The exhibits were admitted as Department Exhibit A (pages 1-29) and Department Exhibit B (pages 1-9). The record was closed at the conclusion of the hearing.

ISSUE

Did the Department properly determine Petitioner's Food Assistance Program (FAP) allotment?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. Petitioner submitted his FAP Redetermination in September, 2016. [Testimony of Eligibility Specialist [REDACTED]]
2. On September 16, 2016, the Department issued Petitioner a Notice of Case Action informing Petitioner his FAP allotment had been approved for [REDACTED] from October 1, 2016 through March 31, 2017. [Dept. Exh. A, pp 2-6].

3. On September 21, 2016, Petitioner submitted a Request for Hearing disputing the amount of his FAP allotment.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Health and Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Department of Health and Human Services Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), Department of Health and Human Services Reference Tables Manual (RFT), and Department of Health and Human Services Emergency Relief Manual (ERM).

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food and Nutrition Act of 2008, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 273. The Department (formerly known as the Department of Human Services) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10, the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1-.119b, and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001-.3011.

For FAP purposes, all income that is not specifically excluded is countable. BEM 500, p 3 (1/1/2016). Unearned income is all income that is not earned. Id. For Unemployment Benefits, the gross amount is counted as unearned income. BEM 503, p 34 (7/1/2016) (emphasis added). Gross income is the amount of income before any deductions such as taxes or garnishments. This may be more than the actual amount an individual receives. BEM 500, p 4 (1/1/2016) (emphasis added). Gross income includes amounts withheld from income for example, voluntary amounts, amounts to repay a debt and amounts to meet a legal obligation. Id.

Petitioner was receiving monthly unearned income of unemployment benefits in the amount of [REDACTED] at the time relevant to this matter. A standard deduction of [REDACTED] and a child support deduction of [REDACTED] were subtracted from the gross income of [REDACTED] leaving an adjusted gross income of [REDACTED] ([REDACTED] - [REDACTED]).

An excess shelter deduction is determined by adding Petitioner's rent of [REDACTED] and telephone standard of [REDACTED] for a total of [REDACTED], and then subtracting half of Petitioner's adjusted gross income of [REDACTED]. Half of the adjusted gross income of [REDACTED] is [REDACTED]. Therefore, [REDACTED] which is the adjusted excess shelter amount. (Dept. Exh. B, 5, 7-8). The adjusted excess shelter amount of [REDACTED] is then subtracted from the adjusted gross income of [REDACTED] resulting in a net income of $ [REDACTED].

Federal regulations at 7 CFR 273.10 provide standards for income and the amount of household benefits. In accordance with the federal regulations, the Department has prepared income and issuance tables which can be found at RFT 260. This issuance table provides that a household size of one with net income of [REDACTED] is entitled to a [REDACTED] FAP allotment. RFT 260, p 6 (10/1/2016). Therefore, the Department's FAP eligibility determination was correct based on Petitioner's receipt of unemployment benefits.

Petitioner does not agree with the Department's use of his gross income because that was not the income he received or the amount he actually had to live on. This Administrative Law Judge has reviewed the Department's FAP budgeting processes and finds all calculations were properly made. Consequently, the Department's actions must be upheld, because they are in complete compliance with the Department's policies, and with the governing laws and regulations on which those policies are based.

Petitioner's grievance centers on dissatisfaction with the Department's current policy. Petitioner's request to increase his FAP allotment is not within the scope of authority delegated to this Administrative Law Judge pursuant to a written directive signed by the Department of Human Services Director, which states:

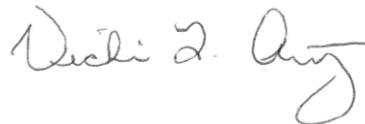

Administrative Law Judges have no authority to make decisions on constitutional grounds, overrule statutes, overrule promulgated regulations or overrule or make exceptions to the Department policy set out in the program manuals.

Furthermore, administrative adjudication is an exercise of executive power rather than judicial power, and restricts the granting of equitable remedies. Michigan Mutual Liability Co. v Baker, 295 Mich 237; 294 NW 168 (1940).

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, finds that the Department acted in accordance with Department policy when it determined Petitioner was entitled to FAP benefits of [REDACTED] a month.

DECISION AND ORDER

Accordingly, the Department's decision is AFFIRMED.
