SHELLY EDGERTON DIRECTOR

Date Mailed: December 14, 2017 MAHS Docket No.: 17-009389

Agency No.: Petitioner: OIG

Respondent:

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE: Lynn M. Ferris

HEARING DECISION FOR INTENTIONAL PROGRAM VIOLATION

Upon the request for a hearing by the Department of Health and Human Services (Department), this matter is before the undersigned Administrative Law Judge pursuant to MCL 400.9, and in accordance with Titles 7, 42 and 45 of the Code of Federal Regulation (CFR), particularly 7 CFR 273.16, 42 CFR 431.230(b), and 45 CFR 235.110, and with Mich Admin Code, R 400.3130 and 400.3178. After due notice, a telephone hearing was held on December 4, 2017, from Detroit, Michigan. The Department was represented by Regulation Agent of the Office of Inspector General (OIG).

Respondent did not appear at the hearing; and it was held in Respondent's absence pursuant to 7 CFR 273.16(e), Mich Admin Code R 400.3130(5), or Mich Admin Code R 400.3178(5).

ISSUES

- 1. Did Respondent receive an overissuance (OI) of Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits that the Department is entitled to recoup?
- 2. Did the Department establish, by clear and convincing evidence, that Respondent committed an Intentional Program Violation (IPV)?
- 3. Should Respondent be disqualified from receiving benefits for FAP?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

- The Department's OIG filed a hearing request on June 12, 2017, to establish an OI of benefits received by Respondent as a result of Respondent having allegedly committed an IPV.
- 2. The OIG has/not requested that Respondent be disqualified from receiving program benefits.
- 3. Respondent was a recipient of FAP benefits issued by the Department.
- 4. Respondent was aware of the responsibility to report all household income and employment when applying for benefits and changes in circumstances.
- 5. Respondent did not have an apparent physical or mental impairment that would limit the understanding or ability to fulfill this requirement.
- 6. The Department's OIG indicates that the time period it is considering the fraud period is October 1, 2010, through May 31, 2011, (fraud period).
- 7. During the fraud period, Respondent was issued $\text{max} in FAP benefits by the State of Michigan; and the Department alleges that Respondent was entitled to $0 in such benefits during this time period.
- 8. The Department alleges that Respondent received an OI in FAP benefits in the amount of $\_\___
- 9. This was Respondent's first alleged IPV.
- 10. A notice of hearing was mailed to Respondent at the last known address and was not returned by the United States Postal Service as undeliverable.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Health and Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), Adult Services Manual (ASM), and Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food and Nutrition Act of 2008, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 273. The Department (formerly known as the Department of Human Services) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10; the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1-.119b; and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 to .3015.

Effective October 1, 2014, the Department's OIG requests IPV hearings for the following cases:

- Willful overpayments of $500.00 or more under the AHH program.
- FAP trafficking overissuances that are not forwarded to the prosecutor.
- Prosecution of welfare fraud or FAP trafficking is declined by the prosecutor for a reason other than lack of evidence, and
  - The total amount for the FIP, SDA, CDC, MA and FAP programs combined is $500.00 or more, or
  - the total amount is less than $500.00, and
    - the group has a previous IPV, or
    - the alleged IPV involves FAP trafficking, or
    - the alleged fraud involves concurrent receipt of assistance (see BEM 222), or
    - the alleged fraud is committed by a state/government employee.

BAM 720 (January 2016), pp. 12-13.

Intentional Program Violation

Suspected IPV means an OI exists for which all three of the following conditions exist:

- The client intentionally failed to report information or intentionally gave incomplete or inaccurate information needed to make a correct benefit determination, and
- The client was clearly and correctly instructed regarding his or her reporting responsibilities, and
- The client has no apparent physical or mental impairment that limits his or her understanding or ability to fulfill reporting responsibilities.

An IPV is also suspected for a client who is alleged to have trafficked FAP benefits. BAM 720, p. 1.

An IPV requires that the Department establish by clear and convincing evidence that the client has intentionally withheld or misrepresented information for the purpose of establishing, maintaining, increasing or preventing reduction of program benefits or eligibility. BAM 720, p. 1 (emphasis in original); see also 7 CFR 273(e)(6). Clear and convincing evidence is evidence sufficient to result in a clear and firm belief that the proposition is true. See M Civ JI 8.01.

In this case, the Respondent applied for FAP benefits on June 16, 2010 at which time she was not employed and answered the application question correctly. [Exhibit A, p. 21.] Thereafter, the Respondent became employed on August 17, 2017, approximately two months of filing her application. At the time she became employed and thereafter, the Respondent did not report her employment and wages. The Respondent completed a redetermination for May 3, 2011, which she returned on April 30, 2011, and reported her son income but did not report her employment or income even though she was still employed with reported her son's earnings on April 30, 2011, he had been employed since August 17, 2010. [Exhibit A, p. 98.] In addition, the Department presented verifications of employment for both Respondent and which confirmed the employment.

Clients must report changes in circumstance that potentially affect eligibility or benefit amount. Changes must be reported within 10 days of receiving the first payment reflecting the change.

Income reporting requirements are limited to the following:

- Earned income:
  - •• Starting or stopping employment.
  - Changing employers.
  - Change in rate of pay.
  - •• Change in work hours of more than five hours per week that is expected to continue for more than one month. BAM 105, (October 2017), p. 11-12. See BAM 200 for FAP rules for reporting changes in income (simplified reporting).

The evidence shows that Respondent began employment with employer on August 17, 2010, as did her son; [Exhibit A, pp. 64 and 98).] The Department testified that Respondent did not report this income. Rather, the Department became aware of the income through its own inquiry seeking verification of income as well as Respondent's. Because Respondent did not disclose her income at any time and the employment was discovered through the Department's actions, the Department established that there was clear and convincing evidence that Respondent withheld information for the purpose of maintaining or preventing reduction of her FAP benefits. Under these circumstances, the Department has established that Respondent committed an IPV concerning her FAP case.

Disqualification

A client who is found to have committed an IPV by a court or hearing decision is disqualified from receiving program benefits. BAM 720, p. 16. Clients are disqualified for ten years for a FAP IPV involving concurrent receipt of benefits, and, for all other IPV cases involving FIP, FAP or SDA, for standard disqualification periods of one year for the first IPV, two years for the second IPV, and lifetime for the third IPV. BAM 720, p. 17. A disqualified recipient remains a member of an active group as long as he/she lives with them, and other eligible group members may continue to receive benefits. BAM 720, p. 16.

In this case, the Department has established by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent has committed an IPV and thus is entitled to a finding of disqualification of Respondent from receipt of FAP benefits.

Overissuance

When a client group receives more benefits than entitled to receive, the Department must attempt to recoup the OI. BAM 700, p. 1. An overissuance (OI) is the amount of benefits issued to the client group or CDC provider in excess of what it was eligible to receive. For FAP benefits, an OI is also the amount of benefits trafficked (traded or sold). BAM 700, (May 1, 2014), p. 7.

As stated previously, the Department has established that Respondent committed an IPV of her FAP benefits. Moreover, it is found that the Department applied the appropriate OI begin date of July 1, 2015. [See BAM 720, p. 7, and Exhibit A, pp. 4 and 53.]

In this case, the Department presented OI budgets from October 2010 through May 31, 2011. [Exhibit A, pp. 52-63.] The budgets included Respondent's income that was not previously budgeted. [Exhibit A, pp. 52-63.] A review of the OI budgets found them to be fair and correct. As such, the Department is entitled to recoup $ of FAP benefits it issued for October 1, 2010, through May 31, 2011. FAP Benefit Issuance Summaries were also provided which established that Respondent had received FAP during the fraud period.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, concludes that:

- 1. The Department has established by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent committed an IPV.
- 2. Respondent did receive an OI of program benefits in the amount of $\frac{1}{2} \text{the following program(s) Food Assistance.}

The Department is ORDERED to initiate recoupment/collection procedures for the amount of $\square$ in accordance with Department policy.

It is FURTHER ORDERED that Respondent be disqualified from receiving Food Assistance for a period of 12 months.
