HEARING DECISION FOR INTENTIONAL PROGRAM VIOLATION

Upon the request for a hearing by the Department of Health and Human Services (Department), this matter is before the undersigned Administrative Law Judge pursuant to MCL 400.9, and in accordance with Titles 7, 42 and 45 of the Code of Federal Regulation (CFR), particularly 7 CFR 273.16, 42 CFR 431.230(b), and 45 CFR 235.110, and with Mich Admin Code, R 400.3130 and 400.3178. After due notice, a telephone hearing was held on January 10, 2018, from Detroit, Michigan. The Department was represented by [REDACTED], Regulation Agent of the Office of Inspector General (OIG). Respondent did not appear at the hearing; and it was held in Respondent's absence pursuant to 7 CFR 273.16(e), Mich Admin Code R 400.3130(5), or Mich Admin Code R 400.3178(5).

ISSUES

1. Did the Department establish, by clear and convincing evidence, that Respondent committed an Intentional Program Violation (IPV) of the Food Assistance Program (FAP)?
2. Should Respondent be disqualified from receiving FAP benefits?
3. Did Respondent receive an overissuance (OI) of FAP benefits that the Department is entitled to recoup?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. The Department's OIG filed a hearing request on August 3, 2017, to establish an OI of benefits received by Respondent as a result of Respondent having allegedly committed an IPV.
2. The OIG has requested that Respondent be disqualified from receiving program benefits.
3. Respondent was a recipient of FAP benefits issued by the Department.
4. Respondent aware of his rights and responsibilities as they relate to the FAP, including the responsibility to not sell, trade, or give away his FAP benefits for cash or consideration other than eligible food.
5. Respondent did not have an apparent physical or mental impairment that would limit the understanding or ability to fulfill this requirement.
6. The Department's OIG indicates that the time period it is considering the fraud period is February 23, 2017 to April 30, 2017 (fraud period).
7. The Department alleges that Respondent trafficked $ [REDACTED] in FAP benefits during the fraud period.
8. The Department alleges that Respondent received an OI in FAP benefits in the amount of $ [REDACTED]
9. This was Respondent's first alleged IPV.
10. A notice of hearing was mailed to Respondent at the last known address and was not returned by the United States Postal Services as undeliverable.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Health and Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), Adult Services Manual (ASM), and Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food and Nutrition Act of 2008, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 273. The Department (formerly known as the Department of Human Services) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10; the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1-.119b; and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 to .3015.

Effective October 1, 2014, the Department's OIG requests IPV hearings for the following cases:

- Willful overpayments of $500.00 or more under the AHH program.
- FAP trafficking overissuances that are not forwarded to the prosecutor.
- Prosecution of welfare fraud or FAP trafficking is declined by the prosecutor for a reason other than lack of evidence, and
 - The total amount for the FIP, SDA, CDC, MA and FAP programs combined is $500.00 or more, or
 - the total amount is less than $500.00, and
 - the group has a previous IPV, or
 - the alleged IPV involves FAP trafficking, or
 - the alleged fraud involves concurrent receipt of assistance (see BEM 222), or
 - the alleged fraud is committed by a state/government employee.

BAM 720 (January 2016), pp. 5-7; ASM 165 (August 2016).

Intentional Program Violation

Suspected IPV means an OI exists for which all three of the following conditions exist:

- The client intentionally failed to report information or intentionally gave incomplete or inaccurate information needed to make a correct benefit determination, and
- The client was clearly and correctly instructed regarding his or her reporting responsibilities, and
- The client has no apparent physical or mental impairment that limits his or her understanding or ability to fulfill reporting responsibilities.

BAM 700 (October 2016), pp.7-8; BAM 720, p. 1.

An IPV is also suspected for a client who is alleged to have trafficked FAP benefits. BAM 720, p. 1.

An IPV requires that the Department establish by clear and convincing evidence that the client has intentionally withheld or misrepresented information for the purpose of establishing, maintaining, increasing or preventing reduction of program benefits or eligibility. BAM 720, p. 1 (emphasis in original); see also 7 CFR 273(e)(6). Clear and convincing evidence is evidence sufficient to result in a clear and firm belief that the proposition is true. See M Civ JI 8.01.

In this case, the Department alleges that Respondent committed an IPV by trafficking his FAP benefits when he allowed an unauthorized person to use his FAP benefits while he was incarcerated. Trafficking is (i) the buying or selling of FAP benefits for cash or consideration other than eligible food; (ii) selling products purchased with FAP benefits for cash or consideration other than eligible food; (iii) purchasing containers with deposits, dumping/discarding product and then returning containers to obtain cash refund deposits; and (iv) attempting to buy, sell or steal FAP benefits for cash or consideration other than eligible food. BAM 700, p. 2. See also Department of Human Services, Bridges Policy Glossary (BPG) (October 2015), p. 66, which defines trafficking as the stealing, trading, buying, selling, or attempted to have been stolen, traded, bought or sold of FAP benefits for cash or consideration other than eligible food. The federal regulations define trafficking to include the “buying, selling, or otherwise effecting an exchange of [FAP] benefits issued and accessed via via Electronic Benefit Transfer (EBT) . . . for cash or consideration other than eligible food, either directly, indirectly, in complicity or collusion with others, or acting alone.” 7 CFR 271.2 (1).

In support of its contention that Respondent committed an IPV, the Department presented: (i) documentation indicating that Respondent was arrested and booked at the [REDACTED] on February 21, 2017 where he remained incarcerated through May 4, 2017; (ii) a FAP Benefit Summary Inquiry showing that Respondent was issued FAP benefits by the State of Michigan during the period in which he was incarcerated; and (iii) a transaction history showing that Respondent’s EBT card was used to make FAP benefit purchases from February 23, 2017 to April 30, 2017 during the period in which he was incarcerated.

The Department asserted that Respondent trafficked his FAP benefits by providing an individual outside of his FAP group with his EBT/Bridge Card and/or PIN Number to make food purchases while Respondent was incarcerated. However, the Department did not present any evidence that Respondent either attempted to or did buy, sell, trade or exchange his FAP benefits for cash or consideration other than eligible food as required by Department policy. Thus, although the evidence established that Respondent’s FAP benefits were used to make food purchases while he was incarcerated, the Department’s evidence was insufficient to establish that Respondent trafficked his FAP benefits. As such, the Department has failed to establish by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent committed an IPV of the FAP by trafficking.

Disqualification

A client who is found to have committed an IPV by a court or hearing decision is disqualified from receiving program benefits. BAM 720, p. 15. Clients are disqualified for 10 years for a FAP IPV involving concurrent receipt of benefits, and, for all other IPV cases involving FAP, for standard disqualification periods of one year for the first IPV, two years for the second IPV, and lifetime for the third IPV. BAM 720, p. 16. A disqualified recipient remains a member of an active group as long as he lives with them, and other eligible group members may continue to receive benefits. BAM 720, p. 16.

In this case, the Department failed to establish that Respondent committed a FAP IPV. Therefore, Respondent is not subject to a disqualification from the FAP.

Overissuance

When a client group receives more benefits than entitled to receive, the Department must attempt to recoup the OI. BAM 700, p. 1. The OI amount for a trafficking-related IPV is the value of the trafficked benefits as determined by (i) a court decision, (ii) the individual's admission, or (iii) documentation used to establish the trafficking determination, such as an affidavit from a store owner or sworn testimony from a federal or state investigator of how much a client could have reasonably trafficked in that store, which can be established through circumstantial evidence. BAM 720, p. 8.

At the hearing, the Department asserted that Respondent trafficked the FAP benefits issued to him by allowing an unauthorized person to use his FAP benefits while he was incarcerated. The Department presented Respondent's IG-311 EBT transaction history and identified $ [REDACTED] in FAP transactions that were alleged to have been trafficked by Respondent. However, as discussed above, the Department failed to present clear and convincing evidence to support its allegation that Respondent committed an IPV by trafficking.

Although the Department's Investigation Report makes reference to Respondent's ineligibility for FAP benefits based on his status as an incarcerated individual, the Department's OI as presented related to the alleged trafficking of FAP benefits.

Therefore, the Department failed to establish that $ [REDACTED] in FAP transactions involved trafficking and is not entitled to recoup or collect that amount from Respondent.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, concludes that:

1. The Department has not established by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent committed an IPV.
2. Respondent did not receive an OI of FAP program benefits in the amount of $ [REDACTED]

The Department is ORDERED to delete the $ [REDACTED] FAP OI and cease any recoupment and/or collection action.
