Date Mailed: December 6, 2016 MAHS Docket No.: 16-012948 Agency No.: Petitioner: Respondent: Responden

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE: Eric J. Feldman

HEARING DECISION FOR INTENTIONAL PROGRAM VIOLATION

Upon the request for a hearing by the Department of Health and Human Services (Department), this matter is before the undersigned Administrative Law Judge pursuant to MCL 400.9 and in accordance with Titles 7, 42 and 45 of the Code of Federal Regulations, particularly 7 CFR 273.16 and 45 CFR 235.110, and with Mich Admin Code, R 400.3130 and R 400.3178. After due notice, a telephone hearing was held on November 14, 2016, from Detroit, Michigan. The Department was represented by _______, Regulation Agent from the Office of Inspector General (OIG). The OIG agent participated via telephone from the Kent County office.

Respondent did not appear at the hearing and it was held in Respondent's absence pursuant to 7 CFR 273.16(e), Mich Admin Code R 400.3130(5), or Mich Admin Code R 400.3178(5).

ISSUES

- 1. Did Respondent receive an overissuance (OI) of Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits that the Department is entitled to recoup?
- 2. Did the Department establish, by clear and convincing evidence, that Respondent committed an Intentional Program Violation (IPV)?
- 3. Should Respondent be disqualified from receiving benefits for FAP?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

- 1. The Department's OIG filed a hearing request on June 15, 2016, to establish an OI of benefits received by Respondent as a result of Respondent having allegedly committed an IPV.
- 2. The OIG has requested that Respondent be disqualified from receiving program benefits.
- 3. Respondent was a recipient of FAP benefits issued by the Department.
- 4. Respondent was aware of the responsibility to changes in earned and unearned income.
- 5. Respondent did not have an apparent physical or mental impairment that would limit the understanding or ability to fulfill this requirement.
- 6. The Department's OIG indicates that the time period it is considering the fraud period is July 1, 2014 to June 30, 2015 (fraud period).
- 7. During the fraud period, Respondent was issued in FAP benefits by the State of Michigan, and the Department alleges that Respondent was entitled to in such benefits during this time period.
- 8. The Department alleges that Respondent received an OI in FAP benefits in the amount of
- 9. This was Respondent's first alleged IPV.
- 10. A notice of hearing was mailed to Respondent at the last known address and was returned by the US Post Office as undeliverable.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Health and Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), Adult Services Manual (ASM), and Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food and Nutrition Act of 2008, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 273. The Department (formerly known as the Department of Human Services) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10; the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1-.119b; and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 to .3015.

Effective January 1, 2016, the Department's OIG requests IPV hearings for the following cases:

- Willful overpayments of $500.00 or more under the AHH program.
- FAP trafficking overissuances that are not forwarded to the prosecutor.
- Prosecution of welfare fraud or FAP trafficking is declined by the prosecutor for a reason other than lack of evidence, and
  - The total amount for the FIP, SDA, CDC, MA and FAP programs combined is $500 or more, or
  - the total amount is less than $500, and
    - ➢ the group has a previous IPV, or
    - > the alleged IPV involves FAP trafficking, or
    - the alleged fraud involves concurrent receipt of assistance (see BEM 222), or
    - the alleged fraud is committed by a state/government employee.

BAM 720 (January 2016), pp. 12-13; ASM 165 (May 2013), pp. 1-2.

In this case, the Department alleged that Respondent committed an IPV of her FAP benefits. Subsequent to the scheduling of the current hearing, the Notice of Hearing and accompanying documents were mailed to Respondent via first class mail at the address identified by the Department as the last known address. After the hearing, the notice was returned by the United States Postal Service as undeliverable. When notice of a FAP IPV hearing is sent using first class mail and is returned as undeliverable, the hearing may still be held. 7 CFR 273.16((e)(3); BAM 720, p. 12. Thus, the hearing properly proceeded with respect to the alleged FAP IPV.

Intentional Program Violation

Suspected IPV means an OI exists for which all three of the following conditions exist:

- The client intentionally failed to report information or intentionally gave incomplete or inaccurate information needed to make a correct benefit determination, and
- The client was clearly and correctly instructed regarding his or her reporting responsibilities, and

• The client has no apparent physical or mental impairment that limits his or her understanding or ability to fulfill reporting responsibilities.

An IPV is also suspected for a client who is alleged to have trafficked FAP benefits. BAM 720, p. 1.

An IPV requires that the Department establish by clear and convincing evidence that the client has intentionally withheld or misrepresented information for the purpose of establishing, maintaining, increasing or preventing reduction of program benefits or eligibility. BAM 720, p. 1 (emphasis in original); see also 7 CFR 273(e)(6). Clear and convincing evidence is evidence sufficient to result in a clear and firm belief that the proposition is true. See M Civ JI 8.01.

In this case, the Department alleges that Respondent committed an IPV of her benefits because she failed to notify the Department of her earned income from two different employers as well as her unemployment compensation, which caused an overissuance of FAP benefits.

Clients must report changes in circumstance that potentially affect eligibility or benefit amount. BAM 105 (April 2014), p. 9. Changes must be reported within 10 days of receiving the first payment reflecting the change. BAM 105, p. 9.

Income reporting requirements are limited to the following:

- Earned income:
  - •• Starting or stopping employment.
  - •• Changing employers.
  - •• Change in rate of pay.
  - •• Change in work hours of more than five hours per week that is expected to continue for more than one month.
- Unearned income:
  - •• Starting or stopping a source of unearned income.
  - •• Change in gross monthly income of more than $50 since the last reported change.

BAM 105, p. 9.

First, the Department presented Respondent's online application dated July 11, 2013, to show that the Respondent was aware of her responsibility to report changes as required. Exhibit A, pp. 12-30.

Second, the Department presented verification of Respondent's income as follows: (i) she received income from the first employer from May 29, 2014 to October 16, 2014; (ii) she received income from the second employer from October 23, 2014 to March 19, 2015; and (iii) she received from the second employer from April 18, 2015 to July 11, 2015. Exhibit A, pp. 89-96.

Third, the Department presented Respondent's online application dated July 18, 2014, which was submitted during the alleged fraud period. Exhibit A, pp. 31-46. In the application, Respondent reported no income, even though the Department argued that she received income from her first employer at the time of application. See Exhibit A, pp. 40 and 91.

Fourth, the Department presented Respondent's online application dated March 9, 2015, which was submitted during the alleged fraud period. Exhibit A, pp. 47-66. In the application, Respondent reported no income, even though the Department argued that she received income from her second employer at the time of application. See Exhibit A, pp. 57-58 and 94.

Fifth, the Department presented Respondent's online application dated June 10, 2015, which was submitted during the alleged fraud period. Exhibit A, pp. 67-88. In the application, Respondent reported no income, even though the Department argued that she received sector at the time of application. See Exhibit A, pp. 79-80 and 95-96.

Sixth, the Department presented Respondent's "Case Comments - Summary" to show that multiple caseworkers noted that Respondent frequently reported no household income from any type of job during the alleged fraud period. Exhibit A, pp. 11 and 97-100.

Based on the foregoing information and evidence, the Department has established by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent committed an IPV of her FAP benefits. The Department presented sufficient evidence to establish that Respondent intentionally withheld or misrepresented her income information during the fraud period. Specifically, Respondent reported that she had no income in three applications that were submitted during the fraud period, even though the evidence established that she was receiving employment income and/or the evidence established that she was receiving at the time. See Exhibit A, pp. 40, 57-58, 79-80, and 89-96. This is persuasive evidence that Respondent committed an IPV of her FAP benefits because she intentionally withheld or misrepresented her income information for the purpose of maintaining her FAP benefits. In summary, there was clear and convincing evidence that Respondent was aware of the responsibility to report her income and that she intentionally withheld or misrepresented this information for the purpose of establishing, maintaining, increasing or preventing reduction of her FAP program benefits or eligibility.

Disqualification

A client who is found to have committed an IPV by a court or hearing decision is disqualified from receiving program benefits. BAM 720, p. 15; BEM 708 (April 2014), p. 1. Clients are disqualified for ten years for a FAP IPV involving concurrent receipt of benefits, and, for all other IPV cases involving FIP, FAP or SDA, for standard disqualification periods of one year for the first IPV, two years for the second IPV, and lifetime for the third IPV. BAM 720, p. 16. CDC clients who intentionally violate CDC program rules are disqualified for six months for the first occurrence, twelve months for the second occurrence, and lifetime for the third occurrence. BEM 708, p. 1. A disqualified recipient remains a member of an active group as long as he lives with them, and other eligible group members may continue to receive benefits. BAM 720, p. 16.

In this case, the Department has satisfied its burden of showing that Respondent committed an IPV concerning FAP benefits. Therefore, Respondent is subject to a disqualification under the FAP program. BAM 720, p. 16.

Overissuance

When a client group receives more benefits than they are entitled to receive, the Department must attempt to recoup the OI. BAM 700, p. 1. The amount of the OI is the benefit amount the group or provider actually received minus the amount the group was eligible to receive. BAM 720, p. 8.

As stated previously, the Department has established that Respondent committed an IPV of her FAP benefits. Moreover, it is found that the Department applied the appropriate OI begin date of July 1, 2014. See BAM 720, p. 7 and Exhibit A, pp. 4 and 91.

In this case, the Department presented OI budgets from July 2014 March 2015, and June 2015. Exhibit A, pp. 101-123. The budgets included Respondent's income that was not previously budgeted. See Exhibit A, pp. 89-96. A review of the OI budgets found them to be fair and correct. As such, the Department is entitled to recoup _____ of FAP benefits it issued for July 1, 2014 to March 31, 2015, and June 1, 2015 to June 30, 2015.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, concludes that:

- 1. The Department has established by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent committed an IPV.
- 2. Respondent did receive an OI of FAP program benefits in the amount of

The Department is ORDERED to initiate recoupment/collection procedures for the amount of Department in accordance with Department policy, less any amount already recouped and/or collected.

It is FURTHER ORDERED that Respondent be disqualified from FAP for a period of 12 months.
