Date Mailed: May 8, 2017 MAHS Docket No.: 17-000163 Agency No.: Petitioner: OIG Respondent:

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE: Eric J. Feldman

HEARING DECISION FOR INTENTIONAL PROGRAM VIOLATION

Upon the request for a hearing by the Department of Health and Human Services (Department), this matter is before the undersigned Administrative Law Judge pursuant to MCL 400.9, and in accordance with Titles 7, 42 and 45 of the Code of Federal Regulation (CFR), particularly 7 CFR 273.16 and 45 CFR 235.110; and with Mich Admin Code, R 400.3130 and 400.3178. After due notice, a telephone hearing was held on ______, from Detroit, Michigan. The Department was represented by ______, Regulation Agent of the Office of Inspector General (OIG).

Respondent did not appear at the hearing; and it was held in Respondent's absence pursuant to 7 CFR 273.16(e), Mich Admin Code R 400.3130(5), or Mich Admin Code R 400.3178(5).

ISSUES

- 1. Did Respondent receive an overissuance (OI) of Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits that the Department is entitled to recoup?
- 2. Did the Department establish, by clear and convincing evidence, that Respondent committed an Intentional Program Violation (IPV)?
- 3. Should Respondent be disqualified from receiving benefits for FAP?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

- 1. The Department's OIG filed a hearing request on Example 1, to establish an OI of benefits received by Respondent as a result of Respondent having allegedly committed an IPV.
- 2. The OIG has requested that Respondent be disqualified from receiving program benefits.
- 3. Respondent was a recipient of FAP benefits issued by the Department.
- 4. Respondent was aware of the responsibility to report changes in income.
- 5. Respondent did not have an apparent physical or mental impairment that would limit the understanding or ability to fulfill this requirement.
- 6. The Department's OIG indicates that the time periods it is considering the fraud periods are ; and ; (fraud periods).
- 7. During the fraud periods, Respondent was issued $ in FAP benefits by the State of Michigan; and the Department alleges that Respondent was entitled to $ in such benefits during these time periods.
- 8. The Department alleges that Respondent received an OI in FAP benefits in the amount of $
- 9. This was Respondent's first alleged IPV.
- 10. A Notice of Hearing was mailed to Respondent at the last known address and was not returned by the U.S. Post Office as undeliverable.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Health and Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), Adult Services Manual (ASM), and Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food and Nutrition Act of 2008, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 273. The Department (formerly known as the Department of Human Services) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10; the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1-.119b; and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 to .3015.

Effective January 1, 2016, the Department's OIG requests IPV hearings for the following cases:

- Willful overpayments of $500 or more under the AHH program.
- FAP trafficking overissuances that are not forwarded to the prosecutor.
- Prosecution of welfare fraud or FAP trafficking is declined by the prosecutor for a reason other than lack of evidence, and
 - The total amount for the FIP, SDA, CDC, MA and FAP programs combined is $500 or more, or
 - the total amount is less than $500, and
 - the group has a previous IPV, or
 - > the alleged IPV involves FAP trafficking, or
 - the alleged fraud involves concurrent receipt of assistance (see BEM 222), or
 - the alleged fraud is committed by a state/government employee.

BAM 720 (January 2016), pp. 12-13; ASM 165 (August 2016), pp. 1-2.

Intentional Program Violation

Suspected IPV means an OI exists for which all three of the following conditions exist:

- The client intentionally failed to report information or intentionally gave incomplete or inaccurate information needed to make a correct benefit determination, and
- The client was clearly and correctly instructed regarding his or her reporting responsibilities, and
- The client has no apparent physical or mental impairment that limits his or her understanding or ability to fulfill reporting responsibilities.

An IPV is also suspected for a client who is alleged to have trafficked FAP benefits. BAM 720, p. 1.

An IPV requires that the Department establish by clear and convincing evidence that the client has intentionally withheld or misrepresented information for the purpose of establishing, maintaining, increasing or preventing reduction of program benefits or eligibility. BAM 720, p. 1 (emphasis in original); see also 7 CFR 273(e)(6). Clear and convincing evidence is evidence sufficient to result in a clear and firm belief that the proposition is true. See M Civ JI 8.01.

In this case, the Department alleges that Respondent committed an IPV of her FAP benefits because she failed to report her son's, sector, employment income (earned income) from sector (employer 1) and sector (employer 2) to the Department, which caused an OI of FAP benefits. It should be noted that the son was a member of the household during both alleged fraud periods.

Clients must report changes in circumstance that potentially affect eligibility or benefit amount. BAM 105 (November 2012 and April 2014), pp. 7 and 9. Changes must be reported within 10 days of receiving the first payment reflecting the change. BAM 105, pp. 7 and 9.

Income reporting requirements are limited to the following:

- Earned income:
 - •• Starting or stopping employment.
 - •• Changing employers.
 - •• Change in rate of pay.
 - •• Change in work hours of more than five hours per week that is expected to continue for more than one month.

BAM 105, pp. 7 and 9.

First, the Department presented Respondent's Redeterminations received on and on and on an and on a second and a second

Second, the Department provided verification of the son's income, which showed that he received earnings as follows: (i) employer 1 from accurate and accurate a

Third, the Department presented Respondent's State Emergency Relief (SER) applications dated Exercises and Exercises, which were submitted just prior to the alleged fraud period. Exhibit A, pp. 16-27. In the applications, Respondent did not report her son's employment starting and/or income from employer 1, even though the evidence established that the son had begun employment and/or that he began receiving income from employer 1. Exhibit A, pp. 18, 24, and 30-33.

Fourth, the Department presented a New Hire Client Notice regarding employer 1 wages and was received by the Department on Exhibit A, pp. 28-29. This document was completed by the son and the employer. Exhibit A, p. 29.

Based on the foregoing information and evidence, the Department has failed to establish by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent committed an IPV of FAP benefits.

As to Respondent's alleged fraud period for Exercise, Respondent did fail to report her son's income from employer 1 in the SER applications. Exhibit A, pp. 16-27. However, the evidence presented that son did eventually report his income from employer 1 when he submitted the New Hire Client Notice dated December 10, 2012. Exhibit A, pp. 28-29. The evidence is persuasive that the son's income from employer 1 was not reported timely. Nevertheless, this evidence shows that Respondent/son did not intentionally withhold or misrepresent his income from employer 1 as it was eventually reported to the Department. Therefore, in the absence of any clear and convincing evidence that Respondent intentionally withheld or misrepresented her son's employer 1 income for the purpose of establishing, maintaining, increasing or preventing reduction of her FAP program benefits or eligibility, the Department has failed to establish that Respondent committed an IPV of FAP benefits.

As to Respondent's alleged fraud period for severe to show that Respondent, during the alleged fraud period, represented that she intentionally withheld her son's income from employer 2 from the Department. The Department presented Respondent's Redeterminations and employment verifications. However, this failed to show by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent intentionally withheld her son's income from employer 2 during the alleged fraud period. Therefore, in the absence of any clear and convincing evidence that Respondent intentionally withheld or misrepresented her son's income from employer 2 during the alleged fraud period. Therefore, in the absence of any clear and convincing evidence that Respondent intentionally withheld or misrepresented her son's income from employer 2 for the purpose of establishing, maintaining, increasing or preventing reduction of her FAP program benefits or eligibility, the Department has failed to establish that Respondent committed an IPV of FAP benefits.

Disqualification

A client who is found to have committed an IPV by a court or hearing decision is disqualified from receiving program benefits. BAM 720, p. 15; BEM 708 (October 2016), p. 1. Clients are disqualified for ten years for an FAP IPV involving concurrent receipt of benefits, and, for all other IPV cases involving FIP, FAP or SDA, for standard disqualification periods of one year for the first IPV, two years for the second IPV, and lifetime for the third IPV. BAM 720, p. 16. CDC clients who intentionally violate CDC program rules are disqualified for six months for the first occurrence, twelve months for the second occurrence, and lifetime for the third occurrence. BEM 708, p. 1. A disqualified recipient remains a member of an active group as long as he lives with them, and other eligible group members may continue to receive benefits. BAM 720, p. 16.

In this case, the Department has not satisfied its burden of showing that Respondent committed an IPV concerning FAP benefits. Therefore, Respondent is not subject to a disqualification under the FAP program. BAM 720, p. 16.

Overissuance

As stated above, there was no IPV committed in this case. However, the Department can still proceed with recoupment of the OI when there is client error.

A client/provider error overissuance is when the client received more benefits than he/she was entitled to because the client/CDC provider gave incorrect or incomplete information to the department. BAM 715 (January 2016), p. 1.

A client error is present in this situation because (i) Respondent failed to timely notify the Department of her son's income from employer 1; and (ii) Respondent failed to notify the Department of her son's income from employer 2. In regards to policy, the evidence established that Respondent did not report both income changes within 10 days of receiving the first payment reflecting the change. BAM 105, pp. 7 and 9. Thus, an OI is present in this case.

Applying the OI period standard, it is found that the Department applied the appropriate OI begin dates of Example 1, and Example 2. See BAM 715, pp. 4-5, and Exhibit A, pp. 4, 32, and 38.

Additionally, when a client group receives more benefits than they are entitled to receive, the Department must attempt to recoup the OI. BAM 700, p. 1. The amount of the OI is the benefit amount the group or provider actually received minus the amount the group was eligible to receive. BAM 715, p. 6.

In this case, the Department presented OI budgets for second, and second, and second. Exhibit A, pp. 42-48. The budgets included the son's income that was not previously budgeted. Exhibit A, pp. 30-33 and 38-39. A review of the OI budgets found them to be fair and correct. See BAM 715, p. 8. Thus, the Department is entitled to recoup $55 of FAP benefits it issued from

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, concludes that:

- 1. The Department has not established by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent committed an IPV.
- 2. Respondent did receive an OI of FAP program benefits in the amount of $

The Department is ORDERED to initiate recoupment/collection procedures for the amount of $ in accordance with Department policy, less any amount already recouped and/or collected.
