HEARING DECISION FOR CONCURRENT BENEFITS
INTENTIONAL PROGRAM VIOLATION

Upon the request for a hearing by the Department of Health and Human Services (Department), this matter is before the undersigned Administrative Law Judge pursuant to MCL 400.9, and in accordance with Titles 7, 42 and 45 of the Code of Federal Regulation (CFR), particularly 7 CFR 273.16, 42 CFR 431.230(b), and 45 CFR 235.110, and with Mich Admin Code, R 400.3130 and 400.3178. After due notice, a telephone hearing was held on January 10, 2018, from Detroit, Michigan. The Department was represented by [REDACTED], Regulation Agent of the Office of Inspector General (OIG). Respondent did not appear at the hearing; and it was held in Respondent's absence pursuant to 7 CFR 273.16(e), Mich Admin Code R 400.3130(5), or Mich Admin Code R 400.3178(5).

ISSUES

1. Did Respondent receive an overissuance (OI) of Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits that the Department is entitled to recoup?
2. Did the Department establish, by clear and convincing evidence, that Respondent committed an Intentional Program Violation (IPV) of the FAP?
3. Should Respondent be disqualified from receiving FAP benefits?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. The Department's OIG filed a hearing request on July 6, 2017, to establish an OI of benefits received by Respondent alleging that as the result of Respondent receiving concurrent program benefits and thereby committing an IPV.
2. The OIG has requested that Respondent be disqualified from receiving program benefits.
3. Respondent was a recipient of FAP benefits issued by the Department.
4. Respondent was aware of the responsibility to report a change in residency and address within 10 days of the change.
5. Respondent did not have an apparent physical or mental impairment that would limit the understanding or ability to fulfill this requirement.
6. The Department's OIG indicates that the time period it is considering the fraud period is January 1, 2016, to April 30, 2016, (fraud period).
7. During the fraud period, Respondent was issued $ [REDACTED] in FAP benefits by the State of Michigan; and the Department alleges that Respondent was entitled to $0 in such benefits during this time period.
8. The Department alleges that Respondent received an OI in FAP benefits in the amount of $ [REDACTED]
9. Beginning January 26, 2016, through April 30, 2016, Respondent received food assistance benefits from the State of North Carolina (NC) concurrently with FAP benefits from Michigan (MI). [Exhibit A, pp. 17-19, 20.]
10. This was Respondent's first alleged IPV.
11. A notice of hearing was mailed to Respondent at the last known address and was not returned by the United States Postal Service as undeliverable.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Health and Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), Adult Services Manual (ASM), and Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food and Nutrition Act of 2008, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 273. The Department (formerly known as the Department of Human Services) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10; the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1-.119b; and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 to .3015.

The Department's OIG requests IPV hearings for the following cases:

- Willful overpayments of $500.00 or more under the AHH program.
- FAP trafficking overissuances that are not forwarded to the prosecutor.
- Prosecution of welfare fraud or FAP trafficking is declined by the prosecutor for a reason other than lack of evidence, and
 - The total amount for the FIP, SDA, CDC, MA and FAP programs combined is $500.00 or more, or
 - the total amount is less than $500.00, and
 - the group has a previous IPV, or
 - the alleged IPV involves FAP trafficking, or
 - the alleged fraud involves concurrent receipt of assistance (see BEM 222), or
 - the alleged fraud is committed by a state/government employee.

BAM 720 (January 2016), p. 5; ASM 165 (August 2016), pp. 1-2.

Intentional Program Violation

Suspected IPV means an OI exists for which all three of the following conditions exist:

- The client intentionally failed to report information or intentionally gave incomplete or inaccurate information needed to make a correct benefit determination, and
- The client was clearly and correctly instructed regarding his or her reporting responsibilities, and
- The client has no apparent physical or mental impairment that limits his or her understanding or ability to fulfill reporting responsibilities.

An IPV is also suspected for a client who is alleged to have trafficked FAP benefits. BAM 720, p. 1.

An IPV requires that the Department establish by clear and convincing evidence that the client has intentionally withheld or misrepresented information for the purpose of establishing, maintaining, increasing or preventing reduction of program benefits or eligibility. BAM 720 (October 2015), p. 1, (emphasis in original); see also 7 CFR 273(e)(6). Clear and convincing evidence is evidence sufficient to result in a clear and firm belief that the proposition is true. See M Civ JI 8.01.

In this case, the Department alleges that Respondent committed an IPV because she received FAP benefits from the State of Michigan at the same time she received food assistance benefits from the State of North Carolina. It is alleged that Respondent began receiving food assistance from North Carolina in January 2016. [Exhibit A, pp. 17-19.] A person cannot receive FAP in more than one state for any month. BEM 222 (July 2013), p. 3.

In support of its IPV allegations, the Department presented (i) an mid-certification contact notice Respondent submitted to the Department on March 25, 2015, in which Respondent claimed to be a Michigan resident and was reminded of her responsibility to report any change in address, [Exhibit A, pp. 11-13]; (ii) email correspondence from the North Carolina Department of Health and Human Services confirming Respondent's receipt of Food Stamp benefits in North Carolina beginning January 26, 2016, and medical assistance beginning February 1, 2016, [Exhibit A, p. 65]; (iii) a benefit summary inquiry showing that the Department issued FAP benefits to Respondent between and January 2016 and April 2016, [Exhibit A, p. 20]; and (iv) the Electronic Benefits Transfer (EBT) history showing the use of FAP benefits during the fraud period, [Exhibit A, pp. 14-16.]

As demonstrated by the evidence, Respondent failed to report that she was receiving or had received benefits from North Carolina. Respondent received and used Michigan FAP benefits concurrently with the receipt of food stamps from North Carolina. Respondent chose not to report her change in residency and receipt of food stamps in North Carolina while receiving FAP benefits. [Exhibit A, pp. 17-20.] It is found Respondent intentionally failed to provide information regarding her benefits from North Carolina for the purpose of continuing to obtain benefits from Michigan.

Under these circumstances, it is found that the Department has met its burden of proof demonstrating by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent committed an intentional violation of her FAP benefits and that she received FAP benefits concurrently with food stamps received from the State of North Carolina.

Disqualification

A client who is found to have committed an IPV by a court or hearing decision is disqualified from receiving program benefits. BAM 720 (October 2015), p. 15. Clients are disqualified for ten years for a FAP IPV involving concurrent receipt of benefits, and, for all other IPV cases involving FAP, for standard disqualification periods of one year for the first IPV, two years for the second IPV, and lifetime for the third IPV. BAM 720, p. 16. A disqualified recipient remains a member of an active group as long as he/she lives with them, and other eligible group members may continue to receive benefits. BAM 720, p. 16.

As discussed above, the Department has established by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent committed an IPV by concurrent receipt of benefits. Thus, Respondent is subject to a 10-year disqualification from her receipt of FAP benefits on the basis of IPV.

Overissuance

When a client group receives more benefits than entitled to receive, the Department must attempt to recoup the OI. BAM 700, p. 1. The amount of a FAP OI is the benefit amount the client actually received minus the amount the client was eligible to receive. BAM 720, p. 8; BAM 715 (1/1/16), p. 6; BAM 705 (1/1/16), p. 6.

In this case, the Department alleged that Respondent was overissued FAP benefits totaling $ [REDACTED] during the fraud period. The Department presented a benefit summary inquiry showing that Respondent was issued $ [REDACTED] in FAP benefits during the fraud period. [Exhibit A, p. 20.] The Department also submitted evidence demonstrating Respondent was also receiving food stamps from North Carolina during the fraud period. [Exhibit A, p. 17-19.] As noted above, a person cannot receive FAP in more than one state for any month. BEM 222 (July 2013), p. 3. Therefore, Respondent was not eligible for any of the benefits issued to her during the fraud period.

Thus, the Department is entitled to recoup and/or collect $ [REDACTED] from Respondent for overissued FAP benefits during the fraud period.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, concludes that:

1. The Department has established by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent committed an IPV.
2. Respondent did receive an OI of program benefits in the amount of $ [REDACTED] from the following program(s) FAP.

The Department is ORDERED to initiate recoupment/collection procedures in accordance with Department policy for a FAP OI in the amount of $ [REDACTED] less any amounts already recouped/collected.

It is FURTHER ORDERED that Respondent be disqualified from FAP for a period of 10 years due to IPV by concurrent use of FAP benefits.
