ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE: Eric J. Feldman

HEARING DECISION FOR INTENTIONAL PROGRAM VIOLATION

Upon the request for a hearing by the Department of Health and Human Services (Department), this matter is before the undersigned Administrative Law Judge pursuant to MCL 400.9, and in accordance with Titles 7, 42 and 45 of the Code of Federal Regulation (CFR), particularly 7 CFR 273.16 and 45 CFR 235.110; and with Mich Admin Code, R 400.3130 and 400.3178. After due notice, a telephone hearing was held on March 13, 2017, from Detroit, Michigan. The Department was represented by [REDACTED], Regulation Agent of the Office of Inspector General (OIG).

Respondent did not appear at the hearing; and it was held in Respondent's absence pursuant to 7 CFR 273.16(e), Mich Admin Code R 400.3130(5), or Mich Admin Code R 400.3178(5).

ISSUES

1. Did Respondent receive an overissuance (OI) of Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits that the Department is entitled to recoup?
2. Did the Department establish, by clear and convincing evidence, that Respondent committed an Intentional Program Violation (IPV)?
3. Should Respondent be disqualified from receiving benefits for FAP?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. The Department's OIG filed a hearing request on October 27, 2016, to establish an OI of benefits received by Respondent as a result of Respondent having allegedly committed an IPV.
2. The OIG has requested that Respondent be disqualified from receiving program benefits.
3. Respondent was a recipient of FAP benefits issued by the Department.
4. Respondent was aware of the responsibility to report changes in income.
5. Respondent did not have an apparent physical or mental impairment that would limit the understanding or ability to fulfill this requirement.
6. The Department's OIG indicates that the time period it is considering the fraud period is January 1, 2015 to June 30, 2015 (fraud period).
7. During the fraud period, Respondent was issued ██████ in FAP benefits by the State of Michigan, and the Department alleges that Respondent was entitled to ██████ in such benefits during this time period.
8. The Department alleges that Respondent received an OI in FAP benefits in the amount of ██████
9. This was Respondent's first alleged IPV.
10. A notice of hearing was mailed to Respondent at the last known address and was not returned by the US Post Office as undeliverable.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Health and Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), Adult Services Manual (ASM), and Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food and Nutrition Act of 2008, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 273. The Department (formerly known as the Department of Human Services) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10; the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1-.119b; and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 to .3015.

Effective January 1, 2016, the Department's OIG requests IPV hearings for the following cases:

- Willful overpayments of $500.00 or more under the AHH program.
- FAP trafficking overissuances that are not forwarded to the prosecutor.
- Prosecution of welfare fraud or FAP trafficking is declined by the prosecutor for a reason other than lack of evidence, and
 - The total amount for the FIP, SDA, CDC, MA and FAP programs combined is $500 or more, or
 - the total amount is less than $500, and
 - the group has a previous IPV, or
 - the alleged IPV involves FAP trafficking, or
 - the alleged fraud involves concurrent receipt of assistance (see BEM 222), or
 - the alleged fraud is committed by a state/government employee.

BAM 720 (January 2016), pp. 12-13; ASM 165 (August 2016), pp. 1-2.

Intentional Program Violation

Suspected IPV means an OI exists for which all three of the following conditions exist:

- The client intentionally failed to report information or intentionally gave incomplete or inaccurate information needed to make a correct benefit determination, and
- The client was clearly and correctly instructed regarding his or her reporting responsibilities, and
- The client has no apparent physical or mental impairment that limits his or her understanding or ability to fulfill reporting responsibilities.

An IPV is also suspected for a client who is alleged to have trafficked FAP benefits. BAM 720, p. 1.

An IPV requires that the Department establish by clear and convincing evidence that the client has intentionally withheld or misrepresented information for the purpose of establishing, maintaining, increasing or preventing reduction of program benefits or eligibility. BAM 720, p. 1 (emphasis in original); see also 7 CFR 273(e)(6). Clear and convincing evidence is evidence sufficient to result in a clear and firm belief that the proposition is true. See M Civ JI 8.01.

In this case, the Department alleges that Respondent committed an IPV of his FAP benefits because he failed to timely report his employment income (earned income) to the Department, which caused an overissuance of FAP benefits.

Clients must report changes in circumstance that potentially affect eligibility or benefit amount. BAM 105 (January 2015), p. 10. Changes must be reported within 10 days of receiving the first payment reflecting the change. BAM 105, p. 10.

Income reporting requirements are limited to the following:

- Earned income:
 - Starting or stopping employment.
 - Changing employers.
 - Change in rate of pay.
 - Change in work hours of more than five hours per week that is expected to continue for more than one month.

BAM 105, p. 11.

First, the Department presented Respondent's redetermination dated August 25, 2014, to show that the Respondent was aware of his responsibility to report changes as required. Exhibit A, pp. 12-17.

Second, the Department presented Respondent's online application dated May 20, 2015, which was submitted during the alleged fraud period. Exhibit A, pp. 18-27. In the application, Respondent reported his employment income. Exhibit A, p. 23.

Third, the Department provided verification of Respondent's employment earnings. Exhibit A, pp. 29-42.

Based on the foregoing information and evidence, the Department has failed to establish by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent committed an IPV of FAP benefits. The evidence presented that Respondent did not report his income until he submitted his application on May 20, 2015. Exhibit A, p. 23. The evidence is persuasive that Respondent did not report the income timely. See BAM 105, pp. 10-11. Nevertheless, this evidence shows that Respondent did not intentionally withhold or misrepresent the income information as he eventually reported it to the Department.

Therefore, in the absence of any clear and convincing evidence that Respondent intentionally withheld or misrepresented the income information for the purpose of establishing, maintaining, increasing or preventing reduction of his FAP program benefits or eligibility, the Department has failed to establish that Respondent committed an IPV of FAP benefits.

Disqualification

A client who is found to have committed an IPV by a court or hearing decision is disqualified from receiving program benefits. BAM 720, p. 15; BEM 708 (October 2016), p. 1. Clients are disqualified for ten years for a FAP IPV involving concurrent receipt of benefits, and, for all other IPV cases involving FIP, FAP or SDA, for standard disqualification periods of one year for the first IPV, two years for the second IPV, and lifetime for the third IPV. BAM 720, p. 16. CDC clients who intentionally violate CDC program rules are disqualified for six months for the first occurrence, twelve months for the second occurrence, and lifetime for the third occurrence. BEM 708, p. 1. A disqualified recipient remains a member of an active group as long as he lives with them, and other eligible group members may continue to receive benefits. BAM 720, p. 16.

In this case, the Department has not satisfied its burden of showing that Respondent committed an IPV concerning FAP benefits. Therefore, Respondent is not subject to a disqualification under the FAP program. BAM 720, p. 16.

Overissuance

As stated above, there was no IPV committed in this case. However, the Department can still proceed with recoupment of the OI when there is client error.

A client/provider error overissuance is when the client received more benefits than he/she was entitled to because the client/CDC provider gave incorrect or incomplete information to the department. BAM 715 (January 2016), p. 1.

A client error is present in this situation because Respondent failed to timely notify the Department of his earned income. In regards to policy, the evidence established that Respondent did not report the income changes within 10 days of receiving the first payment reflecting the change. BAM 105, pp. 10-11. Thus, an OI is present in this case.

Applying the overissuance period standard, it is found that the Department applied the appropriate OI begin date of January 1, 2015. BAM 715, pp. 4-5 and Exhibit A, pp. 4 and 29.

Additionally, when a client group receives more benefits than they are entitled to receive, the Department must attempt to recoup the OI. BAM 700, p. 1. The amount of the OI is the benefit amount the group or provider actually received minus the amount the group was eligible to receive. BAM 715, p. 6.

In this case, the Department presented OI budgets from January 2015 to June 2015. Exhibit A, pp. 44-56. The budgets included Respondent's income that was not previously budgeted. Exhibit A, pp. 29-41. A review of the OI budgets found them to be fair and correct, except for February 2015 and June 2015.

Policy states that if improper reporting or budgeting of income caused the overissuance, the Department uses actual income for that income source. BAM 715, p. 8. The Department converts all income to a monthly amount. BAM 715, p. 8. Except, for FAP only, the Department does not convert the averaged monthly income reported on a wage match. BAM 715, p. 8. Any income properly budgeted in the issuance budget remains the same in that month's corrected budget. BAM 715, p. 8.

In the present case, the Department indicated that Respondent received [REDACTED] on February 26, 2015, and [REDACTED] on June 18, 2015. Exhibit A, pp. 48 and 56. The Department based these calculations on wage match. See Exhibit A, p. 42. However, the Department failed to present sufficient verification to show that actual income he received for February 26, 2015 and June 18, 2015, for example, the actual paystubs showing this income. The wage match did not show by a preponderance of evidence that he actually received the income for both pay dates. As such, the undersigned Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) finds the Department failed to establish by a preponderance of evidence that Respondent received an OI of FAP benefits for February 2015 and June 2015. See BAM 715, p. 8. Nevertheless, the Department is still entitled to recoup [REDACTED] of FAP benefits it issued from January 1, 2015 to January 31, 2015, and March 1, 2015 to May 31, 2015.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, concludes that:

1. The Department has not established by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent committed an IPV.
2. Respondent did receive an OI of FAP program benefits in the amount of [REDACTED].

The Department is ORDERED to reduce the OI to [REDACTED] for the period January 1, 2015 to January 31, 2015, and March 1, 2015 to May 31, 2015, and initiate recoupment/collection procedures in accordance with Department policy.
