ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE: Jacquelyn A. McClinton

HEARING DECISION FOR INTENTIONAL PROGRAM VIOLATION

Upon the request for a hearing by the Department of Health and Human Services (Department), this matter is before the undersigned Administrative Law Judge pursuant to MCL 400.9, and in accordance with Titles 7, 42 and 45 of the Code of Federal Regulation (CFR), particularly 7 CFR 273.16 and 45 CFR 235.110; and with Mich Admin Code, R 400.3130 and 400.3178. After due notice, a telephone hearing was held on [REDACTED], from Detroit, Michigan. The Department was represented by [REDACTED], Regulation Agent of the Office of Inspector General (OIG).

Respondent did not appear at the hearing; and it was held in Respondent's absence pursuant to 7 CFR 273.16(e), Mich Admin Code R 400.3130(5), or Mich Admin Code R 400.3178(5).

ISSUES

2. Did the Department establish, by clear and convincing evidence, that Respondent committed an Intentional Program Violation (IPV) of FIP and FAP benefits?
3. Should Respondent be disqualified from receiving FIP and FAP benefits for 12 months?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. The Department's OIG filed a hearing request on [REDACTED], to establish an OI of benefits received by Respondent as a result of Respondent having allegedly committed an IPV.
2. The OIG has requested that Respondent be disqualified from receiving FIP and FAP program benefits.
3. Respondent was a recipient of FIP and FAP benefits issued by the Department.
4. Respondent was aware of the responsibility to report changes in employment and income.
5. Respondent did not have an apparent physical or mental impairment that would limit the understanding or ability to fulfill this requirement.
6. The Department's OIG indicates that the time period it is considering the fraud period is [REDACTED] through [REDACTED] (FIP fraud period).
7. During the fraud period, Respondent was issued [REDACTED] in FIP benefits by the State of Michigan, and the Department alleges that Respondent was entitled to [REDACTED] in such benefits during this time period.
8. The Department alleges that Respondent received an OI in FIP benefits in the amount of [REDACTED].
9. The Department's OIG indicates that the time period it is considering the fraud period is [REDACTED] (FAP fraud period).
10. During the fraud period, Respondent was issued [REDACTED] in FAP benefits by the State of Michigan, and the Department alleges that Respondent was entitled to [REDACTED] in such benefits during this time period.
11. The Department alleges that Respondent received an OI in FAP benefits in the amount of [REDACTED].
12. This was Respondent's first alleged IPV of FIP and FAP benefits.
13. A notice of hearing was mailed to Respondent at the last known address and was not returned by the US Post Office as undeliverable.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Health and Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), Adult Services Manual (ASM), and Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

The Family Independence Program (FIP) was established pursuant to the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996, Pub. L. No. 104-193, and 42 USC 601 to 679c. The Department (formerly known as the Department of Human Services) administers FIP pursuant to 45 CFR 233-260; MCL 400.10; the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1-.119b; and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3101 to .3131.

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food and Nutrition Act of 2008, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 273. The Department (formerly known as the Department of Human Services) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10; the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1-.119b; and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 to .3015.

Effective October 1, 2014, the Department's OIG requests IPV hearings for the following cases:

- Willful overpayments of $500.00 or more under the AHH program.
- FAP trafficking overissuances that are not forwarded to the prosecutor.
- Prosecution of welfare fraud or FAP trafficking is declined by the prosecutor for a reason other than lack of evidence, and
  - The total amount for the FIP, SDA, CDC, MA and FAP programs combined is $500 or more, or
  - the total amount is less than $500, and
    - the group has a previous IPV, or
    - the alleged IPV involves FAP trafficking, or
    - the alleged fraud involves concurrent receipt of assistance (see BEM 222), or
    - the alleged fraud is committed by a state/government employee.

BAM 720 (October 2014), p.12;

Intentional Program Violation

Suspected IPV means an OI exists for which all three of the following conditions exist:

- The client intentionally failed to report information or intentionally gave incomplete or inaccurate information needed to make a correct benefit determination, and
- The client was clearly and correctly instructed regarding his or her reporting responsibilities, and
- The client has no apparent physical or mental impairment that limits his or her understanding or ability to fulfill reporting responsibilities.

BAM 700 (May 2014), p. 7; BAM 720, p. 1.

An IPV is also suspected for a client who is alleged to have trafficked FAP benefits. BAM 720, p. 1.

An IPV requires that the Department establish by clear and convincing evidence that the client has intentionally withheld or misrepresented information for the purpose of establishing, maintaining, increasing or preventing reduction of program benefits or eligibility. BAM 720, p. 1 (emphasis in original); see also 7 CFR 273(e)(6). Clear and convincing evidence is evidence sufficient to result in a clear and firm belief that the proposition is true. See M Civ JI 8.01.

In this case, the Department alleges that Respondent committed an IPV of her FIP and FAP benefits because she informed the Department that she was no longer working but continued to receive income from employment. In support of its contention that Respondent committed an IPV, the Department presented several documents submitted by the Department which included two applications dated [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] in which Respondent acknowledged the requirement to report changes to the Department within 10 days.

The Department further presented a Semi Annual Contact Report dated [REDACTED] in which Respondent reported that she was no longer working due to pregnancy and that the only income she was receiving was from child support. The Department sent Petitioner a Notice of Case Action dated [REDACTED] in which it relected that no earned income was being budgeted for the household. The Notice of Case Action also instructed Respondent to report changes in circumstances to the Department within 10 days.

On [REDACTED], Respondent submitted a Simplified Six Month Review in which she reported no earned income. However, Respondent did report that she was employed as of [REDACTED] on an application for child care benefits she submitted to the Department. The Department provided evidence which revealed Respondent's pay history with her employer. While it is true that Respondent received less pay beginning pay date [REDACTED] through pay date [REDACTED], she experienced no interruption in earned income. Given that Respondent submitted a document to the Department on which she said that her sole income was child support, and that information was untrue together with her failure to timely report earnings to the Department, it is found that the Department has established that Respondent intentionally withheld or misrepresented information for the purpose of maintaining FAP benefits.

Disqualification

A court or hearing decision that finds a client committed IPV disqualifies that client from receiving program benefits. BAM 720, p. 15. A disqualified recipient remains a member of an active group as long as he lives with them, and other eligible group members may continue to receive benefits. BAM 720, p. 16.

Clients who commit an IPV are disqualified for a standard disqualification period except when a court orders a different period, or except when the OI relates to MA. BAM 720, p. 16. Clients are disqualified for periods of one year for the first IPV, two years for the second IPV, lifetime disqualification for the third IPV, and ten years for a FAP concurrent receipt of benefits. BAM 720, p. 16.

In this case, the Department has satisfied its burden of showing that Respondent committed an IPV concerning FAP benefits. Accordingly, Respondent is subject to a disqualification under the FAP program.

Overissuance

When a client group receives more benefits than they are entitled to receive, the Department must attempt to recoup the OI. BAM 700, p. 1. In this case, the Department is seeking recoupment of FIP and FAP benefits as it alleges that Respondent received more benefits than she was entitled.

The Department has alleged that Respondent was issued [REDACTED] in FIP benefits during the fraud period. The Department submitted budgets which revealed that Respondent would have been entitled to [REDACTED] in FIP benefits if the earned income had been reported timely. Likewise, Department has alleged that Respondent was issued [REDACTED] in FAP benefits during the fraud period. The Department submitted budgets which revealed that Respondent would have been entitled to [REDACTED] in FAP benefits if the earned income had been reported timely. Therefore, the Department has established that an overissuance occurred in the amount of [REDACTED] in FIP benefits and [REDACTED] in FAP benefits, and it is therefore entitled to recoup those amounts for FIP and FAP benefits it issued to Respondent during the respective fraud periods.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, concludes that:

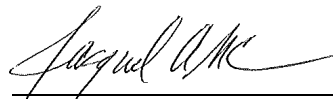

1. The Department has established by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent committed an IPV of FIP and FAP benefits.
2. Respondent did receive an OI of FIP benefits in the amount of [REDACTED] from [REDACTED].
3. Respondent did receive an OI of FAP benefits in the amount of [REDACTED] from [REDACTED].

The Department is ORDERED to initiate recoupment procedures for the amount of [REDACTED] relating to FIP benefits received from [REDACTED] in accordance with Department policy.

The Department is ORDERED to initiate recoupment procedures for the amount of [REDACTED] relating to FAP benefits received from [REDACTED] in accordance with Department policy.

It is FURTHER ORDERED that Respondent is subject to a 12 month disqualification from FIP and FAP benefits.
