CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Health and Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), Adult Services Manual (ASM), and Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food and Nutrition Act of 2008, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 273. The Department (formerly known as the Department of Human Services) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10; the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1-.119b; and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 to .3015.

Effective January 1, 2016, the Department's OIG requests IPV hearings for the following cases:

- Willful overpayments of $500 or more under the AHH program.
- FAP trafficking overissuances that are not forwarded to the prosecutor.
- Prosecution of welfare fraud or FAP trafficking is declined by the prosecutor for a reason other than lack of evidence, and
 - The total amount for the FIP, SDA, CDC, MA and FAP programs combined is $500 or more, or
 - the total amount is less than $500, and
 - > the group has a previous IPV, or
 - > the alleged IPV involves FAP trafficking, or
 - the alleged fraud involves concurrent receipt of assistance (see BEM 222), or
 - > the alleged fraud is committed by a state/government employee.

BAM 720 (January 2016), pp. 12-13; ASM 165 (August 2016), pp. 1-2.

As a preliminary matter, subsequent to the hearing, the undersigned Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) received an adjournment request from Respondent on undersigned finds that Respondent filed an untimely adjournment request because it was received after the hearing was held. As a result, Respondent's adjournment request is DENIED. See BAM 600 (October 2016), pp. 11-12 (For FAP-intentional program violation only, Michigan Administrative Hearing System (MAHS) must grant an adjournment of a scheduled hearing if the client or Authorized Hearing Representative (AHR) makes the request at least 10 days in advance of the hearing. It cannot exceed 30 days, and MAHS may limit the number of adjournments to one).

Intentional Program Violation

Suspected IPV means an OI exists for which all three of the following conditions exist:

- The client intentionally failed to report information or intentionally gave incomplete or inaccurate information needed to make a correct benefit determination, and
- The client was clearly and correctly instructed regarding his or her reporting responsibilities, and
- The client has no apparent physical or mental impairment that limits his or her understanding or ability to fulfill reporting responsibilities.

An IPV is also suspected for a client who is alleged to have trafficked FAP benefits. BAM 720, p. 1.

An IPV requires that the Department establish by clear and convincing evidence that the client has intentionally withheld or misrepresented information for the purpose of establishing, maintaining, increasing or preventing reduction of program benefits or eligibility. BAM 720, p. 1 (emphasis in original); see also 7 CFR 273(e)(6). Clear and convincing evidence is evidence sufficient to result in a clear and firm belief that the proposition is true. See M Civ JI 8.01.

In this case, the Department alleges that Respondent committed an IPV of his FAP benefits as follows: (i) he failed to notify the Department of his employment wages from "(employer 1) to the Department; and (ii) he failed to timely notify the Department of his employment wages from "(employer 2) to the Department.

Clients must report changes in circumstance that potentially affect eligibility or benefit amount. BAM 105 (July 2015), p. 10. Changes must be reported within 10 days of receiving the first payment reflecting the change. BAM 105, p. 10.

Income reporting requirements are limited to the following:

- Earned income:
 - Starting or stopping employment.
 - •• Changing employers.
 - Change in rate of pay.
 - •• Change in work hours of more than five hours per week that is expected to continue for more than one month.

BAM 105, p. 11.

First, the Department presented Respondent's online application dated to show that the Respondent was aware of his responsibility to report changes as required. [Exhibit A, pp. 11-30.] Second, the Department presented Respondent's Redetermination received on or about , which was submitted during the alleged fraud period. [Exhibit A, pp. 32-37.] In the Redetermination, Respondent did not report any employment wages, even though the evidence established that he was receiving income from employer 1 at the time. [Exhibit A, pp. 35 and 41.] Third, the Department presented a letter it received from Respondent on in which he reported he worked for employer 2 for a couple of weeks; and he lost his job. [Exhibit A, p. 38.] Fourth, the Department presented verification of Respondent's employment earnings (The Work Number), which showed the following: (i) he received wages from employer 1 for the period of ; and he received wages from employer 2 for the period of I. [Exhibit A, pp. 39-43.] Fifth, the OIG Investigation Report indicated that Respondent made contact with an OIG and disagreed with the investigative findings. [Exhibit A, p. 4.] Agent on

Based on the foregoing information and evidence, the Department has established by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent committed an IPV involving his FAP benefits when he failed to report his employment earnings for employer 1. The Department presented Respondent's Redetermination received on or about which was submitted during the fraud period. Exhibit A, pp. 32-37. In the Redetermination, Respondent did not report any employment wages, even though the evidence established that he was receiving income from employer 1 at the time. [Exhibit A, pp. 35 and 41.] This evidence is sufficient to establish that Respondent intentionally withheld or misrepresented his employment wages for the purpose of establishing, maintaining, increasing or preventing reduction of his FAP benefits or eligibility. As such, the Department has established that Respondent committed an IPV of FAP benefits.

Disqualification

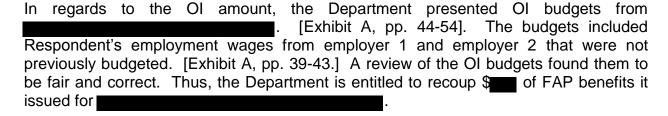

A client who is found to have committed an IPV by a court or hearing decision is disqualified from receiving program benefits. BAM 720, p. 15; BEM 708 (October 2016), p. 1. Clients are disqualified for ten years for an FAP IPV involving concurrent receipt of benefits, and, for all other IPV cases involving FIP, FAP or SDA, for standard disqualification periods of one year for the first IPV, two years for the second IPV, and lifetime for the third IPV. BAM 720, p. 16. CDC clients who intentionally violate CDC program rules are disqualified for six months for the first occurrence, twelve months for the second occurrence, and lifetime for the third occurrence. BEM 708, p. 1. A disqualified recipient remains a member of an active group as long as he lives with them, and other eligible group members may continue to receive benefits. BAM 720, p. 16.

In this case, the Department has satisfied its burden of showing that Respondent committed an IPV concerning FAP benefits. Therefore, Respondent is subject to a disqualification under the FAP program. BAM 720, p. 16.

Overissuance

When a client group receives more benefits than entitled to receive, the Department must attempt to recoup the OI. BAM 700, p. 1. The amount of the OI is the benefit amount the group or provider actually received minus the amount the group was eligible to receive. BAM 720, p. 8.

As stated previously, the Department has established that Respondent committed an IPV of his FAP benefits. Moreover, it is found that the Department applied the appropriate OI begin date of ______. [See BAM 720, p. 7 and Exhibit A, pp. 4 and 41.]

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, concludes that:

1. The Department has established by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent committed an IPV.

2. Respondent did receive an OI of FAP program benefits in the amount of $

The Department is ORDERED to initiate recoupment/collection procedures for the amount of sin accordance with Department policy, less any amount already received and/or collected.

It is FURTHER ORDERED that Respondent be disqualified from FAP for a period of 12 months

It is FURTHER ORDERED that Respondent's adjournment request received on EXECUTE, is DENIED.
