Petitioner: OIG
Respondent: ██████████

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE: Eric J. Feldman

HEARING DECISION FOR INTENTIONAL PROGRAM VIOLATION

Upon the request for a hearing by the Department of Health and Human Services (Department), this matter is before the undersigned Administrative Law Judge pursuant to MCL 400.9, and in accordance with Titles 7, 42 and 45 of the Code of Federal Regulation (CFR), particularly 7 CFR 273.16 and 45 CFR 235.110; and with Mich Admin Code, R 400.3130 and 400.3178. After due notice, a three-way telephone hearing was held on January 5, 2017, from Detroit, Michigan. The Department was represented by ██████████, Regulation Agent of the Office of Inspector General (OIG). OIG Agent ██████████ was also present for the hearing, but did not provide any testimony. Respondent, ██████████, represented herself at the proceeding.

ISSUES

1. Did Respondent receive an overissuance (OI) of Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits that the Department is entitled to recoup?
2. Did the Department establish, by clear and convincing evidence, that Respondent committed an Intentional Program Violation (IPV)?
3. Should Respondent be disqualified from receiving benefits for FAP?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. The Department's OIG filed a hearing request on June 16, 2016, to establish an OI of benefits received by Respondent as a result of Respondent having allegedly committed an IPV.

2. The OIG has requested that Respondent be disqualified from receiving program benefits.
3. Respondent was a recipient of FAP benefits issued by the Department.
4. Respondent was aware that trafficking of benefits is unlawful and a violation of policy and could result in a disqualification from receipt of future benefits and recoupment of issued benefits.
5. Respondent did not have an apparent physical or mental impairment that would limit the understanding or ability to fulfill this requirement.
6. The Department's OIG indicates that the time period it is considering the fraud period is October 1, 2013 to November 30, 2014 (fraud period).
7. The Department alleges that Respondent trafficked ██████████ in FAP benefits.
8. This was Respondent's first alleged IPV.
9. A notice of hearing was mailed to Respondent at the last known address and was not returned by the US Post Office as undeliverable.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Health and Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), Adult Services Manual (ASM), and Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food and Nutrition Act of 2008, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 273. The Department (formerly known as the Department of Human Services) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10; the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1-.119b; and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 to .3015.

Effective January 1, 2016, the Department's OIG requests IPV hearings for the following cases:

- Willful overpayments of $500.00 or more under the AHH program.
- FAP trafficking overissuances that are not forwarded to the prosecutor.

- Prosecution of welfare fraud or FAP trafficking is declined by the prosecutor for a reason other than lack of evidence, and
  - The total amount for the FIP, SDA, CDC, MA and FAP programs combined is $500 or more, or
  - the total amount is less than $500, and
    - the group has a previous IPV, or
    - the alleged IPV involves FAP trafficking, or
    - the alleged fraud involves concurrent receipt of assistance (see BEM 222), or
    - the alleged fraud is committed by a state/government employee.

BAM 720 (January 2016), pp. 12-13; ASM 165 (May 2013), pp. 1-2.

Intentional Program Violation

Suspected IPV means an OI exists for which all three of the following conditions exist:

- The client intentionally failed to report information or intentionally gave incomplete or inaccurate information needed to make a correct benefit determination, and
- The client was clearly and correctly instructed regarding his or her reporting responsibilities, and
- The client has no apparent physical or mental impairment that limits his or her understanding or ability to fulfill reporting responsibilities.

An IPV is also suspected for a client who is alleged to have trafficked FAP benefits. BAM 720, p. 1.

An IPV requires that the Department establish by clear and convincing evidence that the client has intentionally withheld or misrepresented information for the purpose of establishing, maintaining, increasing or preventing reduction of program benefits or eligibility. BAM 720, p. 1 (emphasis in original); see also 7 CFR 273(e)(6). Clear and convincing evidence is evidence sufficient to result in a clear and firm belief that the proposition is true. See M Civ JI 8.01.

BAM 700 defines trafficking as:

- The buying, selling or stealing of FAP benefits for cash or consideration other than eligible food. Examples would be liquor, exchange of firearms, ammunition, explosives or controlled substances.
- Selling products purchased with FAP benefits for cash or consideration other than eligible food.
- Purchasing containers with deposits, dumping/discarding product and then returning containers to obtain cash refund deposits.
- Attempting to buy, sell or steal FAP benefits for cash or consideration other than eligible food.

BAM 700, p. 2. Moreover, FAP trafficking includes fraudulently using, transferring, altering, acquiring, or possessing coupons, authorization cards, or access devices; or redeeming or presenting for payment coupons known to be fraudulently obtained or transferred. BEM 203 (July 2013), pp. 2-3.

The Department's argument against Respondent for trafficking FAP benefits is as follows:

- there exists a convenience store called AH Plus Market (hereinafter referred to as "Store 1"), where the United States Department of Agriculture ("USDA") conducted an investigation at Store 1 regarding food trafficking and determined that Store 1 was engaged in food trafficking and ultimately led to Store 1's permanent disqualification from the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP);
- Store 1's layout and inventory makes it unlikely that someone would make multiple purchases of food in a short time period and/or excessively large purchase transactions;
- over a period of time, Respondent conducted multiple transactions within the same day at Store 1, which resulted in a high dollar amount being spent and was consistent with traditional trafficking patterns; and
- thus, Respondent trafficked FAP benefits.

First, the Department presented evidence that Store 1 engaged in FAP trafficking, which resulted in Store 1's permanent disqualification from SNAP on August 11, 2015. Exhibit A, pp. 28-29.

Second, the Department argued that Store 1's layout and inventory makes it unlikely that someone would make multiple purchases of food in a short period of time and/or large purchases of food. Exhibit A, p. 4. In fact, the Department presented pictures of Store 1. Exhibit A, pp. 14-24.

Third, to establish that Respondent trafficked her FAP benefits at Store 1, the Department relied on Respondent's FAP transaction history. Exhibit A, pp. 51-59. A review of the Respondent's transactions found that she did conduct multiple transactions throughout the day, which resulted in a high dollar amount being spent at Store 1. Exhibit A, pp. 51-59.

At the hearing, Respondent testified and/or made the following assertions: (i) she did not commit a violation of the FAP program; (ii) she did not dispute the transactions conducted at Store 1; (iii) she indicated all of the purchases were for food product that were intended for consumption; (iv) she pointed to the photos the Department provided for the evidence record showing that Store 1 had food she could purchase with her Electronic Benefits Card (EBT) card (Exhibit A, pp. 14-24); and (v) she has no transportation and Store 1 was near her residence; thus, she would go to this store to purchase food products.

On cross-examination, the OIG agent asked how Respondent could purchase several large transactions when Store 1 had no shopping carts or baskets and there was limited counter space with a bullet proof barrier. In response, Respondent testified that she did not misuse her funds, she would carry her food in the bag, and that is how she purchased her transactions.

Based on the foregoing information and evidence, the Department has failed to establish by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent committed an IPV involving her FAP benefits.

First, the evidence is reasonable to conclude that Respondent could purchase food product that are intended for consumption at Store 1 based on the submitted photographs. Exhibit A, pp. 14-24.

Second, the Department's main argument was based on Respondent's FAP transaction history. The Department attempted to show that Respondent's transactions were suspicious because she conducted multiple transactions throughout the day, which resulted in high dollar amount being spent, which was excessive for a store of this size, type, and inventory. Exhibit A, pp. 51-59. As such, the Department claimed that Respondent is involved in trafficking. However, the undersigned disagrees. Respondent provided credible testimony that she did not traffick her FAP benefits. Respondent credibly established that all of her purchases were for food product that were intended for food consumption. Respondent's argument is supported by the pictures the Department presented for the evidence record. The undersigned reviewed the photographs and discovered multiple food items Respondent could purchase for food consumption. Exhibit A, pp. 14-24.

In summary, in order to establish that a client has committed an IPV, the Department must establish that the client "committed, and intended to commit, an IPV," including an IPV based on trafficking. BAM 720, p. 1; 7 CFR 273.16(c); and 7 CFR 273.16(e)(6).

Respondent's testimony credibly established that she did not commit a violation of the FAP program and is supported, as shown above, by the evidence record. As such, the evidence presented does not establish by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent trafficked her FAP benefits.

Disqualification

A client who is found to have committed an IPV by a court or hearing decision is disqualified from receiving program benefits. BAM 720, p. 15; BEM 708 (April 2014), p. 1. Clients are disqualified for ten years for a FAP IPV involving concurrent receipt of benefits, and, for all other IPV cases involving FIP, FAP or SDA, for standard disqualification periods of one year for the first IPV, two years for the second IPV, and lifetime for the third IPV. BAM 720, p. 16. CDC clients who intentionally violate CDC program rules are disqualified for six months for the first occurrence, twelve months for the second occurrence, and lifetime for the third occurrence. BEM 708, p. 1. A disqualified recipient remains a member of an active group as long as he lives with them, and other eligible group members may continue to receive benefits. BAM 720, p. 16.

In this case, the Department has not satisfied its burden of showing that Respondent committed an IPV concerning FAP benefits. Therefore, Respondent is not subject to a disqualification under the FAP program. BAM 720, p. 16.

Overissuance

When a client group receives more benefits than they are entitled to receive, the Department must attempt to recoup the OI. BAM 700, p. 1.

For FAP trafficking, the amount for trafficking-related IPV is the value of the trafficked benefits (attempted or actually trafficked) as determined by:

- The court decision.
- The individual's admission.
- Documentation used to establish the trafficking determination, such as an affidavit from a store owner or sworn testimony from a federal or state investigator of how much a client could have reasonably trafficked in that store. This can be established through circumstantial evidence.

BAM 720, p. 8

In this case, the Department has failed to establish that Respondent committed an IPV involving her FAP benefits. Thus, the Department has failed to satisfy its burden of showing that Respondent did receive an OI of program benefits in the amount of ██████ for the period of October 1, 2013 to November 30, 2014.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, concludes that:

1. The Department has not established by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent committed an IPV.
2. Respondent did not receive an OI of FAP program benefits in the amount of [REDACTED]

The Department is ORDERED to delete the OI and cease any recoupment action.
