HEARING DECISION FOR INTENTIONAL PROGRAM VIOLATION

Upon the request for a hearing by the Department of Health and Human Services (Department), this matter is before the undersigned Administrative Law Judge pursuant to MCL 400.9, and in accordance with Titles 7, 42 and 45 of the Code of Federal Regulation (CFR), particularly 7 CFR 273.16, 42 CFR 431.230(b), and 45 CFR 235.110, and with Mich Admin Code, R 400.3130 and 400.3178. After due notice, a telephone hearing was held on [REDACTED], from Detroit, Michigan. The Department was represented by [REDACTED], Regulation Agent of the Office of Inspector General (OIG). Respondent did not appear at the hearing; and it was held in Respondent's absence pursuant to 7 CFR 273.16(e), Mich Admin Code R 400.3130(5), or Mich Admin Code R 400.3178(5).

ISSUES

1. Did the Department establish, by clear and convincing evidence, that Respondent committed an Intentional Program Violation (IPV) of the Food Assistance Program (FAP)?
2. Should Respondent be disqualified from receiving FAP benefits?
3. Did Respondent receive an overissuance (OI) of FAP benefits that the Department is entitled to recoup?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. The Department's OIG filed a hearing request on or around [REDACTED], to establish an OI of benefits received by Respondent as a result of Respondent having allegedly committed an IPV.
2. The OIG has requested that Respondent be disqualified from receiving FAP benefits.
3. Respondent was a recipient of FAP benefits issued by the Department.
4. Respondent was aware of the responsibility to accurately report her circumstances and to report changes in her circumstances to the Department, such as changes in employment and income.
5. Respondent did not have an apparent physical or mental impairment that would limit the understanding or ability to fulfill this requirement.
6. The Department's OIG indicates that the time period it is considering the fraud period is [REDACTED] (fraud period).
7. During the fraud period, the Department alleges that Respondent was issued [REDACTED] in FAP benefits by the State of Michigan, and the Department alleges that Respondent was entitled to [REDACTED] such benefits during this time period.
8. The Department alleges that Respondent received an OI in FAP benefits in the amount of [REDACTED].
9. This was Respondent's first alleged IPV.
10. A notice of hearing was mailed to Respondent at the last known address and was not returned by the US Post Office as undeliverable.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Health and Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), Adult Services Manual (ASM), and Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food and Nutrition Act of 2008, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 273. The Department (formerly known as the Department of Human Services) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10; the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1-.119b; and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 to .3015.

Effective October 1, 2014, the Department's OIG requests IPV hearings for the following cases:

- Willful overpayments of $500.00 or more under the AHH program.
- FAP trafficking overissuances that are not forwarded to the prosecutor.
- Prosecution of welfare fraud or FAP trafficking is declined by the prosecutor for a reason other than lack of evidence, and
 - The total amount for the FIP, SDA, CDC, MA and FAP programs combined is $500.00 or more, or
 - the total amount is less than $500.00, and
 - the group has a previous IPV, or
 - the alleged IPV involves FAP trafficking, or
 - the alleged fraud involves concurrent receipt of assistance (see BEM 222), or
 - the alleged fraud is committed by a state/government employee.

BAM 720 (January 2016), p. 5,12-13; ASM 165 (August 2016).

Intentional Program Violation

Suspected IPV means an OI exists for which all three of the following conditions exist:

- The client intentionally failed to report information or intentionally gave incomplete or inaccurate information needed to make a correct benefit determination, and
- The client was clearly and correctly instructed regarding his or her reporting responsibilities, and
- The client has no apparent physical or mental impairment that limits his or her understanding or ability to fulfill reporting responsibilities.

BAM 700 (January 2016), pp. 7-8; BAM 720, p.1.

An IPV requires that the Department establish by clear and convincing evidence that the client has intentionally withheld or misrepresented information for the purpose of establishing, maintaining, increasing or preventing reduction of program benefits or eligibility. BAM 720, p. 1 (emphasis in original); see also 7 CFR 273(e)(6). Clear and convincing evidence is evidence sufficient to result in a clear and firm belief that the proposition is true. See M Civ JI 8.01.

In this case, the Department alleges that Respondent committed an IPV of the FAP because she failed to accurately report to the Department that she was employed and earning income at the time she submitted her FAP application, causing an overissuance. The Department asserted that Respondent failed to report her employment with, and income from, ██████████ and ██████████. Clients must report changes in circumstances that potentially affect eligibility or benefit amount. Changes such as starting or stopping employment, earning income, and starting or stopping a source of unearned income must be reported within ten days of receiving the first payment reflecting the change. BAM 105 (January 2015), pp.10-12.

The Department contended that Respondent's failure to timely report the employment and earned income from both ██████████ and S ██████████ caused an OI of FAP benefits in the amount of ██████████ from ██████████ to ██████████. The Department provided copies of Respondent's verification of employment from ██████████ through the Work Number showing that she gained employment on ██████████, that she received her first paycheck on ██████████ and that she continued to be employed and earning income through the fraud period. The Department provided copies of Respondent's verification of employment from ██████████ through the Work Number showing that she gained employment on ██████████, that she received her first paycheck on ██████████, and that she continued to be employed and earning income through ██████████. (Exhibit A, pp. 54-59).

In support of its contention that Respondent committed an IPV, the Department presented an assistance application completed by Respondent and submitted to the Department on ██████████, during the time period she was employed at ██████████ on which she reports a loss of employment but fails to report her earnings and employment from ██████████. (Exhibit A, pp. 12-25). The Department also presented an ██████████ ██████████, redetermination and a ██████████ ██████████, application on which Respondent again fails to report her earnings from ██████████ and indicates that she has no income. The Department further presented a Notice of Case Action dated ██████████ which advises Petitioner that she was approved for FAP benefits based on ██████████ in earned income. (Exhibit A, pp. 26-53). Petitioner also failed to disclose her earnings from ██████████.

The Department's evidence was sufficient to establish that Respondent was advised of her responsibility to report changes in circumstances, as well as the penalties for failing to do so. After further review, Respondent failed to report her employment and income on more than one occasion and as such, the Department's evidence establishes, by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent intentionally withheld information for the purpose of establishing or maintaining benefit eligibility and thus committed an IPV.

Disqualification

A client who is found to have committed an IPV by a court or hearing decision is disqualified from receiving program benefits. BAM 720, p. 15. Clients are disqualified for ten years for a FAP IPV involving concurrent receipt of benefits, and, for all other IPV cases involving FAP, for standard disqualification periods of one year for the first IPV, two years for the second IPV, and lifetime for the third IPV. BAM 720, p. 16. A disqualified recipient remains a member of an active group as long as he lives with them, and other eligible group members may continue to receive benefits. BAM 720, p. 16.

In this case, the Department has satisfied its burden of showing that Respondent committed a FAP IPV. Therefore, because this was Respondent's first IPV, she is subject to a one-year disqualification from the FAP.

Overissuance

When a client group receives more benefits than entitled to receive, the Department must attempt to recoup the OI. BAM 700, p. 1. The amount of a FAP OI is the benefit amount the client actually received minus the amount the client was eligible to receive. BAM 720, p. 8; BAM 715 (January 2016), p. 6; BAM 705 (January 2016), p. 6.

At the hearing, the Department presented a FAP benefit summary inquiry to establish that the State of Michigan issued [REDACTED] in FAP benefits to Respondent from [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED]. (Exhibit A, pp.60-64). The Department contended that Respondent's failure to report her employment and income from [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] caused an OI of FAP benefits in the amount of [REDACTED] as the Department alleged that Respondent's group was eligible for $ [REDACTED] FAP benefits during this period. (Exhibit A, p. 65).

In support of its OI case, the Department presented the Work Number for Respondent's employment with [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] which detailed that amounts earned and paydates. (Exhibit A, pp. 54-59). The Department also presented Food Assistance Worksheets for each month in the fraud period to show how the OI was calculated. (Exhibit A, pp. 66-88). A review of the budgets for each month shows that when Respondent's unreported earnings are included in the calculation of the group's FAP eligibility, Respondent's group was eligible to receive [REDACTED] in FAP benefits for the period between [REDACTED]. Thus, the Department is entitled to recoup or collect from Respondent $ [REDACTED] in FAP benefits which is the difference between the [REDACTED] in FAP benefits actually issued to her and the [REDACTED] in FAP benefits she was eligible to receive from [REDACTED].

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, concludes that:

1. The Department has established by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent committed an IPV of the FAP.
2. Respondent did receive an OI of program benefits in the amount of [REDACTED] from the FAP.

The Department is ORDERED to initiate recoupment/collection procedures for the amount of [REDACTED] in accordance with Department policy, less any amount already recouped/collected.

It is FURTHER ORDERED that Respondent be disqualified from the FAP for a period of 12 months.
