ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE: Lynn M. Ferris

HEARING DECISION FOR INTENTIONAL PROGRAM VIOLATION

Upon the request for a hearing by the Department of Health and Human Services (Department), this matter is before the undersigned Administrative Law Judge pursuant to MCL 400.9, and in accordance with Titles 7, 42 and 45 of the Code of Federal Regulation (CFR), particularly 7 CFR 273.16 and 45 CFR 235.110; and with Mich Admin Code, R 400.3130 and 400.3178. After due notice, a telephone hearing was held on [REDACTED], from Detroit, Michigan. The Department was represented by [REDACTED], Regulation Agent of the Office of Inspector General (OIG).

Respondent did not appear at the hearing; and it was held in Respondent's absence pursuant to 7 CFR 273.16(e), Mich Admin Code R 400.3130(5), or Mich Admin Code R 400.3178(5).

ISSUES

1. Did Respondent receive an overissuance (OI) of Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits that the Department is entitled to recoup?
2. Did the Department establish, by clear and convincing evidence, that Respondent committed an Intentional Program Violation (IPV)?
3. Should Respondent be disqualified from receiving benefits for FAP?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. The Department's OIG filed a hearing request on [REDACTED], to establish an OI of benefits received by Respondent as a result of Respondent having allegedly committed an IPV.
2. The OIG has requested that Respondent be disqualified from receiving program benefits.
3. Respondent was a recipient of FAP benefits issued by the Department.
4. Respondent was aware of the responsibility to report her income and earnings from employment.
5. Respondent did not have an apparent physical or mental impairment that would limit the understanding or ability to fulfill this requirement.
6. The Department's OIG indicates that the time period it is considering the fraud period is [REDACTED], (fraud period).
7. During the fraud period, Respondent was issued $ [REDACTED] in FAP benefits by the State of Michigan; and the Department alleges that Respondent was entitled to $ [REDACTED] in such benefits during this time period.
8. The Department alleges that Respondent received an OI in FAP benefits in the amount of $ [REDACTED].
9. This was Respondent's first alleged IPV.
10. A Notice of Hearing was mailed to Respondent at the last known address and was not returned by the U.S. Post Office as undeliverable.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Health and Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), Adult Services Manual (ASM), and Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food and Nutrition Act of 2008, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 273. The Department (formerly known as the Department of Human Services) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10; the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1-.119b; and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 to .3015.

Effective January 1, 2016, the Department's OIG requests IPV hearings for the following cases:

- Willful overpayments of $500.00 or more under the AHH program.
- FAP trafficking overissuances that are not forwarded to the prosecutor.
- Prosecution of welfare fraud or FAP trafficking is declined by the prosecutor for a reason other than lack of evidence, and
 - The total amount for the FIP, SDA, CDC, MA and FAP programs combined is $500 or more, or
 - the total amount is less than $500, and
 - the group has a previous IPV, or
 - the alleged IPV involves FAP trafficking, or
 - the alleged fraud involves concurrent receipt of assistance (see BEM 222), or
 - the alleged fraud is committed by a state/government employee.

BAM 720 (1/1/16), pp. 12-13.

Intentional Program Violation

Suspected IPV means an OI exists for which all three of the following conditions exist:

- The client intentionally failed to report information or intentionally gave incomplete or inaccurate information needed to make a correct benefit determination, and
- The client was clearly and correctly instructed regarding his or her reporting responsibilities, and
- The client has no apparent physical or mental impairment that limits his or her understanding or ability to fulfill reporting responsibilities.

BAM 700 (October 1, 2016), p. 7; BAM 720, p. 1.

An IPV is also suspected for a client who is alleged to have trafficked FAP benefits. BAM 720, p. 8.

An IPV requires that the Department establish by clear and convincing evidence that the client has intentionally withheld or misrepresented information for the purpose of establishing, maintaining, increasing or preventing reduction of program benefits or eligibility. BAM 720, p. 1 (emphasis in original); see also 7 CFR 273(e)(6). Clear and convincing evidence is evidence sufficient to result in a clear and firm belief that the proposition is true. See M Civ JI 8.01.

In this case, the Department seeks a finding of an Intentional Program Violation by the Respondent due to her failure to report income from employment while employed and while completing a Semi-Annual Contact Report completed and signed by Respondent on [REDACTED]. At the time of the completion by Respondent of her Semi-Annual, the evidence presented showed that Petitioner was employed by [REDACTED] but Respondent failed to advise the Department of her employment and income and instead reported that no household income was being received. Exhibit A, p 27. A Verification of Employment of Respondent by [REDACTED] was presented, which established that Respondent started working on [REDACTED], and stopped working as of [REDACTED]. Exhibit A, p. 35. In addition, the evidence presented also established that Respondent was employed by [REDACTED] and received earnings from employment beginning [REDACTED], which were not reported by Respondent and was working for [REDACTED] and receiving income [REDACTED], at the time of the Semi-Annual Report completion by Respondent.

The Department presented evidence that Respondent was aware that she was required to report changes in circumstance that potentially could affect her eligibility or benefit amount. BEM 105, January 1, 2015, pp. 10-11. The Petitioner was also advised when she applied for FAP benefits on [REDACTED], that she was required to report income.

Three months later, when completing the Semi-Annual Report, the Respondent falsely advised the Department that she was not working. Department policy provides:

Clients must report changes in circumstance that potentially affect eligibility or benefit amount. BEM 105 (January 1, 2015), pp. 10-11. Changes must be reported within 10 days of receiving the first payment reflecting the change. BAM 105, p. 11

Income reporting requirements are limited to the following;

- Starting or stopping employment.

- Changing employer

- Change in rate of pay

- Change in work hours of more than five hours per week that is expected to continue for more than one month. BAM 105, p. 7.

The evidence presented based upon reported wages from the Work Number clearly established that the Respondent was working from [REDACTED], through the end of the OI period. Exhibit A, pp. 32-33.

During the period of employment, the Department presented a Benefit Issuance Summary, which confirmed the Petitioner received FAP benefits during the alleged fraud period [REDACTED] through [REDACTED]. Based upon the evidence presented, although the Respondent was required to report her employment, she failed to do so when completing a Semi-Annual Contact Report, at which time she misrepresented facts to the Department that she was not working and was not receiving income. Thus, it is determined that an IPV has occurred; and the Department has established by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent committed an IPV.

Disqualification

A client who is found to have committed an IPV by a court or hearing decision is disqualified from receiving program benefits. BAM 720, p. 2; BEM 708 (July 1, 2013), p. 1. Clients are disqualified for ten years for a FAP IPV involving concurrent receipt of benefits, and, for all other IPV cases involving FIP, FAP or SDA, for standard disqualification periods of one year for the first IPV, two years for the second IPV, and lifetime for the third IPV. BAM 720, p. 16. CDC clients who intentionally violate CDC program rules are disqualified for six months for the first occurrence, twelve months for the second occurrence, and lifetime for the third occurrence. BEM 708, p. 1-2. A disqualified recipient remains a member of an active group as long as he/she lives with them, and other eligible group members may continue to receive benefits. BAM 720, p. 17.

In this case, the Department has established that an IPV has been committed by the Respondent and thus, is entitled to a finding of disqualification for FAP benefits.

Overissuance

When a client group receives more benefits than entitled to receive, the Department must attempt to recoup the OI. BAM 700, p. 1. An overissuance (OI) is the amount of benefits issued to the client group or CDC provider in excess of what it was eligible to receive. For FAP benefits, an OI is also the amount of benefits trafficked (traded or sold). BAM 700, p. 1.

In this case, the Department presented OI budgets from for the months in question, [REDACTED], through [REDACTED], Exhibit A, pp. 37-44, which were reviewed at the hearing. The OI budgets included the Respondent's income for the her employers during the period in question as verified by the Work Number and established Respondent received income from employers [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] that was not previously budgeted because it was not reported as required by Respondent. A review of the OI budgets at the hearing found them to be correct. Thus, the Department is entitled to recoup $ [REDACTED] for the benefit OI of [REDACTED], through [REDACTED].

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, concludes that:

1. The Department has established by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent committed an IPV.
2. Respondent did receive an OI of FAP benefits in the amount of $ [REDACTED]

The Department is ORDERED to initiate recoupment/collection procedures for the amount of $ [REDACTED] in accordance with Department policy.

It is FURTHER ORDERED that Respondent be disqualified from FAP benefits for a period of 12 months.
