ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE: Eric J. Feldman

HEARING DECISION FOR INTENTIONAL PROGRAM VIOLATION

Upon the request for a hearing by the Department of Health and Human Services (Department), this matter is before the undersigned Administrative Law Judge pursuant to MCL 400.9, and in accordance with Titles 7, 42 and 45 of the Code of Federal Regulation (CFR), particularly 7 CFR 273.16 and 45 CFR 235.110; and with Mich Admin Code, R 400.3130 and 400.3178. After due notice, a telephone hearing was held on November 28, 2016, from Detroit, Michigan. The Department was represented by [REDACTED], Regulation Agent of the Office of Inspector General (OIG).

Respondent did not appear at the hearing; and it was held in Respondent's absence pursuant to 7 CFR 273.16(e), Mich Admin Code R 400.3130(5), or Mich Admin Code R 400.3178(5).

ISSUES

1. Did Respondent receive an overissuance (OI) of Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits that the Department is entitled to recoup?
2. Did the Department establish, by clear and convincing evidence, that Respondent committed an Intentional Program Violation (IPV)?
3. Should Respondent be disqualified from receiving benefits for FAP?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. The Department's OIG filed a hearing request on September 27, 2016, to establish an OI of benefits received by Respondent as a result of Respondent having allegedly committed an IPV.
2. The OIG has requested that Respondent be disqualified from receiving program benefits.
3. Respondent was a recipient of FAP benefits issued by the Department.
4. Respondent was aware of the responsibility to report changes in income.
5. Respondent did not have an apparent physical or mental impairment that would limit the understanding or ability to fulfill this requirement.
6. The Department's OIG indicates that the time period it is considering the fraud period is September 23, 2014 to February 28, 2015 (fraud period).
7. During the fraud period, Respondent was issued ██████ in FAP benefits by the State of Michigan, and the Department alleges that Respondent was entitled to ██████ in such benefits during this time period.
8. The Department alleges that Respondent received an OI in FAP benefits in the amount of ██████
9. This was Respondent's first alleged IPV.
10. A notice of hearing was mailed to Respondent at the last known address and was not returned by the US Post Office as undeliverable.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Health and Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), Adult Services Manual (ASM), and Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food and Nutrition Act of 2008, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 273. The Department (formerly known as the Department of Human Services) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10; the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1-.119b; and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 to .3015.

Effective January 1, 2016, the Department's OIG requests IPV hearings for the following cases:

- Willful overpayments of $500.00 or more under the AHH program.
- FAP trafficking overissuances that are not forwarded to the prosecutor.
- Prosecution of welfare fraud or FAP trafficking is declined by the prosecutor for a reason other than lack of evidence, and
  - The total amount for the FIP, SDA, CDC, MA and FAP programs combined is $500 or more, or
  - the total amount is less than $500, and
    - the group has a previous IPV, or
    - the alleged IPV involves FAP trafficking, or
    - the alleged fraud involves concurrent receipt of assistance (see BEM 222), or
    - the alleged fraud is committed by a state/government employee.

BAM 720 (January 2016), pp. 12-13; ASM 165 (May 2013), pp. 1-2.

Intentional Program Violation

Suspected IPV means an OI exists for which all three of the following conditions exist:

- The client intentionally failed to report information or intentionally gave incomplete or inaccurate information needed to make a correct benefit determination, and
- The client was clearly and correctly instructed regarding his or her reporting responsibilities, and
- The client has no apparent physical or mental impairment that limits his or her understanding or ability to fulfill reporting responsibilities.

An IPV is also suspected for a client who is alleged to have trafficked FAP benefits. BAM 720, p. 1.

An IPV requires that the Department establish by clear and convincing evidence that the client has intentionally withheld or misrepresented information for the purpose of establishing, maintaining, increasing or preventing reduction of program benefits or eligibility. BAM 720, p. 1 (emphasis in original); see also 7 CFR 273(e)(6). Clear and convincing evidence is evidence sufficient to result in a clear and firm belief that the proposition is true. See M Civ JI 8.01.

In this case, the Department alleges that Respondent committed an IPV of her benefits because she misrepresented her employment income at application and failed to report income changes as required, which caused an overissuance of FAP benefits. Even though the Department argument is that Respondent misrepresented her income, she was a simplified reporter at the time; thus, the undersigned provides both change reporting and SR policy below:

Food assistance groups with countable earnings are assigned to the simplified reporting (SR) category. BAM 200 (December 2013), p. 1.

Simplified reporting (SR) groups are required to report only when the group's actual gross monthly income (not converted) exceeds the SR income limit for their group size. BAM 200, p. 1. No other change reporting is required. BAM 200, p. 1.

If the group has an increase in income, the group must determine their total gross income at the end of that month. BAM 200, p. 1. If the total gross income exceeds the group's SR income limit, the group must report this change to their specialist by the 10th day of the following month, or the next business day if the 10th day falls on a weekend or holiday. BAM 200, p. 1. Once assigned to SR, the group remains in SR throughout the current benefit period unless they report changes at their semi-annual contact or redetermination that make them ineligible for SR. BAM 200, p. 1.

Note: Changes known to the Department must be acted on even though the client is required to report only if the group's total gross income exceeds the SR income limit for their group size. BAM 200, p. 1.

The income limit is 130 percent of the poverty level based on group size. BAM 200, p. 2. To determine the group's SR income limit, all eligible members of the FAP group are counted. BAM 200, p. 2.

Respondent's applicable group size in this case is two. RFT 250 indicates that the simplified reporting income limit for a group size of two is $1,681 effective October 1, 2013, and $1,705 effective October 1, 2014. RFT 250 (December 2013 and October 2014), p. 1.

Additionally, clients must report changes in circumstance that potentially affect eligibility or benefit amount. BAM 105 (April 2014), p. 9. Changes must be reported within 10 days of receiving the first payment reflecting the change. BAM 105, p. 9.

Income reporting requirements are limited to the following:

- Earned income:
  - Starting or stopping employment.
  - Changing employers.
  - Change in rate of pay.
  - Change in work hours of more than five hours per week that is expected to continue for more than one month.

BAM 105, p. 9.

First, the Department presented Respondent's online application dated September 23, 2014, which was submitted during the alleged fraud period. Exhibit A, pp. 11-31. In the application, Respondent reported the following: (i) monthly household income of [REDACTED] (ii) she works at [REDACTED] and makes [REDACTED] an hour and works [REDACTED] a week; and (iii) she indicated additional type of pay, but with no income reported for this section. Exhibit A, pp. 13 and 24.

Second, the Department presented Respondent's Notice of Case Action dated September 25, 2014, which notified her of the ongoing obligation to report to the Department if her household's monthly gross income exceeded the simplified reporting limit of [REDACTED] (group size of two). Exhibit A, pp. 32-36.

Third, the Department presented Respondent's employment verification received on October 7, 2014; and reported the following: (i) her rate of pay is [REDACTED]; (ii) paid every 2 weeks; (iii) average amount of income per week is [REDACTED] but varies; and (iv) her income ranged from [REDACTED] for the period of August 11, 2014 to September 22, 2014. Exhibit A, pp. 37-38.

Fourth, the Department presented Respondent's online application dated February 16, 2015, which was also submitted during the alleged fraud period. Exhibit A, pp. 39-56. In the application, Respondent reported the following: (i) monthly household income of [REDACTED] (ii) she works at [REDACTED] and makes [REDACTED] an hour and works [REDACTED] hours a week; and (iii) she indicated additional type of pay, but with no income reported for this section. Exhibit A, pp. 47 and 49.

Fifth, the Department presented Respondent's subsequent employment verification received on or about August 4, 2016. Exhibit A, pp. 59-60. The employment verification obtained directly from the employer confirmed that Respondent exceeded the reported income for the period of September 23, 2014 to February 28, 2015. Exhibit A, pp. 1 and 59-60.

Based on the foregoing information and evidence, the Department has established by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent committed an IPV of her FAP benefits. The Department presented sufficient evidence to establish that Respondent intentionally withheld or misrepresented her income during the fraud period. For example, in both of Respondent's applications submitted during the fraud period, she reported her monthly household income to be either [REDACTED]; however, the employment verification showed that her income far exceeded the amount reported (i.e., she reported total income of [REDACTED] for the September 2014 application, but she actually received [REDACTED] in employment income for September 2014). Exhibit A, pp. 13, 24, 47, 49, and 59-60. This is persuasive evidence that Respondent committed an IPV of her FAP benefits because she misrepresented her income by underreporting it. In summary, there was clear and convincing evidence that Respondent was aware of the responsibility to report changes in income and that she intentionally withheld or misrepresented this information for the purpose of establishing, maintaining, increasing or preventing reduction of her FAP program benefits or eligibility.

Disqualification

A client who is found to have committed an IPV by a court or hearing decision is disqualified from receiving program benefits. BAM 720, pp. 15-16; BEM 708 (April 2014), p. 1. Clients are disqualified for ten years for a FAP IPV involving concurrent receipt of benefits, and, for all other IPV cases involving FIP, FAP or SDA, for standard disqualification periods of one year for the first IPV, two years for the second IPV, and lifetime for the third IPV. BAM 720, p. 16. CDC clients who intentionally violate CDC program rules are disqualified for six months for the first occurrence, twelve months for the second occurrence, and lifetime for the third occurrence. BEM 708, p. 1. A disqualified recipient remains a member of an active group as long as he lives with them, and other eligible group members may continue to receive benefits. BAM 720, p. 16.

In this case, the Department has satisfied its burden of showing that Respondent committed an IPV concerning FAP benefits. Therefore, Respondent is disqualified from FAP benefits for 12 months. BAM 720, p. 16.

Overissuance

When a client group receives more benefits than it is entitled to receive, MDHHS must attempt to recoup the OI. BAM 700, p. 1. The amount of the OI is the benefit amount the group or provider actually received minus the amount the group was eligible to receive. BAM 720, p. 8.

It should be noted that the only client error overissuances related to simplified reporting that can occur for FAP groups in SR are when the group fails to report that income exceeds the group's SR income limit, or the client voluntarily reports inaccurate information. BAM 200, p. 5. For failure to report income over the limit, the first month of the overissuance is two months after the actual monthly income exceeded the limit. BAM 200, pp. 5-6. Groups report if their actual income for a month exceeds 130 percent of poverty level. BAM 200, p. 6 and see also BAM 720, p. 7 (For FAP simplified reporting, the household has until the 10th of the following month to report the change timely (see BAM 200)).

As stated previously, the Department has established that Respondent committed an IPV of her FAP benefits. Moreover, it is found that the Department applied the appropriate OI begin date of September 23, 2014. See BAM 720, p. 7 and Exhibit A, pp. 4 and 59-60.

In this case, the Department presented OI budgets from September 2014 to February 2015. Exhibit A, pp. 63-77. A review of the OI budgets found them to be fair and correct. As such, the Department is entitled to recoup ██████ of FAP benefits it issued for September 23, 2014 to February 28, 2015.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, concludes that:

1. The Department has established by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent committed an IPV.
2. Respondent did receive an OI of FAP program benefits in the amount of ██████

The Department is ORDERED to initiate recoupment/collection procedures for the amount of ██████ accordance with Department policy, less any amount already recouped and/or collected.

It is FURTHER ORDERED that Respondent be disqualified from FAP for a period of 12 months.
