ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE: Amanda M. T. Marler

HEARING DECISION FOR INTENTIONAL PROGRAM VIOLATION

Upon the request for a hearing by the Department of Health and Human Services (Department), this matter is before the undersigned Administrative Law Judge pursuant to MCL 400.9, and in accordance with Titles 7, 42 and 45 of the Code of Federal Regulation (CFR), particularly 7 CFR 273.16, 42 CFR 431.230(b), and 45 CFR 235.110, and with Mich Admin Code, R 400.3130 and 400.3178. After due notice, a telephone hearing was held on December 4, 2017 from Detroit, Michigan. The Department was represented by [REDACTED], Regulation Agent of the Office of Inspector General (OIG). The Respondent was self-represented.

ISSUES

1. Did Respondent receive an overissuance (OI) of Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits that the Department is entitled to recoup?
2. Did the Department establish, by clear and convincing evidence, that Respondent committed an Intentional Program Violation (IPV)?
3. Should Respondent be disqualified from receiving benefits for the FAP?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. The Department's OIG filed a hearing request on June 13, 2017, to establish an OI of benefits received by Respondent as a result of Respondent having allegedly committed an IPV.

2. The OIG has requested that Respondent be disqualified from receiving program benefits.
3. Respondent was a recipient of FAP benefits issued by the Department.
4. Respondent was aware of the responsibility to update the Department about her address and residency and stop use of her benefits while in Texas.
5. Respondent did not have an apparent physical or mental impairment that would limit the understanding or ability to fulfill this requirement.
6. The Department's OIG indicates that the time period it is considering the fraud period is February 1, 2016 through May 31, 2016 (fraud period).
7. During the fraud period, Respondent was issued $ [REDACTED] in FAP benefits by the State of Michigan, and the Department alleges that Respondent was entitled to $ [REDACTED] in such benefits during this time period.
8. The Department alleges that Respondent received an OI in FAP benefits in the amount of $ [REDACTED]
9. This was Respondent's first alleged IPV.
10. A notice of hearing was mailed to Respondent at the last known address and was not returned by the United States Postal Services as undeliverable.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Health and Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), Adult Services Manual (ASM), and Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food and Nutrition Act of 2008, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 273. The Department (formerly known as the Department of Human Services) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10; the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1-.119b; and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 to .3015.

Effective October 1, 2014, the Department's OIG requests IPV hearings for the following cases:

- Willful overpayments of $500.00 or more under the AHH program.

- FAP trafficking overissuances that are not forwarded to the prosecutor.
- Prosecution of welfare fraud or FAP trafficking is declined by the prosecutor for a reason other than lack of evidence, and
 - The total amount for the FIP, SDA, CDC, MA and FAP programs combined is $500.00 or more, or
 - the total amount is less than $500.00, and
 - the group has a previous IPV, or
 - the alleged IPV involves FAP trafficking, or
 - the alleged fraud involves concurrent receipt of assistance (see BEM 222), or
 - the alleged fraud is committed by a state/government employee.

BAM 720 (January 2016), p. 5.

Intentional Program Violation

Suspected IPV means an OI exists for which all three of the following conditions exist:

- The client intentionally failed to report information or intentionally gave incomplete or inaccurate information needed to make a correct benefit determination, and
- The client was clearly and correctly instructed regarding his or her reporting responsibilities, and
- The client has no apparent physical or mental impairment that limits his or her understanding or ability to fulfill reporting responsibilities.

An IPV requires that the Department establish by clear and convincing evidence that the client has intentionally withheld or misrepresented information for the purpose of establishing, maintaining, increasing or preventing reduction of program benefits or eligibility. BAM 720, p. 1 (emphasis in original); see also 7 CFR 273(e)(6). Clear and convincing evidence is evidence sufficient to result in a clear and firm belief that the proposition is true. See M Civ JI 8.01.

In this case, the Department alleges that Respondent committed an IPV concerning her FAP benefits because she intentionally failed to update her residency with the Department in order to receive FAP benefits from the State of Michigan while living in Texas and then continued to use her FAP benefits while out of state despite knowledge that she should not. To be eligible for FAP benefits issued by the Department, a person must be a Michigan resident. BEM 220 (July 2014), p. 1. For FAP purposes, a person is considered a resident while living in Michigan for any purpose other than a vacation, even if he has no intent to remain in the state permanently or indefinitely. BEM 220, p. 1. A client who resides outside the State of Michigan for more than thirty days is not eligible for FAP benefits issued by the State of Michigan. BEM 212 (July 2014), p. 3.

To support the allegations of an IPV, the Department presented an application for FAP and FIP benefits on which the Respondent acknowledged her responsibility to update the Department with a new address and residency, an IG-311 EBT History which shows the Respondent's EBT transaction history including exclusive purchases with the EBT card in [REDACTED] from November 28, 2015 through July 1, 2016, and a Work Number Report showing the Respondent's employment in [REDACTED] at [REDACTED] from December 21, 2015 through approximately January 17, 2016, and finally a letter confirming denial of benefits in [REDACTED] from the [REDACTED] [REDACTED] (Exhibit A, pps. 10-42).

The Respondent admits to moving to [REDACTED] but indicates that she emailed her caseworker in Michigan to tell them to close her case. The Department pointed out that even if she advised the Department to close the case, she continued to receive and use Michigan-issued FAP benefits. At this point, Respondent testified that when she left for [REDACTED] she left her EBT card and other important documentation in a folder at her mother's house. The Respondent explained the use of the EBT card indicating that her children must have stolen the card before they left Michigan and used it in [REDACTED]. She further indicated that when she returned to Michigan, she had to obtain a new card because the card was broken in the folder at her mother's house. Finally, the Respondent did not realize that her children had stolen the card until the hearing.

In this case, the Department has provided adequate proof that the Respondent's card was being used in [REDACTED]. Furthermore, the Respondent admits that she was not living in Michigan for the relevant period. Finally, Respondent's explanation that her children had stolen her FAP card from her file at her mother's home in Michigan, used it undetected in [REDACTED] for seven months, and then returned it to her mother's home in Michigan is not credible. Therefore, based upon the evidence presented, the Department has met its burden of proof by clear and convincing evidence that the Respondent committed an IPV when she intentionally failed to report her change in residency and used her FAP in [REDACTED].

Disqualification

A client who is found to have committed an IPV by a court or hearing decision is disqualified from receiving program benefits. BAM 720, p. 15. Clients are disqualified for ten years for a FAP IPV involving concurrent receipt of benefits, and, for all other IPV cases involving FIP, FAP or SDA, for standard disqualification periods of one year for the first IPV, two years for the second IPV, and lifetime for the third IPV. BAM 720, p.

16. A disqualified recipient remains a member of an active group as long as he/she lives with them, and other eligible group members may continue to receive benefits. BAM 720, p. 16.

As discussed above, the Department has established by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent committed an IPV. Since this is the Respondent's first IPV, she is subject to a 12-month FAP benefits disqualification on the basis of an IPV.

Overissuance

When a client group receives more benefits than entitled to receive, the Department must attempt to recoup the OI. BAM 700, p. 1. The amount of a FAP OI is the benefit amount the client actually received minus the amount the client was eligible to receive. BAM 720, p. 8; BAM 715 (January 2016), p. 6; BAM 705 (January 2016), p. 6.

In this case, the Department alleged a $ [REDACTED] OI for February 1, 2016 based upon Respondent's lack of Michigan residency. As discussed above, a client must be a Michigan resident to be eligible for Michigan-issued FAP benefits. BEM 220, p. 1. The FAP transaction history which shows that Respondent was using her FAP benefits exclusively in Texas beginning November 28, 2015 is sufficient to establish that Respondent was not residing in Michigan during the fraud period. BEM 212, p. 3.

To determine the first month of the OI period the Department allows time for: (i) the client reporting period, per BAM 105; (ii) the full standard of promptness (SOP) for change processing, per BAM 220; and (iii) the full negative action suspense period; see BAM 220, Effective Date of Change. BAM 715 (July 2014), p. 5. In consideration of out-of-state use that began November 28, 2015, the OI period should have begun on January 1, 2016 however the Department began the OI period in February 2016 to the Respondent's benefit and therefore will not be modified. BAM 715, p. 5.

The FAP Benefit Summary Inquiry presented by the Department showed that from February 2016 through May 2016, Respondent received $ [REDACTED] in FAP benefits (Exhibit A, p. 44). Since Respondent was not living in Michigan during the OI period, she was not eligible for any of the FAP benefits issued to her during this period.

Thus, the Department has met its burden of proof by a preponderance of the evidence and is entitled to recoup and/or collect $ [REDACTED] from Respondent for overissued FAP benefits between February 2016 and May 2016.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, concludes that:

1. The Department has established by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent committed an IPV.

2. Respondent received an OI of program benefits in the amount of $ [REDACTED] from the FAP.

The Department is ORDERED to initiate recoupment/collection procedures for the amount of $ [REDACTED] in accordance with Department policy.

It is FURTHER ORDERED that Respondent be disqualified from FAP for a period 12 months.
