HEARING DECISION FOR INTENTIONAL PROGRAM VIOLATION

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Health and Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Department of Health and Human Services Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), Department of Health and Human Services Reference Tables Manual (RFT), and Department of Health and Human Services Emergency Relief Manual (ERM).

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food and Nutrition Act of 2008, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 273. The Department (formerly known as the Department of Human Services) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10, the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1-.119b, and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001-.3011.

The Department's OIG requests IPV hearings for the following cases:

- FAP trafficking OIs that are not forwarded to the prosecutor.
- Prosecution of welfare fraud or FAP trafficking is declined by the prosecutor for a reason other than lack of evidence, and
 - the total OI amount for the FIP, SDA, CDC, MA and FAP programs is $500 or more, or
 - the total OI amount is less than $500, and
 - the group has a previous IPV, or
 - the alleged IPV involves FAP trafficking, or
 - the alleged fraud involves concurrent receipt of assistance (see BEM 222), or
 - the alleged fraud is committed by a state/government employee.

Administrative Manual (BAM) 720 (January 1, 2016), pp 12-13.

Overissuance

When a client group receives benefits than they are entitled to receive, the Department must attempt to recoup the overissuance. Department of Health and Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM) 700 (October 1, 2016), p 1.

An individual convicted of a felony for the use, possession, or distribution of controlled substances two or more times in separate periods will be permanently disqualified if both offenses occurred after August 22, 1996. Department of Health and Human Services Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM) 203 (October 1, 2015), p 2.

On an application for assistance dated February 12, 2013, the Respondent acknowledged his duties and responsibilities including the duty to report any drug-related felony convictions to the Department. Respondent did not have an apparent physical or mental impairment that would limit the understanding or ability to fulfill this requirement. Respondent acknowledged under penalties of perjury that his application form was examined by or read to him, and, to the best of his knowledge, contained facts that were true and complete. Respondent reported to the Department on his February 12, 2013, application for assistance that he had not been convicted of any drug-related felonies.

On February 17, 2015, the Department received Respondent's completed Redetermination (DHS-1010) form where he acknowledged under penalties of perjury that the information on that form was true and complete. Respondent reported to the Department on his February 17, 2015, Redetermination form that he had not been convicted of any drug-related felonies.

On an application for assistance dated June 29, 2015, the Respondent acknowledged his duties and responsibilities including the duty to report any drug-related felony convictions to the Department. Respondent did not have an apparent physical or mental impairment that would limit the understanding or ability to fulfill this requirement. Respondent acknowledged under penalties of perjury that his application form was examined by or read to him, and, to the best of his knowledge, contained facts that were true and complete. Respondent reported to the Department on his June 29, 2015, application for assistance that he had not been convicted of any drug-related felonies.

The information Respondent had provided the Department for the purposes of determining his eligibility for FAP benefits on February 12, 2013, February 17, 2015, and June 29, 2015, was neither true nor complete. Respondent failed to report to the Department that he had pled guilty to two separate drug-related felonies with each occurring after August 22, 1996. If Respondent had reported his history of drug-related felony convictions to the Department he would have been permanently disqualified from FAP. A disqualified recipient remains a member of an active group as long as he lives with them, and other eligible group members may continue to receive benefits. BAM 720, p. 16. While a group of one, Respondent was not eligible for any FAP benefits. While there were other FAP recipients in his benefit group, Respondent was eligible for some FAP benefits.

The record evidence supports a finding that Respondent received FAP benefits totaling $ [REDACTED] from February 12, 2013, through April 30, 2016. During many of those months that Respondent was a FAP recipient, he was not eligible for any FAP benefits. During some of those months, other eligible group members made him eligible for a reduced allotment compared to what he was actually issued. The record evidence supports a finding that Respondent was eligible for FAP benefits totaling $ [REDACTED] from February 12, 2013, through April 30, 2016. Therefore, this Administrative Law Judge finds that Respondent received a $ [REDACTED] overissuance of FAP benefits.

Intentional Program Violation

Suspected IPV means an OI exists for which all three of the following conditions exist:

- The client intentionally failed to report information or intentionally gave incomplete or inaccurate information needed to make a correct benefit determination, and
- The client was clearly and correctly instructed regarding his or her reporting responsibilities, and
- The client has no apparent physical or mental impairment that limits his or her understanding or ability to fulfill reporting responsibilities.

An IPV is also suspected for a client who is alleged to have trafficked FAP benefits. BAM 720, p. 1.

An IPV requires that the Department establish by clear and convincing evidence that the client has intentionally withheld or misrepresented information for the purpose of establishing, maintaining, increasing or preventing reduction of program benefits or eligibility. BAM 720, p. 1 (emphasis in original); see also 7 CFR 273(e)(6).

The Department has the burden of establishing by clear and convincing evidence that the Respondent committed an Intentional Program Violation (IPV). The clear and convincing evidence standard, which is the most demanding standard applied in civil cases, is established where there is evidence so clear, direct and weighty and convincing that a conclusion can be drawn without hesitancy of the truth of the precise facts in issue. Smith v Anonymous Joint Enterprise, 487 Mich 102; 793 NW2d 533 (2010), reh den 488 Mich 860; 793 NW2d 559 (2010).

Clear and convincing proof is that which produces in the mind of the trier of fact a firm belief or conviction as to the truth of the precise facts in issue. Evidence may be uncontroverted and yet not be clear and convincing. Conversely, evidence may be clear and convincing even if contradicted. Id.

Respondent acknowledged his duties and responsibilities including his duty to report his history of drug-related felony convictions to the Department on forms submitted to the Department on February 12, 2013, February 17, 2015, and June 29, 2015. Respondent did not have an apparent physical or mental impairment that would limit the understanding or ability to fulfill this requirement. Respondent acknowledged under penalties of perjury that his application and redetermination forms were examined by or read to him, and, to the best of his knowledge, contained facts that were true and complete.

However, Respondent reported false information to the Department when he failed to report that he had pled guilty to two separate drug-related felonies with each occurring after August 22, 1996. As a result of Respondent's failure to provide the Department with true and complete information he received an overissuance of FAP benefits. This Administrative Law Judge finds that the Department has presented clear and convincing evidence that the Respondent intentionally failed to report his history of drug-related felony convictions to the Department for the purposes of becoming eligible for and maintaining his eligibility for FAP benefits that he would not have been eligible for otherwise.

Disqualification

A court or hearing decision that finds a client committed IPV disqualifies that client from receiving program benefits. BAM 720, p. 15-16. A disqualified recipient remains a member of an active group as long as he lives with them, and other eligible group members may continue to receive benefits. BAM 720, p. 16.

Clients who commit an IPV are disqualified for a standard disqualification period except when a court orders a different period, or except when the OI relates to MA. BAM 720, p. 13. Refusal to repay will not cause denial of current or future MA if the client is otherwise eligible. BAM 710 (July 1, 2013), p. 2. Clients are disqualified for periods of one year for the first IPV, two years for the second IPV, lifetime disqualification for the third IPV, and ten years for a FAP concurrent receipt of benefits. BAM 720, p. 16.

The record evidence indicates that this is Respondent's first established IPV violation.

The Department has established an Intentional Program Violation (IPV).

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, concludes that:

1. The Department has established by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent committed an IPV.
2. Respondent did receive an OI of Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits.
3. The Department is ORDERED to reduce the OI to $ [REDACTED] for the period February 12, 2013, through April 30, 2016, and initiate recoupment procedures in accordance with Department policy.
4. It is FURTHER ORDERED that Respondent be disqualified from the Food Assistance Program (FAP) for a period of 12 months.
