ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE: Vicki Armstrong

HEARING DECISION FOR CONCURRENT BENEFITS
INTENTIONAL PROGRAM VIOLATION

Upon the request for a hearing by the Department of Health and Human Services (Department), this matter is before the undersigned Administrative Law Judge pursuant to MCL 400.9, and in accordance with Titles 7, 42 and 45 of the Code of Federal Regulation (CFR), particularly 7 CFR 273.16 and 45 CFR 235.110; and with Mich Admin Code, R 400.3130 and 400.3178. After due notice, a telephone hearing was held on October 4, 2016, from Lansing, Michigan.

The Department was represented by [REDACTED], Regulation Agent of the Office of Inspector General. [REDACTED] testified on behalf of the Department. The Department submitted 121 exhibits which were admitted into evidence.

Respondent did not appear at the hearing and it was held in Respondent's absence pursuant to 7 CFR 273.16(e), Mich Admin Code R 400.3130(5), or Mich Admin Code R 400.3178(5). The record was closed at the conclusion of the hearing.

ISSUES

1. Did Respondent receive an overissuance of Food Assistance Program benefits that the Department is entitled to recoup?
2. Did the Department establish, by clear and convincing evidence, that Respondent committed an Intentional Program Violation?
3. Should Respondent be disqualified from receiving Food Assistance Program benefits for 10-years?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. The Department's Office of Inspector General filed a hearing request on January 28, 2016, to establish an overissuance of benefits received by Respondent as a result of Respondent having allegedly committed an Intentional Program Violation.
2. The Office of Inspector General has requested that Respondent be disqualified from receiving Food Assistance Program benefits for 10-years.
3. On March 22, 2012, Respondent applied for Food Assistance Program benefits and listed a [REDACTED], address as his residence. [Resp. Exh. 12-42].
4. Respondent was aware of the responsibility to report changes in his residence to the Department. [Resp. Exh. 24-25].
5. Respondent had no apparent physical or mental impairment that would limit the understanding or ability to fulfill this requirement. [Dept. Exh. 16].
6. On April 12, 2013, Respondent submitted a Redetermination indicating that his address had not changed. [Resp. Exh. 46].
7. On May 12, 2014, Respondent submitted a Food Assistance Program Application indicating he was not receiving other Food Stamp benefits and was living in [REDACTED] [Resp. Exh. 54].
8. According to the Food Assistance Purchase History, Respondent used his Michigan Food Assistance Program benefits solely in [REDACTED] beginning August 19, 2012 through September 23, 2012; August 13, 2013 through September 22, 2013, and again from October 11, 2013 through March 21, 2015. [Resp. Exh 81-103].
9. On October 13, 2015, the Department received information from the Department of Human Services in the [REDACTED] that indicated that Respondent received Food Assistance Program benefits from [REDACTED] beginning November 8, 2010 through October 31, 2013, and from November 12, 2013, through October 31, 2014. [Resp. Exh. 105].
10. The OIG indicates that the time period they are considering the fraud period is December 1, 2013 through March 31, 2015.

11. During the alleged fraud period, Respondent was issued [REDACTED] in Food Assistance Program benefits from the State of Michigan.
12. A notice of hearing was mailed to Respondent at the last known address in [REDACTED], and was not returned by the US Post Office as undeliverable.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Health and Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Department of Health and Human Services Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), and Department of Health and Human Services Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food and Nutrition Act of 2008, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 273. The Department (formerly known as the Department of Human Services) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10, the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1-.119b, and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 to .3015.

Effective January 1, 2016, the Department's OIG requests IPV hearings for the following cases:

- FAP trafficking OIs that are not forwarded to the prosecutor.
- Prosecution of welfare fraud or FAP trafficking is declined by the prosecutor for a reason other than lack of evidence, and
  - The total amount for the FIP, SDA, CDC, MA and FAP programs combined is $500 or more, or
  - the total amount is less than $500, and
    - the group has a previous IPV, or
    - the alleged IPV involves FAP trafficking, or
    - the alleged fraud involves concurrent receipt of assistance (see BEM 222), or
    - the alleged fraud is committed by a state/government employee. BAM 720, p 12-13 (1/1/2016).

Intentional Program Violation

Suspected IPV means an OI exists for which all three of the following conditions exist:

- The client intentionally failed to report information or intentionally gave incomplete or inaccurate information needed to make a correct benefit determination, and
- The client was clearly and correctly instructed regarding his or her reporting responsibilities, and
- The client has no apparent physical or mental impairment that limits his or her understanding or ability to fulfill reporting responsibilities. BAM 720, p 1.

An IPV requires that the Department establish by clear and convincing evidence that the client has intentionally withheld or misrepresented information for the purpose of establishing, maintaining, increasing or preventing reduction of program benefits or eligibility. BAM 720, p 1 (emphasis in original); see also 7 CFR 273(e)(6). Clear and convincing evidence is evidence sufficient to result in a clear and firm belief that the proposition is true. See M Civ JI 8.01.

In this case, the record evidence clearly shows that Respondent was residing in [REDACTED] and receiving Food Assistance Program benefits from the [REDACTED] from November 8, 2010 through October 31, 2014. The Department has established by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent intentionally withheld and misrepresented information that he was actually living in [REDACTED] when he applied for Michigan Food Assistance Program benefits in 2012, 2013 and 2014 for the purpose of establishing and maintaining Michigan Food Assistance Program benefits. Further, the evidence shows that Respondent used his Michigan Food Assistance Program benefits solely in [REDACTED] from August 19, 2012 through September 23, 2012; August 13, 2013 through September 22, 2013, and again from October 11, 2013 through March 21, 2015, without informing the Department that he was living in [REDACTED]. Therefore, the Department has established an Intentional Program Violation.

Disqualification

A court or hearing decision that finds a client committed an IPV disqualifies that client from receiving program benefits. BAM 720, p 15. A disqualified recipient remains a member of an active group as long as he/she lives with them, and other eligible group members may continue to receive benefits. BAM 720, p 17.

Clients who commit an Intentional Program Violation are disqualified for a standard disqualification period except when a court orders a different period, or except when the overissuance relates to Medicaid or the Food Assistance Program. BAM 720, p 13. Clients are disqualified for periods of one year for the first IPV, two years for the second IPV, lifetime disqualification for the third IPV, and ten years for a FAP concurrent receipt of benefits. BAM 720, p 18.

In this case, Respondent received concurrent Food Assistance Program benefits from the [REDACTED] from December 1, 2013 through October 31, 2014. Because Respondent received concurrent Food Assistance Program benefits from the [REDACTED] Respondent is disqualified from receiving Food Assistance Program benefits for 10-years.

Overissuance

When a client group receives more benefits than entitled to receive, the Department must attempt to recoup the OI. BAM 700, p 1 (1/1/2016).

In this case, Respondent not only received concurrent benefits from the [REDACTED] [REDACTED], but he also used his Michigan Food Assistance Program benefits solely in [REDACTED] from August 19, 2012 through September 23, 2012; August 13, 2013 through September 22, 2013, and again from October 11, 2013 through March 21, 2015, without informing the Department that he was not living in Michigan.

Respondent's signature on the Food Assistance Program applications dated March 22, 2012; April 12, 2013 and May 12, 2014, certify that he was aware that fraudulent participation in FAP could result in criminal or civil or administrative claims. Because of Respondent's failure to report that he was living in [REDACTED] and using his Michigan Food Assistance Program benefits solely outside the state of Michigan, he received an overissuance and the Department is entitled to recoup [REDACTED] for the fraud period of December 1, 2013 through March 31, 2015.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, concludes that:

1. The Department has established by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent committed an IPV.
2. Respondent did receive a Food Assistance Program overissuance of benefits in the amount of [REDACTED]

The Department is ORDERED to initiate recoupment procedures for the amount of [REDACTED] in accordance with Department policy.

It is FURTHER ORDERED that Respondent be personally disqualified from participation in the FAP program for 10 years.
