ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE: Vicki Armstrong

HEARING DECISION FOR INTENTIONAL PROGRAM VIOLATION

Upon the request for a hearing by the Department of Health and Human Services (Department), this matter is before the undersigned Administrative Law Judge pursuant to MCL 400.9, and in accordance with Titles 7, 42 and 45 of the Code of Federal Regulation (CFR), particularly 7 CFR 273.16 and 45 CFR 235.110; and with Mich Admin Code, R 400.3130 and 400.3178. After due notice, a telephone hearing was held on October 18, 2016, from Lansing, Michigan.

The Department was represented by [REDACTED], Regulation Agent of the Office of Inspector General. [REDACTED] testified on behalf of the Department. The Department submitted [REDACTED] exhibits which were admitted into evidence.

Respondent did not appear at the hearing and it was held in Respondent's absence pursuant to 7 CFR 273.16(e), Mich Admin Code R 400.3130(5), or Mich Admin Code R 400.3178(5). The record was closed at the conclusion of the hearing.

ISSUES

1. Did Respondent receive an overissuance of Food Assistance Program benefits that the Department is entitled to recoup?
2. Did the Department establish, by clear and convincing evidence, that Respondent committed an Intentional Program Violation?
3. Should Respondent be disqualified from receiving Food Assistance Program benefits for 12 months?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. The Department's Office of Inspector General filed a hearing request on August 25, 2016, to establish an overissuance of benefits received by Respondent as a result of Respondent having allegedly committed an Intentional Program Violation.
2. The Office of Inspector General has requested that Respondent be disqualified from receiving program benefits for 12 months.
3. Respondent was a recipient of Food Assistance Program benefits issued by the Department.
4. Respondent was aware of the responsibility to report previous drug convictions as evidenced by her checking "no," when asked if she had previous drug convictions, both on her May 26, 2014, Food Assistance Program application and her March 31, 2015 redetermination. [Dept. Exh. 18, 35].
5. Respondent did not have an apparent physical or mental impairment that would limit the understanding or ability to fulfill this requirement. [Dept. Exh. 18].
6. The Department's Office of Inspector General indicates that the time period it is considering the fraud period is May 1, 2014 through August 31, 2016. [Dept. Exh. 1, 4].
7. During the fraud period, Respondent was issued [REDACTED] in Food Assistance Program benefits by the State of Michigan, and the Department alleges that Respondent was not entitled to any benefits during this time period. [Dept. Exh. 4].
8. The Department alleges that Respondent received an overissuance in Food Assistance Program benefits in the amount of [REDACTED]. [Dept. Exh. 4].
9. This was Respondent's first alleged Intentional Program Violation. [Dept. Exh. 4].
10. A notice of hearing was mailed to Respondent at the last known address and was not returned by the US Post Office as undeliverable.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Health and Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), Adult Services Manual (ASM), and Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food and Nutrition Act of 2008, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 273. The Department (formerly known as the Department of Human Services) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10; the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1-119b; and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 to .3015.

Effective January 1, 2016, the Department's Office of Inspector General requests Intentional Program Violation hearings for the following cases:

- Willful overpayments of $500.00 or more under the AHH program.
- Food Assistance Program trafficking overissuances that are not forwarded to the prosecutor.
- Prosecution of welfare fraud or Food Assistance Program trafficking is declined by the prosecutor for a reason other than lack of evidence, and
 - The total amount for the Family Independence Program, State Disability Assistance, Child Development and Care, Medicaid and Food Assistance Program programs combined is $500 or more, or
 - the total amount is less than $500, and
 - the group has a previous Intentional Program Violation, or
 - the alleged Intentional Program Violation involves Food Assistance Program trafficking, or
 - the alleged fraud involves concurrent receipt of assistance (see BEM 222), or
 - the alleged fraud is committed by a state/government employee. BAM 720, pp 12-13 (1/1/2016).

Intentional Program Violation

Suspected Intentional Program Violation means an overissuance exists for which all three of the following conditions exist:

- The client intentionally failed to report information or intentionally gave incomplete or inaccurate information needed to make a correct benefit determination, and

- The client was clearly and correctly instructed regarding his or her reporting responsibilities, and
- The client has no apparent physical or mental impairment that limits his or her understanding or ability to fulfill reporting responsibilities. BAM 720, p 1.

An Intentional Program Violation requires that the Department establish by clear and convincing evidence that the client has intentionally withheld or misrepresented information for the purpose of establishing, maintaining, increasing or preventing reduction of program benefits or eligibility. BAM 720, p 1 (emphasis in original); see also 7 CFR 273(e)(6). Clear and convincing evidence is evidence sufficient to result in a clear and firm belief that the proposition is true. See M Civ JI 8.01.

In this case, when Respondent was asked if she or her live-in-partner had previous drug convictions she replied “no” on both her May 6, 2014, Food Assistance Program application and her March 31, 2015, redetermination. Respondent credibly testified that she was unaware that her live-in-partner had two felony drug convictions. She explained that her live-in-partner had told her that the first was a misdemeanor for which he pled guilty in exchange for the [REDACTED] and the second she was unaware was a felony conviction because she had not attended court with him. She apologized for not investigating her live-in-partner’s criminal history more thoroughly.

Without further evidence of what Respondent knew and when she knew it concerning her live-in-partner’s criminal history, the Department has not established by clear and convincing evidence, that Respondent intentionally withheld information for the purpose of establishing and maintaining Food Assistance Program benefits. Therefore, this was not an Intentional Program Violation.

Overissuance

When a client group receives more benefits than entitled to receive, the Department must attempt to recoup the overissuance. BAM 700, p 1 (1/1/2016).

In this case, Respondent received [REDACTED] in Food Assistance Program benefits. Because Respondent’s live-in-partner had two felony drug convictions after August 22, 1996, Respondent was not eligible for Food Assistance Program benefits. Therefore, Respondent received an overissuance of [REDACTED] for the fraud period of May 1, 2014 through August 31, 2016.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, concludes that:

1. Respondent did receive an overissuance of program benefits in the amount of [REDACTED] from the Food Assistance Program.

The Department is ORDERED to initiate recoupment procedures for the amount of [REDACTED] in accordance with Department policy.
