ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE: Eric J. Feldman

HEARING DECISION FOR INTENTIONAL PROGRAM VIOLATION

Upon the request for a hearing by the Department of Health and Human Services (Department), this matter is before the undersigned Administrative Law Judge pursuant to MCL 400.9, and in accordance with Titles 7, 42 and 45 of the Code of Federal Regulation (CFR), particularly 7 CFR 273.16 and 45 CFR 235.110; and with Mich Admin Code, R 400.3130 and 400.3178. After due notice, a telephone hearing was held on [REDACTED], from Detroit, Michigan. The Department was represented by [REDACTED], Regulation Agent of the Office of Inspector General (OIG).

Respondent did not appear at the hearing; and it was held in Respondent's absence pursuant to 7 CFR 273.16(e), Mich Admin Code R 400.3130(5), or Mich Admin Code R 400.3178(5).

ISSUES

1. Did Respondent receive an overissuance (OI) of Food Assistance Program (FAP) and Family Independence Program (FIP) benefits that the Department is entitled to recoup?
2. Did the Department establish, by clear and convincing evidence, that Respondent committed an Intentional Program Violation (IPV)?
3. Should Respondent be disqualified from receiving benefits for FAP and FIP?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. The Department's OIG filed a hearing request on [REDACTED], to establish an OI of benefits received by Respondent as a result of Respondent having allegedly committed an IPV.
2. The OIG has requested that Respondent be disqualified from receiving program benefits.
3. Respondent was a recipient of FAP and FIP benefits issued by the Department.
4. Respondent was aware of the responsibility to report changes in income.
5. Respondent did not have an apparent physical or mental impairment that would limit the understanding or ability to fulfill this requirement.
6. The Department's OIG indicates that the time period it is considering the fraud period is [REDACTED] (fraud period).
7. During the fraud period, Respondent was issued $ [REDACTED] in FAP and FIP benefits by the State of Michigan; and the Department alleges that Respondent was entitled to $ [REDACTED] in such benefits during this time period.
8. The Department alleges that Respondent received an OI in FAP and FIP benefits in the amount of $ [REDACTED].
9. This was Respondent's first alleged IPV.
10. A Notice of Hearing was mailed to Respondent at the last known address and was not returned by the U.S. Post Office as undeliverable.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Health and Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), Adult Services Manual (ASM), and Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

The Family Independence Program (FIP) was established pursuant to the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996, Pub. L. No. 104-193, and 42 USC 601 to 679c. The Department (formerly known as the Department of Human Services) administers FIP pursuant to 45 CFR 233-260; MCL 400.10; the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1-.119b; and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3101 to .3131.

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food and Nutrition Act of 2008, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 273. The Department (formerly known as the Department of Human Services) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10; the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1-.119b; and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 to .3015.

Effective January 1, 2016, the Department's OIG requests IPV hearings for the following cases:

- Willful overpayments of $500.00 or more under the AHH program.
- FAP trafficking overissuances that are not forwarded to the prosecutor.
- Prosecution of welfare fraud or FAP trafficking is declined by the prosecutor for a reason other than lack of evidence, and
 - The total amount for the FIP, SDA, CDC, MA and FAP programs combined is $500 or more, or
 - the total amount is less than $500, and
 - the group has a previous IPV, or
 - the alleged IPV involves FAP trafficking, or
 - the alleged fraud involves concurrent receipt of assistance (see BEM 222), or
 - the alleged fraud is committed by a state/government employee.

BAM 720 (January 2016), pp. 12-13; ASM 165 (May 2013), pp. 1-2.

As a preliminary matter, the Department's OIG Investigation Report (OIG report) indicated that the FAP OI is $ [REDACTED] and the FIP OI is $ [REDACTED] which results in a total OI of $ [REDACTED] Exhibit A, p. 4. However, the OI amounts should have been reversed for each program sought. Instead, the FAP OI is $ [REDACTED] and the FIP OI is $ [REDACTED] See Exhibit A, pp. 42 and 54. Nonetheless, this is a harmless error by the Department as the total OI sought remains the same at $ [REDACTED] See Exhibit A, pp. 42 and 54.

Intentional Program Violation

Suspected IPV means an OI exists for which all three of the following conditions exist:

- The client intentionally failed to report information or intentionally gave incomplete or inaccurate information needed to make a correct benefit determination, and

- The client was clearly and correctly instructed regarding his or her reporting responsibilities, and
- The client has no apparent physical or mental impairment that limits his or her understanding or ability to fulfill reporting responsibilities.

An IPV is also suspected for a client who is alleged to have trafficked FAP benefits. BAM 720, p. 1.

An IPV requires that the Department establish by clear and convincing evidence that the client has intentionally withheld or misrepresented information for the purpose of establishing, maintaining, increasing or preventing reduction of program benefits or eligibility. BAM 720, p. 1 (emphasis in original); see also 7 CFR 273(e)(6). Clear and convincing evidence is evidence sufficient to result in a clear and firm belief that the proposition is true. See M Civ JI 8.01.

In this case, the Department alleges that Respondent committed an IPV of her benefits because she failed to notify the Department of her employment and wages, which caused an OI of FAP and FIP benefits.

Clients must report changes in circumstance that potentially affect eligibility or benefit amount. BAM 105 (October 2014), p. 10. Changes must be reported within 10 days of receiving the first payment reflecting the change. BAM 105, p. 10.

Income reporting requirements are limited to the following:

- Earned income:
 - Starting or stopping employment.
 - Changing employers.
 - Change in rate of pay.
 - Change in work hours of more than five hours per week that is expected to continue for more than one month.

BAM 105, p. 10.

First, the Department presented Respondent's online application dated [REDACTED], and her Notice of Case Action dated [REDACTED], to show that the Respondent was aware of her responsibility to report changes as required. Exhibit A, pp 11-27.

Second, the Department presented Respondent's employment verification, which showed that she received wages from [REDACTED]. Exhibit A, p. 41.

Third, the Department presented Respondent's online application dated [REDACTED] [REDACTED] which was submitted during the alleged fraud period. Exhibit A, pp. 28-38. In the redetermination, Respondent reported her employment compensation, which the Department argued was the first time it became aware of the earned income. Exhibit A, pp. 28 and 33.

Based on the foregoing information and evidence, the Department has failed to establish by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent committed an IPV of FAP and FIP benefits. The evidence presented that Respondent did not report her income until she submitted her application on [REDACTED]. Exhibit A, p. 33. This was approximately four months after she began receiving her income (first check dated October 9, 2014). See Exhibit A, p. 41. The evidence is persuasive that Respondent did not report her income timely. See BAM 105, p. 10. Nevertheless, this evidence shows that Respondent did not intentionally withhold or misrepresent her income information as she eventually reported it to the Department. Therefore, in the absence of any clear and convincing evidence that Respondent intentionally withheld or misrepresented the income information for the purpose of establishing, maintaining, increasing or preventing reduction of her FAP and FIP program benefits or eligibility, the Department has failed to establish that Respondent committed an IPV of FAP and FIP benefits.

Disqualification

A client who is found to have committed an IPV by a court or hearing decision is disqualified from receiving program benefits. BAM 720, p. 15; BEM 708 (April 2014), p. 1. Clients are disqualified for ten years for a FAP IPV involving concurrent receipt of benefits, and, for all other IPV cases involving FIP, FAP or SDA, for standard disqualification periods of one year for the first IPV, two years for the second IPV, and lifetime for the third IPV. BAM 720, p. 16. CDC clients who intentionally violate CDC program rules are disqualified for six months for the first occurrence, twelve months for the second occurrence, and lifetime for the third occurrence. BEM 708, p. 1. A disqualified recipient remains a member of an active group as long as he lives with them, and other eligible group members may continue to receive benefits. BAM 720, p. 16.

In this case, the Department has not satisfied its burden of showing that Respondent committed an IPV concerning FAP and FIP benefits. Therefore, Respondent is not subject to a disqualification under the FAP and FIP programs. BAM 720, p. 16.

FAP Overissuance

As stated above, there was no IPV committed in this case. However, the Department can still proceed with recoupment of the OI when there is client error.

A client/provider error overissuance is when the client received more benefits than he/she was entitled to because the client/CDC provider gave incorrect or incomplete information to the department. BAM 715 (January 2016), p. 1.

A client error is present in this situation because Respondent failed to timely notify the Department of her earned income. In regards to policy, the evidence established that Respondent did not report her earned income changes within 10 days of receiving the first payment reflecting the change. BAM 105, p. 10. Thus, an OI is present in this case.

Applying the OI period standard, it is found that the Department applied the appropriate OI begin date of [REDACTED]. See BAM 715, pp. 4-5 and Exhibit A, pp. 4 and 41.

Additionally, when a client group receives more benefits than they are entitled to receive, the Department must attempt to recoup the OI. BAM 700, p. 1. The amount of the OI is the benefit amount the group or provider actually received minus the amount the group was eligible to receive. BAM 715, p. 6.

In this case, the Department presented OI budgets for [REDACTED]. Exhibit A, pp. 42-52. The budgets included Respondent's income that was not previously budgeted. Exhibit A, p. 41. A review of the OI budgets found them to be fair and correct. See BAM 715, p. 8. Thus, the Department is entitled to recoup $ [REDACTED] of FAP benefits it issued from [REDACTED].

FIP Overissuance

In establishing the OI amount for FIP benefits, the Department presented FIP budgets for the period of [REDACTED]. Exhibit A, pp. 54-64. The budgets included Respondent's income that was not previously budgeted. Exhibit A, p. 41. A review of the OI budgets found them to be fair and correct, except for [REDACTED]. See BAM 715, p. 8. The Department failed to use Respondent's actual income she received for [REDACTED], which is required per policy. Exhibit A, pp. 41 and 63-64; and see BAM 715, p. 8. (If improper reporting or budgeting of income caused the overissuance, use actual income for that income source). Thus, the Department failed to establish an FIP OI for [REDACTED]. Nonetheless, the Department is entitled to recoup $ [REDACTED] of FIP benefits it issued for [REDACTED].

In summary, the Department is entitled to recoup $ [REDACTED] in FAP and FIP benefits for the period of [REDACTED], ($ [REDACTED] FAP benefits plus $ [REDACTED] in FIP benefits).

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, concludes that:

1. The Department has not established by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent committed an IPV.

2. Respondent did receive an OI of FAP and FIP program benefits in the amount of $ [REDACTED]

The Department is ORDERED to reduce the OI to $ [REDACTED] for the period [REDACTED] [REDACTED], for FAP benefits and [REDACTED], for FIP benefits, and initiate recoupment/collection procedures in accordance with Department policy, less any amount already recouped and/or collected.
