HEARING DECISION FOR INTENTIONAL PROGRAM VIOLATION

Upon the request for a hearing by the Department of Health and Human Services ("Department" or "MDHHS"), this matter is before the undersigned Administrative Law Judge pursuant to MCL 400.9, and in accordance with Titles 7, 42 and 45 of the Code of Federal Regulation (CFR), particularly 7 CFR 273.16, and with Mich Admin Code, R 400.3130 and R 400.3178. After due notice, a telephone hearing was held on February 9, 2017, from Lansing, Michigan. [REDACTED] Regulation Agent of the Office of Inspector General (OIG), represented the Department. Respondent did not appear at the hearing and it was held in Respondent's absence pursuant to 7 CFR 273.16(e), Mich Admin Code R 400.3130(5), or Mich Admin Code R 400.3178(5).

ISSUES

1. Did Respondent receive an overissuance (OI) of Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits that the Department is entitled to recoup?
2. Did Respondent commit an Intentional Program Violation (IPV)?
3. Should Respondent be disqualified from receiving Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. The Department's OIG filed a hearing request on July 22, 2016, to establish an OI of benefits received by Respondent as a result of Respondent having allegedly committed an IPV.

2. The OIG has requested that Respondent be disqualified from receiving program benefits.
3. Respondent applied for FAP benefits on September 29, 2014. [Exhibit 1, pp. 11-48].
4. The Department provided Respondent with documentation that contained all of his rights and responsibilities concerning the proper use of his FAP benefits, EBT card and PIN. [Exh. 1, pp. 11-48, 80-81, 82-100].
5. Respondent was issued an Electronic Benefit Transfer (EBT) card for FAP benefits from the Department. [Exh. 1, pp. 49-63].
6. Respondent had a FAP group size of 1 and did not have an authorized representative with authority to use his FAP benefits. [Exh. 1, pp. 11-48].
7. Respondent has had at least 7 EBT cards replaced since June 4, 2014 [Exh. 1, pp. 64-72].
8. On September 1, 2015, Respondent allowed a third party to use his EBT card and PIN to make purchases at [REDACTED] located in [REDACTED] Michigan. [Exh. 1, pp. 77-78].
9. The OIG contends that Respondent's EBT card that was used at GFS on September 1, 2015, based on the nature of the transaction, was used fraudulently and in a manner indicative of FAP trafficking.
10. Respondent was aware that it was unlawful to buy, sell or transfer his EBT card or his FAP benefits for cash or consideration other than eligible food.
11. Respondent had no apparent physical or mental impairment that would limit the understanding or ability to comply with the policies and/or laws that govern FAP benefits.
12. The Department's OIG indicates that the time period they are considering the fraud period is September 1, 2015, to September 30, 2015 (fraud period).
13. During the alleged fraud period, Respondent is alleged to have trafficked $ [REDACTED] in FAP benefits.
14. The Department alleges that Respondent received an OI of benefits in the amount of $ [REDACTED]
15. This was Respondent's first FAP IPV.

16.A notice of hearing was mailed to Respondent at the last known address and was not returned by the US Post Office as undeliverable.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), the Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), and the Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food and Nutrition Act of 2008, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 273. The Department (formerly known as the Department of Human Services) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10, the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1-.119b, and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001-.3011.

Intentional Program Violation

An Intentional Program Violation (IPV) is a benefit overissuance (OI) resulting from the willful withholding of information or other violation of law or regulation by the client or his/her authorized representative. See Bridges Program Glossary (BPG) at page 24. When a client group receives more benefits than they are entitled to receive, the Department must attempt to recoup the OI. BAM 700, (1-1-2016) p. 1.

An IPV is suspected for a client who is alleged to have trafficked or is trafficking FAP benefits. BAM 720, (1-1-2016) p. 1. "Trafficking" is the buying or selling of FAP benefits for cash or consideration other than eligible food. BAM 700, p. 1.

A person who knowingly uses, transfers, acquires, alters, purchases, possesses, presents for redemption or transports food stamps or coupons or access devices other than as authorized by the food stamp act is guilty of trafficking. See 7 U.S.C. §§ 2011 to 2030, BEM 203, (10-1-2015) pp. 2-3, MCL 750.300a. This includes voluntary transfer of Electronic Benefit Transfer (EBT) or "Bridge" cards and/or FAP benefits to any person outside of the FAP group. FAP recipients cannot sell, trade, or give away their FAP benefits, Personal Identification Number (PIN) or Michigan EBT card. FAP benefits must be used by household members to purchase eligible food for the household. 7 C.F.R. §274.7.

FAP recipients are precluded from purchasing eligible food items on credit and paying for the items using their EBT or Bridge card. FAP benefits shall not be used to pay for any eligible food purchased prior to the time at which the EBT card is presented to the authorized retailer or used to pay for eligible food in advance of the receipt of the food. 7 C.F.R. §274.7.

A person is disqualified from FAP when an administrative hearing decision, a repayment and disqualification agreement or court decision determines FAP benefits were trafficked. BEM 203, pp. 2-3. These FAP trafficking disqualifications are a result of: (1) fraudulently using, transferring, altering, acquiring, or possessing coupons, authorization cards, or access devices; or (2) redeeming or presenting for payment coupons known to be fraudulently obtained or transferred. BEM 203, p. 3.

The OI amount for trafficking-related IPV is the value of the trafficked benefits as determined by: (1) the court decision; (2) the individual's admission; or (3) documentation used to establish the trafficking determination, such as an affidavit from a store owner or sworn testimony from a federal or state investigator of how much a client could have reasonably trafficked in that store. BAM 720, p. 8. This can be established through circumstantial evidence. BAM 720, p. 8 .

Clients who commit an IPV are disqualified for a standard disqualification period except when a court orders a different period. BAM 720, p. 16. Clients are disqualified for periods of 1 (one) year for the first IPV, 2 (two) years for the second IPV, a lifetime disqualification for the third IPV, and 10 (ten) years for a concurrent receipt of benefits. BAM 720, p. 16. If the court does not address disqualification in its order, the standard period applies. BAM 720, p. 16.

Clear and Convincing Evidence

An IPV requires that the Department establish by clear and convincing evidence that the client has intentionally withheld or misrepresented information for the purpose of establishing, maintaining, increasing or preventing reduction of program benefits or eligibility. BAM 720, p. 1 (emphasis in original); see also 7 CFR 273(e)(6). Clear and convincing evidence is evidence sufficient to result in a clear and firm belief that the proposition is true. See Michigan Civil Jury Instruction (Mich Civ JI) 8.01.

The Department has the burden of establishing by clear and convincing evidence that the Respondent committed an IPV. The clear and convincing evidence standard, which is the most demanding standard applied in civil cases, is established where there is evidence so clear, direct and weighty and convincing that a conclusion can be drawn without hesitancy of the truth of the precise facts in issue. Smith v Anonymous Joint Enterprise, 487 Mich 102; 793 NW2d 533 (2010), reh den 488 Mich 860; 793 NW2d 559 (2010).

Clear and convincing proof is that which produces in the mind of the trier of fact a firm belief or conviction as to the truth of the precise facts in issue. Evidence may be uncontroverted and yet not be clear and convincing. Conversely, evidence may be clear and convincing even if contradicted. Id.

Here, the Department's OIG Agent contends that Respondent is guilty of an IPV because he engaged in FAP trafficking by allowing an unauthorized third party to use his EBT card during the alleged fraud period. Respondent did not appear at the hearing to dispute the Department OIG Agent's contentions.

This Administrative Law Judge has carefully considered and weighed the testimony and other evidence in the record. The following is the Administrative Law Judge's findings based on the clear and convincing evidence on the whole record.

Based upon the above Findings of Fact, Respondent unlawfully transferred his EBT card and PIN to an unauthorized third party. Accordingly, the Department has shown by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent knowingly used, transferred, acquired, altered, purchased, possessed, presented for redemption or transported FAP benefits or an EBT/Bridge card in violation of the federal food stamp act. The record shows that Respondent received documentation which contained instructions regarding the lawful and proper use of the EBT card, PIN and FAP benefits. Therefore, Respondent was aware that fraudulent participation in FAP could result in criminal or civil or administrative claims.

This Administrative Law Judge finds that the evidence is clear and convincing that Respondent was guilty of FAP trafficking during the fraud period. Accordingly, the Department OIG Agent has established that Respondent committed an IPV with respect to the FAP program.

Disqualification

A court or hearing decision that finds a client committed IPV disqualifies that client from receiving program benefits. BAM 720, p. 12. Clients who commit an IPV are disqualified for a standard disqualification period except when a court orders a different period, or except when the OI relates to MA. BAM 720, p. 13.

An individual who is found guilty of a FAP IPV is disqualified for periods of one year for the first IPV, two years for the second IPV, lifetime disqualification for the third IPV, and ten years for a FAP concurrent receipt of benefits. BAM 720, p. 16.

Based on the Findings of Fact above, the Department has shown that Respondent was guilty of his first IPV concerning FAP benefits. The evidence also shows that Respondent received an OI of FAP benefits as a result.

This Administrative Law Judge therefore concludes that the Department has shown, by clear and convincing evidence, that Respondent committed an intentional violation by trafficking concerning the FAP program. The Department has also shown that this is Respondent's first FAP IPV.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, concludes that:

1. Respondent did commit an IPV due to FAP trafficking.
2. Respondent did receive an OI of FAP benefits in the amount of $ [REDACTED]

IT IS ORDERED that the Department may initiate recoupment procedures for the amount of $ [REDACTED] in accordance with Department policy.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Respondent be disqualified from FAP for a period of 12 months.
