The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. On April 4, 2017, the Department sent Petitioner a Redetermination (DHS-1010) form with a May 4, 2017, due date. Exhibit A, p 10.
2. On May 19, 2017, the Department notified Petitioner that her children were no longer eligible for Medical Assistance (MA) effective June 1, 2017. Exhibit A, p 6.
3. On July 19, 2017, the Department notified Petitioner that she was no longer eligible for Medical Assistance (MA) effective August 1, 2017. Exhibit A, p 3.
4. On July 31, 2017, the Department received Petitioner's request for a hearing protesting the closure of her Medical Assistance (MA) benefits. Exhibit A, p 2.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Health and Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Department of Health and Human Services Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), Department of Health and Human Services Reference Tables Manual (RFT), and Department of Health and Human Services Emergency Relief Manual (ERM).

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food and Nutrition Act of 2008, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 273. The Department (formerly known as the Department of Human Services) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10, the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1-.119b, and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001-.3011.

Clients must cooperate with the local office in determining initial and ongoing eligibility and this includes the completion of necessary forms. Department of Human Services Bridges Assistance Manual (BAM) 105 (October 1, 2016), p 8.

Verification means documentation or other evidence to establish the accuracy of the client's verbal or written statements. Verification is usually required at application/redetermination and for a reported change affecting eligibility or benefit level when it is required by policy, required as a local office option, or information regarding an eligibility factor is unclear, inconsistent, incomplete, or contradictory. The Department uses documents, collateral contacts, or home calls to verify information. A collateral contact is a direct contact with a person, organization, or agency to verify information from the client. When documentation is not available, or clarification is needed, collateral contact may be necessary. Department of Human Services Bridges Assistance Manual (BAM) 130 (April 1, 2017), pp 1-9.

Petitioner and her children were ongoing MA recipients when the Department initiated a routine review of their eligibility for ongoing benefits by sending them a Redetermination (DHS-1010) form addressed to their correct mailing address. When the Department did not receive the information necessary to accurately determine the group's eligibility for benefits it close their MA benefits.

Petitioner testified that she did not receive the Redetermination (DHS-1010) form before the due date, but that it arrived later and that the delay was most likely caused by the US Postal Service.

While a presumption arises that a letter with a proper address and postage will, when placed in the mail be delivered by the postal service, this presumption can be rebutted with evidence that the letter was not received. If such evidence is presented, as it was here, then a question of fact arises regarding whether the letter was received. [Citations omitted.] Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co v Roseville, 468 Mich 947; 664 NW2d 751 (2003).

In this case, the Department presented substantial evidence that it mailed a Redetermination (DHS-1010) addressed to Petitioner's correct mailing address, and the Petitioner failed to rebut the presumption of receipt. Petitioner had a duty to provide the Department with information that was required to accurately determine her eligibility for ongoing benefits and she failed to provide that information in a timely manner.

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, finds that the Department acted in accordance with Department policy when it closed Medical Assistance (MA) benefits for Petitioner and her children.

DECISION AND ORDER

Accordingly, the Department's decision is AFFIRMED.
