ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE: Eric J. Feldman

HEARING DECISION FOR INTENTIONAL PROGRAM VIOLATION

Upon the request for a hearing by the Department of Health and Human Services (Department), this matter is before the undersigned Administrative Law Judge pursuant to MCL 400.9, and in accordance with Titles 7, 42 and 45 of the Code of Federal Regulation (CFR), particularly 7 CFR 273.16 and 45 CFR 235.110; and with Mich Admin Code, R 400.3130 and 400.3178. After due notice, a three-way telephone hearing was held on [REDACTED], from Detroit, Michigan. The Department was represented by [REDACTED], Regulation Agent of the Office of Inspector General (OIG). The Respondent was present for the hearing and represented himself.

ISSUES

1. Did Respondent receive an overissuance (OI) of Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits that the Department is entitled to recoup?
2. Did the Department establish, by clear and convincing evidence, that Respondent committed an Intentional Program Violation (IPV)?
3. Should Respondent be disqualified from receiving benefits for FAP?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. The Department's OIG filed a hearing request on [REDACTED], to establish an OI of benefits received by Respondent as a result of Respondent having allegedly committed an IPV.

2. The OIG has requested that Respondent be disqualified from receiving program benefits.
3. Respondent was a recipient of FAP benefits issued by the Department.
4. Respondent was aware of the responsibility to report changes in criminal justice disqualifications.
5. Respondent did not have an apparent physical or mental impairment that would limit the understanding or ability to fulfill this requirement.
6. The Department's OIG indicates that the time period it is considering the fraud period is [REDACTED] (fraud period).
7. During the fraud period, Respondent was issued $ [REDACTED] in FAP benefits by the State of Michigan; and the Department alleges that Respondent was entitled to $ [REDACTED] in such benefits during this time period.
8. The Department alleges that Respondent received an OI in FAP benefits in the amount of $ [REDACTED]
9. This was Respondent's first alleged IPV.
10. A notice of hearing was mailed to Respondent at the last known address and was not returned by the U.S. Post Office as undeliverable.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Health and Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), Adult Services Manual (ASM), and Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food and Nutrition Act of 2008, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 273. The Department (formerly known as the Department of Human Services) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10; the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1-.119b; and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 to .3015.

Effective January 1, 2016, the Department's OIG requests IPV hearings for the following cases:

- Willful overpayments of $500 or more under the AHH program.

- FAP trafficking overissuances that are not forwarded to the prosecutor.
- Prosecution of welfare fraud or FAP trafficking is declined by the prosecutor for a reason other than lack of evidence, and
 - The total amount for the FIP, SDA, CDC, MA and FAP programs combined is $500 or more, or
 - the total amount is less than $500, and
 - the group has a previous IPV, or
 - the alleged IPV involves FAP trafficking, or
 - the alleged fraud involves concurrent receipt of assistance (see BEM 222), or
 - the alleged fraud is committed by a state/government employee.

BAM 720 (January 2016), pp. 12-13; ASM 165 (August 2016), pp. 1-2.

Intentional Program Violation

Suspected IPV means an OI exists for which all three of the following conditions exist:

- The client intentionally failed to report information or intentionally gave incomplete or inaccurate information needed to make a correct benefit determination, and
- The client was clearly and correctly instructed regarding his or her reporting responsibilities, and
- The client has no apparent physical or mental impairment that limits his or her understanding or ability to fulfill reporting responsibilities.

An IPV is also suspected for a client who is alleged to have trafficked FAP benefits. BAM 720, p. 1.

An IPV requires that the Department establish by clear and convincing evidence that the client has intentionally withheld or misrepresented information for the purpose of establishing, maintaining, increasing or preventing reduction of program benefits or eligibility. BAM 720, p. 1 (emphasis in original); see also 7 CFR 273(e)(6). Clear and convincing evidence is evidence sufficient to result in a clear and firm belief that the proposition is true. See M Civ JI 8.01.

In this case, the Department alleges that Respondent committed an IPV of his FAP benefits because he failed to notify the Department of his prior drug-felony convictions in which both offenses occurred after August 22, 1996.

An individual convicted of a felony for the use, possession, or distribution of controlled substances two or more times in separate periods will be permanently disqualified if both offenses occurred after August 22, 1996. BEM 203 (January 2015), p. 2.

First, the Department argued that Respondent was convicted of a felony on or about [REDACTED]; [REDACTED]; [REDACTED]; and [REDACTED], for the use, possession, or distribution of controlled substances two or more times in separate periods and in which both offenses occurred after August 22, 1996. [Exhibit A, pp. 38-44.]

Second, the Department presented Respondent's online application dated [REDACTED] [REDACTED] which was submitted during the alleged fraud period. [Exhibit A, pp. 10-37.] In the application, Respondent marked "no" to the questions that asked if he had been convicted of a drug felony and if he had been convicted more than once, even though the Department argued that he had two drug-related felonies at the time. [Exhibit A, pp. 14 and 38-44.]

Third, the OIG Investigation Report (OIG report) indicated that Respondent previously applied for health care coverage on [REDACTED], and [REDACTED], where he reported that he had been convicted of a drug felony. [Exhibit A, p. 3.] However, the OIG report indicated that the applications did not ask if Respondent had been convicted more than once, as the application dated for August 2015, indicated the additional drug question. [Exhibit A, pp. 3 and 14.]

Fourth, the OIG report also indicated that Respondent spoke to the agent by telephone on [REDACTED], in which it was documented that Respondent stated he did not remember why he denied having been convicted of a drug felony on the application dated [REDACTED]. [Exhibit A, p. 3.]

At the hearing, Respondent did not dispute his drug-related felony questions. He testified that it was a mistake on the application dated [REDACTED] [REDACTED], that he marked "no" to the drug-related felony questions. He testified he was possibly going through the application questions quickly and this is why he marked "no" to the drug-related felony questions. He testified he thought he did not do anything wrong. He indicated he thought he was eligible because he had an authorized user for the receipt of FAP benefits. It should be noted that Respondent was most likely referring to the 1st offense drug-related felony policy which states that a person can receive FAP benefits if they only have one drug-related felony conviction, but they must have an authorized representative for the receipt of FAP benefits. See BEM 203, p. 2.

Based on the foregoing information and evidence, the Department has failed to establish by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent committed an IPV of FAP benefits.

First, the evidence established that Respondent was convicted of a felony on or about [REDACTED]; [REDACTED]; [REDACTED]; and [REDACTED], for the use, possession, or distribution of controlled substances two or more times in separate periods and in which both offenses occurred after August 22, 1996. [Exhibit A, pp. 38-44.]

Second, although the evidence established that Respondent had been convicted of two or more drug felonies, the undersigned Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) finds that he did not intentionally commit a violation of the FAP program. The Department's position is that Respondent intentionally withheld or misrepresented his prior drug-felony convictions from the Department. However, in order to establish that a client has committed an IPV, the Department must establish that the client "committed, and intended to commit, an IPV." BAM 720, p. 1; 7 CFR 273.16(c); and 7 CFR 273.16(e)(6). The undersigned finds Respondent's testimony credible that he mistakenly marked "no" to the drug-related felony questions on the application dated [REDACTED]. Respondent's testimony is supported by the OIG report, which stated that Respondent on two previous occasions reported on his applications that he had been convicted of a drug felony. [Exhibit A, p. 3.] This shows to the undersigned that he is not intentionally withholding or misrepresenting his drug-related felony convictions from the Department because he has previously reported it to the Department. As such, the undersigned finds that Respondent's testimony credibly established that he did not intend to commit a violation of the FAP program. Therefore, in the absence of any clear and convincing evidence that Respondent intentionally withheld or misrepresented his criminal justice disqualification for the purpose of establishing, maintaining, increasing or preventing reduction of his FAP program benefits or eligibility, the Department has failed to establish that Respondent committed an IPV of FAP benefits.

Disqualification

A client who is found to have committed an IPV by a court or hearing decision is disqualified from receiving program benefits. BAM 720, p. 15; BEM 708 (October 2016), p. 1. Clients are disqualified for 10 years for an FAP IPV involving concurrent receipt of benefits, and, for all other IPV cases involving FIP, FAP or SDA, for standard disqualification periods of one year for the first IPV, two years for the second IPV, and lifetime for the third IPV. BAM 720, p. 16. CDC clients who intentionally violate CDC program rules are disqualified for six months for the first occurrence, twelve months for the second occurrence, and lifetime for the third occurrence. BEM 708, p. 1. A disqualified recipient remains a member of an active group as long as he lives with them, and other eligible group members may continue to receive benefits. BAM 720, p. 16.

In this case, the Department has not satisfied its burden of showing that Respondent committed an IPV concerning FAP benefits. Therefore, Respondent is not subject to a disqualification under the FAP program. BAM 720, p. 16.

Overissuance

As stated above, there was no IPV committed in this case. Furthermore, although Respondent had reported a drug felony conviction on two prior applications, Respondent failed to report that he had been convicted of two or more drug felonies on his application dated August 26, 2015. [Exhibit A, pp. 3 and 14.] Therefore, the Department can still proceed with recoupment of the OI when there is client error.

A client/provider error overissuance is when the client received more benefits than he/she was entitled to because the client/CDC provider gave incorrect or incomplete information to the Department. BAM 715 (January 2016), p. 1.

A client error overissuance is present in this situation because Respondent failed to notify the Department of his two or more drug-related felonies that would have permanently disqualified him from FAP eligibility. See BEM 203, p. 2. Consequently, Respondent was not eligible for FAP benefits and was overissued FAP benefits for any period he was ineligible to receive FAP benefits.

In establishing the OI, the Department presented Respondent's benefit summary inquiry showing that he was issued FAP benefits by the State of Michigan from [REDACTED] [REDACTED] which totaled $ [REDACTED] [Exhibit A, p. 47.] As such, the Department can recoup $ [REDACTED] of FAP benefits it issued to Respondent.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, concludes that:

1. The Department has not established by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent committed an IPV.
2. Respondent did receive an OI of FAP program benefits in the amount of $ [REDACTED]

The Department is ORDERED to initiate recoupment/collection procedures for the amount of $ [REDACTED] in accordance with Department policy, less any amount already recouped and/or collected.
