HEARING DECISION FOR INTENTIONAL PROGRAM VIOLATION AND OVERISSUANCE

Upon the request for a hearing by the Michigan Department of Health and Human Services (MDHHS), this matter is before the undersigned administrative law judge pursuant to MCL 400.9, and in accordance with Titles 7, 42 and 45 of the Code of Federal Regulation (CFR), particularly 7 CFR 273.16 and 45 CFR 235.110; and with Mich Admin Code, R 400.3130 and 400.3178. After due notice, a telephone hearing was held on [REDACTED], from Detroit, Michigan. The Michigan Department of Health and Human Services (MDHHS) was represented by [REDACTED], regulation agent with the Office of Inspector General. Respondent did not appear.

ISSUES

The first issue is whether MDHHS established Respondent received an overissuance (OI) of benefits.

The second issue is whether MDHHS established that Respondent committed an intentional program violation (IPV).

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. Respondent was an ongoing recipient of Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits from the State of Michigan.
2. Respondent began receiving unemployment income beginning [REDACTED].
3. Respondent unintentionally failed to report unemployment income to MDHHS.

4. Factoring Respondent's unreported unemployment income and actual child support income caused Respondent to receive an OI of [REDACTED] in FAP benefits from [REDACTED].
5. On [REDACTED], MDHHS requested a hearing to establish Respondent committed an IPV and received an OI of [REDACTED] in FAP benefits for the months from [REDACTED].

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food and Nutrition Act of 2008, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 273. MDHHS (formerly known as the Department of Human Services) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10, the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1-.119b, and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001-.3011. MDHHS policies are contained in the Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), and Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

MDHHS requested a hearing, in part, to establish Respondent received an overissuance of benefits. MDHHS presented an Intentional Program Violation Repayment Agreement (Exhibit 1, pp. 4-5) dated [REDACTED]. The unsigned agreement alleged Respondent received an over-issuance of [REDACTED] in FAP benefits from [REDACTED]. The repayment agreement, along with MDHHS testimony, alleged the OI was based on Respondent's failure to timely report income.

Clients must report changes in circumstance that potentially affect eligibility or benefit amount. BAM 105 (April 2016), p. 11. Changes [in income] must be reported within 10 days of receiving the first payment reflecting the change. Id.

MDHHS presented documents of Respondent's unemployment income history (Exhibit 1, pp. 11-12). The history was obtained from a data exchange MDHHS has with the Michigan Unemployment Agency. A weekly pay for [REDACTED] on [REDACTED] was listed. Biweekly pays of [REDACTED] were listed beginning [REDACTED]. Petitioner last pay was noted to be for [REDACTED] on [REDACTED].

MDHHS presented child support income history for Petitioner's children (Exhibit 1, pp. 13-15). The history was obtained from a data exchange MDHHS has with Michigan courts. Various payments to Petitioner were noted beginning in [REDACTED]

FAP OI budgets (Exhibit 1, pp. 16-25) from [REDACTED] were presented. The presented budgets factored Respondent's actual unemployment and child support income. No employment income was factored. A corresponding

Overissuance Summary (Exhibit 1, p. 26) calculated Respondent received an OI of [REDACTED] in FAP benefits from [REDACTED]

MDHHS presented Respondent's FAP benefit issuance history from the State of Michigan (Exhibit 1, pp. 31-32). The history listed Respondent received [REDACTED] in monthly FAP benefits from [REDACTED].

MDHHS policy categorizes overissuances into 3 different types: client error, agency error, and intentional fraud (see BAM 700). Client and Agency errors are not pursued if the estimated amount is less than [REDACTED] per program. BAM 700, p. 9.

MDHHS alleged Respondent failed to timely report unemployment income to MDHHS. The allegation was based, in part, on the absence of income budgeted as part of Respondent's original FAP benefit issuances during the alleged OI period. The allegation was also based, in part, on the absence of reporting documented in Respondent's case file. A regulation agent testified that a search of Respondent's case file revealed no indication of Respondent timely reporting income. The testimony is not definitive evidence that Respondent failed to timely report employment income, however, Respondent did not appear to rebut the testimony, nor was superior evidence available.

Presented evidence established Respondent received an OI of [REDACTED] in FAP benefits during the alleged OI period. The OI was established to be caused by Respondent's non-reporting of income. The analysis will proceed to determine if Respondent's non-reporting amounted to an IPV.

The Code of Federal Regulations defines an IPV. Intentional program violations shall consist of having intentionally: (1) made a false or misleading statement, or misrepresented, concealed or withheld facts; or (2) committed any act that constitutes a violation of the Food Stamp Act, the Food Stamp Program Regulations, or any State statute for the purpose of using, presenting, transferring, acquiring, receiving, possessing or trafficking of coupons, authorization cards or reusable documents used as part of an automated benefit delivery system. 7 CFR 273.16 (c).

[An IPV is a] benefit overissuance resulting from the willful withholding of information or other violation of law or regulation by the client or his authorized representative. Bridges Program Glossary (October 2015), p. 36. A suspected IPV means an OI exists for which all three of the following conditions exist:

- The client intentionally failed to report information or intentionally gave incomplete or inaccurate information needed to make a correct benefit determination, and
- The client was clearly and correctly instructed regarding his or her reporting responsibilities, and
- The client has no apparent physical or mental impairment that limits his or her understanding or ability to fulfill their reporting responsibilities.

BAM 720 (January 2016), p. 1; see also 7 CFR 273(e)(6).

IPV is suspected when there is clear and convincing [emphasis added] evidence that the client or CDC provider has intentionally withheld or misrepresented information for the purpose of establishing, maintaining, increasing or preventing reduction of program benefits or eligibility. Id. Clear and convincing evidence is evidence sufficient to result in a clear and firm belief that the proposition is true. See M Civ JI 8.01. It is a standard which requires reasonable certainty of the truth; something that is highly probable. Black's Law Dictionary 888 (6th ed. 1990).

MDHHS presented a Semi-Annual Contact Report (Exhibit 1, pp. 27-28). Respondent listed employment income; under "date started", Respondent wrote "1-17-13 / 7-14-15." MDHHS interpreted the document as a report of a stoppage in employment income. The reporting document was signed by Respondent on [REDACTED].

As of [REDACTED], Respondent had received neither unemployment income nor child support income. Thus, it cannot be stated that Respondent misreported income on the submitted Semi-Annual Contact Report. MDHHS presented no documentation from Respondent which misreported income.

Respondent's failure to report employment information could reasonably be explained by Respondent forgetting to report information. Though MDHHS applications are known to advise clients to report changes within 10 days, it does not ensure that a client would not accidentally forget.

MDHHS did not present written documentation from Respondent which contradicted known facts. Generally, MDHHS will have difficulty in establishing a clear and convincing purposeful failure to report information when there is not written documentation from a respondent which contradicts known facts. Presented evidence was not persuasive in overcoming the general rule.

It is found MDHHS failed to clearly and convincingly establish that Respondent committed an IPV. Accordingly, it is found MDHHS may not proceed with disqualifying Respondent from benefit eligibility.

DECISION AND ORDER

The administrative law judge, based upon the above findings of fact and conclusions of law, finds that MDHHS established that Respondent received [REDACTED] in over-issued FAP benefits from [REDACTED] through [REDACTED]. The MDHHS request to establish an overissuance is APPROVED.

The administrative law judge, based upon the above findings of fact and conclusions of law, finds that MDHHS failed to establish that Respondent committed an IPV related to an OI of FAP benefits due to unreported income for the months from [REDACTED]

through [REDACTED] The MDHHS request to establish Respondent committed an IPV is DENIED.
