her household had income because she did not know he was employed; (vi) she did not know that he was employed but until after the alleged fraud period when she received the wage match dated on or about [REDACTED], (Exhibit A, p. 33); (vii) he left the household in [REDACTED] and she filed for divorce on [REDACTED], and it was finalized in [REDACTED]; and (viii) she filed a Personal Protection Order (PPO) in [REDACTED] County Court against him in [REDACTED].

Based on the foregoing information and evidence, the Department has failed to establish by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent committed an IPV of FAP benefits. The Department's position is that Respondent committed an IPV of her FAP benefits by failing to report the group member's income. Exhibit A, pp. 25-32. In response, Respondent claimed that she was in an abusive relationship, she did not know he was employed; and therefore, she did not notify the Department that he was employed because she was unaware of his income at the time. In order to establish that a client has committed an IPV, the Department must establish that the client "committed, and intended to commit, an IPV." BAM 720, p. 1; 7 CFR 273.16(c); and 7 CFR 273.16(e)(6). Respondent's testimony credibly established that she did not intend to commit a violation of the FAP program. Respondent's credibility is supported by the fact that she did file a Personal Protection Order (PPO); and ultimately, the couple divorce. These subsequent actions by Respondent support her argument that due to the abusive relationship, she was unaware of his daily living routine, including her inability to report his income because she was unaware of it. As such, in the absence of any clear and convincing evidence that Respondent intentionally withheld or misrepresented the income information for the purpose of establishing, maintaining, increasing or preventing reduction of her FAP program benefits or eligibility, the Department has failed to establish that Respondent committed an IPV of FAP benefits.

Disqualification

A client who is found to have committed an IPV by a court or hearing decision is disqualified from receiving program benefits. BAM 720, p. 15; BEM 708 (April 2014), p. 1. Clients are disqualified for ten years for a FAP IPV involving concurrent receipt of benefits, and, for all other IPV cases involving FIP, FAP or SDA, for standard disqualification periods of one year for the first IPV, two years for the second IPV, and lifetime for the third IPV. BAM 720, p. 16. CDC clients who intentionally violate CDC program rules are disqualified for six months for the first occurrence, twelve months for the second occurrence, and lifetime for the third occurrence. BEM 708, p. 1. A disqualified recipient remains a member of an active group as long as he/she lives with them, and other eligible group members may continue to receive benefits. BAM 720, p. 16.

In this case, the Department has not satisfied its burden of showing that Respondent committed an IPV concerning FAP benefits. Therefore, Respondent is not subject to a disqualification under the FAP program. BAM 720, p. 16.

Overissuance

The evidence established that no IPV was committed. However, the Department can still proceed with recoupment of the OI when there is client error.

A client/provider error overissuance is when the client received more benefits than he/she was entitled to because the client/CDC provider gave incorrect or incomplete information to the department. BAM 715 (October 2015), p. 1.

A client error is present in this situation because Respondent failed to notify the Department of her group member's earned income. Respondent did not dispute that the group member was part of the household during the OI period. Thus, the group member's income must be taken into consideration when determining Respondent's FAP eligibility. When the group member's income is taken into consideration, the result is an OI in FAP benefits. See BAM 105, p. 9 and BEM 212 (July 2014), p. 1 (The Department will help determine who must be included in the FAP group prior to evaluating the non financial and financial eligibility of everyone in the group. Spouses who are legally married and live together must be in the same group).

Applying the overissuance period standards, the Department properly determined that the OI period began on [REDACTED]. Exhibit A, pp. 4 and 37. It is found that the Department applied the appropriate OI begin date. See BAM 715, pp. 4-5.

Additionally, when a client group receives more benefits than they are entitled to receive, the Department must attempt to recoup the OI. BAM 700, p. 1. The amount of the OI is the benefit amount the group or provider actually received minus the amount the group was eligible to receive. BAM 715, p. 6.

In this case, the Department presented OI budgets for [REDACTED]. Exhibit A, pp. 44-50. The budgets included the group member's income that was not previously budgeted. Exhibit A, pp. 33-43. A review of the OI budgets found them to be fair and correct. Thus, the Department is entitled to recoup $ [REDACTED] of FAP benefits it issued from [REDACTED]. See BAM 715, p. 8.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, concludes that:

1. The Department has not established by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent committed an IPV.
2. Respondent did receive an OI of FAP program benefits in the amount of $ [REDACTED]

The Department is ORDERED to initiate recoupment/collection procedures for the amount of $ [REDACTED] in accordance with Department policy, less any amount already recouped and/or collected.
