ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE: Alice C. Elkin

HEARING DECISION FOR INTENTIONAL PROGRAM VIOLATION

Upon the request for a hearing by the Department of Health and Human Services (Department), this matter is before the undersigned Administrative Law Judge pursuant to MCL 400.9, and in accordance with Titles 7, 42 and 45 of the Code of Federal Regulation (CFR), particularly 7 CFR 273.16 and 45 CFR 235.110; and with Mich Admin Code, R 400.3130 and 400.3178. After due notice, a telephone hearing was held on [REDACTED] [REDACTED] from Detroit, Michigan. The Department was represented by [REDACTED], Regulation Agent of the Office of Inspector General (OIG). Respondent did not appear at the hearing; and it was held in Respondent's absence pursuant to 7 CFR 273.16(e), Mich Admin Code R 400.3130(5), or Mich Admin Code R 400.3178(5).

ISSUES

1. Did the Department establish, by clear and convincing evidence, that Respondent committed an Intentional Program Violation (IPV) of the Food Assistance Program (FAP)?
2. Should Respondent be disqualified from receiving FAP benefits?
3. Did Respondent receive an overissuance (OI) of FAP benefits that the Department is entitled to recoup?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. The Department's OIG filed a hearing request on [REDACTED], to establish an OI of benefits received by Respondent as a result of Respondent having allegedly committed an IPV.
2. The OIG has requested that Respondent be disqualified from receiving FAP program benefits.
3. Respondent was a recipient of FAP benefits issued by the Department.
4. Respondent was aware of the responsibility to report his felony drug convictions.
5. Respondent did not have an apparent physical or mental impairment that would limit the understanding or ability to fulfill this responsibility.
6. The Department's OIG indicates that the time period it is considering the fraud period (fraud period) is period [REDACTED].
7. The Department alleges that during the fraud period Respondent was issued $ [REDACTED] in FAP benefits by the State of Michigan but was entitled to $ [REDACTED] in such benefits during this time period.
8. The Department alleges that during the fraud period Respondent received an OI in FAP benefits in the amount of $ [REDACTED].
9. This was Respondent's first alleged FAP IPV.
10. A Notice of Hearing was mailed to Respondent at the last known address and was not returned by the U.S. Post Office as undeliverable.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Health and Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), Adult Services Manual (ASM), and Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food and Nutrition Act of 2008, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 273. The Department (formerly known as the Department of Human Services) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10; the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1-.119b; and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 to .3015.

Effective October 1, 2014, the Department's OIG requests IPV hearings for the following cases:

- Willful overpayments of $500.00 or more under the AHH program.
- FAP trafficking overissuances that are not forwarded to the prosecutor.
- Prosecution of welfare fraud or FAP trafficking is declined by the prosecutor for a reason other than lack of evidence, and
 - The total amount for the FIP, SDA, CDC, MA and FAP programs combined is $500 or more, or
 - the total amount is less than $500, and
 - the group has a previous IPV, or
 - the alleged IPV involves FAP trafficking, or
 - the alleged fraud involves concurrent receipt of assistance (see BEM 222), or
 - the alleged fraud is committed by a state/government employee.

BAM 720 (January 2016), p. 5.

Intentional Program Violation

Suspected IPV means an OI exists for which all three of the following conditions exist:

- The client intentionally failed to report information or intentionally gave incomplete or inaccurate information needed to make a correct benefit determination, and
- The client was clearly and correctly instructed regarding his or her reporting responsibilities, and
- The client has no apparent physical or mental impairment that limits his or her understanding or ability to fulfill reporting responsibilities.

An IPV is also suspected for a client who is alleged to have trafficked FAP benefits. BAM 720, p. 1.

An IPV requires that the Department establish by clear and convincing evidence that the client has intentionally withheld or misrepresented information for the purpose of establishing, maintaining, increasing or preventing reduction of program benefits or eligibility. BAM 720, p. 1 (emphasis in original); see also 7 CFR 273(e)(6). Clear and convincing evidence is evidence sufficient to result in a clear and firm belief that the proposition is true. See M Civ JI 8.01.

In this case, the Department alleges that Respondent committed an IPV because he failed to disclose that he had more than one drug-related felony conviction. People convicted of certain crimes and probation or parole violators are not eligible for assistance. BEM 203 (July 2014 and October 2015), p. 1. Effective October 1, 2011, an individual convicted of a felony for the use, possession, or distribution of controlled substances will be permanently disqualified from receipt of FAP if (i) the terms of probation or parole are violated and the qualifying conviction occurred after August 22, 1996, or (ii) the individual was convicted two or more times and both offenses occurred after August 22, 1996. BEM 203, p. 2.

In support of its contention that Respondent failed to report his felony-drug convictions, the Department presented (i) an application Respondent submitted to the Department on [REDACTED], (Exhibit A, pp. 19-33); (ii) a redetermination Respondent submitted to the Department on [REDACTED], (Exhibit A, pp. 34-39); (iii) a register of actions for [REDACTED] County Circuit Court showing that Respondent pleaded guilty on [REDACTED] to one count of Controlled Substance-possession (narcotic or cocaine) less than 25 grams (MCL 333.7403 2A5) (Exhibit A, pp. 12-13); (iv) a register of actions for [REDACTED] County Circuit Court showing that Respondent pleaded guilty on [REDACTED] to one count of Controlled Substance-possession (narcotic or cocaine) less than 25 grams (MCL 333.7403 2A5) (Exhibit A, pp. 14-16); (v) a register of actions for [REDACTED] County Circuit Court showing that Respondent pleaded guilty on [REDACTED], to one count of Controlled Substance-delivery manufacture (narcotic or cocaine) less than 50 grams (MCL 333.7403 2A4) (Exhibit A, pp. 17-18); and (v) a benefits summary inquiry showing that Respondent received FAP benefits during the fraud period (Exhibit A, pp. 40-45).

The cited statutory grounds for the convictions in the register of actions establish that Respondent's convictions were felony drug convictions. Because Respondent's felony drug convictions were after [REDACTED], Respondent was permanently disqualified from receipt of FAP benefits following his second conviction on [REDACTED]. At the time Respondent submitted his [REDACTED], application, he had two felony drug convictions and was permanently disqualified from the FAP program. In his applications, Respondent denied having any felony drug convictions (Exhibit A, pp. 23, 38). In his application, Respondent certified that the information he provided was true and acknowledged understanding that he could be prosecuted for fraud and be required to repay any benefits wrongfully received by him based on the information he provided (Exhibit A, pp. 32, 39). Although Respondent reported a disability in his [REDACTED], application (Exhibit A, p. 23), the Department testified that it had no reason to believe that Respondent was not aware of his reporting responsibilities or incapable of properly reporting.

Respondent's failure to report that he had felony drug convictions established that he intentionally withheld information that, if properly disclosed, would have made him ineligible for FAP benefits. Under these circumstances, the Department established by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent committed an IPV in connection with his FAP case.

Disqualification

A client who is found to have committed an IPV by a court or hearing decision is disqualified from receiving program benefits. BAM 720, p. 15. Clients are disqualified for ten years for a FAP IPV involving concurrent receipt of benefits, and, for all other IPV cases involving FAP, for standard disqualification periods of one year for the first IPV, two years for the second IPV, and lifetime for the third IPV. BAM 720, p. 16. A disqualified recipient remains a member of an active group as long as he/she lives with them, and other eligible group members may continue to receive benefits. BAM 720, p. 16.

As discussed above, the Department has established by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent committed an IPV. Because this was Respondent's first FAP IPV, he is subject to a one-year disqualification from his receipt of FAP benefits on the basis of IPV.

Overissuance

When a client group receives more benefits than entitled to receive, the Department must attempt to recoup the OI. BAM 700, p. 1. The amount of a FAP OI is the benefit amount the client actually received minus the amount the client was eligible to receive. BAM 720, p. 8; BAM 715 (January 2016), p. 6; BAM 705 (January 2016), p. 6.

In this case, the Department alleged that Respondent was overissued FAP benefits totaling $ [REDACTED] during the fraud period. The Department presented a benefits summary inquiry showing that Respondent was issued slightly more than the $ [REDACTED] in FAP benefits alleged during the fraud period (Exhibit A, pp. 62-63). The Department testified that Respondent had two members in his FAP group. Because of his felony drug convictions, Respondent was a disqualified member of his FAP group. BEM 212, pp. 7-8. The Department presented a chart showing the FAP benefits Respondent was issued during the fraud period and the benefits he would have received had his FAP group size been reduced to one eligible FAP group member (Exhibit A, pp. 51-52). A review of the chart shows that the Department properly considered the FAP benefits Respondent was eligible to receive as a one-member FAP group. RFT 260 (October 2013), p. 1; RFT 260 (October 2014), pp. 1-2; RFT 260 (October 2015), pp. 1, 2, 9, 14; RFT 260 (October 2016), p. 3. As a one-member FAP group, Respondent was eligible to receive FAP benefits totaling $ [REDACTED] during the fraud period. Thus, the Department is entitled to recoup and/or collect $ [REDACTED] from Respondent for over issued FAP benefits for [REDACTED], the difference between the $ [REDACTED] in FAP benefits issued to him and the $ [REDACTED] in FAP benefits he was eligible to receive.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, concludes that:

1. The Department has established by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent committed an IPV.
2. Respondent did receive an OI of FAP program benefits in the amount of $ [REDACTED]

The Department is ORDERED to initiate recoupment/collection procedures in accordance with Department policy for an FAP OI in the amount of $ [REDACTED] less any amounts already recouped/collected, for the period [REDACTED].

It is FURTHER ORDERED that Respondent be disqualified from FAP for a period of 12 months.
