ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE: Christian Gardocki

HEARING DECISION FOR INTENTIONAL PROGRAM VIOLATION AND OVERISSUANCE

Upon the request for a hearing by the Michigan Department of Health and Human Services (MDHHS), this matter is before the undersigned administrative law judge pursuant to MCL 400.9, and in accordance with Titles 7, 42 and 45 of the Code of Federal Regulation (CFR), particularly 7 CFR 273.16 and 45 CFR 235.110; and with Mich Admin Code, R 400.3130 and 400.3178. After due notice, a telephone hearing was held on March 21, 2018, from Detroit, Michigan. The Michigan Department of Health and Human Services (MDHHS) was represented by [REDACTED], regulation agent with the Office of Inspector General. Respondent did not appear.

ISSUES

1. The first issue is whether Respondent received an overissuance (OI) of benefits.
2. The second issue is whether MDHHS established by a clear and convincing standard that Respondent committed an intentional program violation (IPV).
3. The third issue is whether Respondent should be disqualified from receiving benefits.

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. Respondent was an ongoing recipient of Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits from the State of Michigan.

2. From at least February 2016 through September 2016, Respondent was incarcerated.
3. On September 9, 2016, Respondent submitted to MDHHS an application listing a household that included two children at a residential address.
4. From February 2016 through June 2016, Respondent received $ [REDACTED] in FAP benefits.
5. On August 31, 2017, MDHHS requested a hearing to establish Respondent committed an IPV and received an OI of $ [REDACTED] in FAP benefits for the months from February 2016 through June 2016.
6. Respondent has no prior history of IPV's.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food and Nutrition Act of 2008, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 273. MDHHS (formerly known as the Department of Human Services) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10, the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1-.119b, and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001-.3011. MDHHS policies are contained in the Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), and Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

MDHHS requested a hearing, in part, to establish Respondent received an OI of benefits. MDHHS presented an unsigned Intentional Program Violation Repayment Agreement (Exhibit 1, pp. 5-6) dated August 31, 2017. The document alleged Respondent received an OI of $ [REDACTED] in FAP benefits from February 2016 through June 2016.

The repayment agreement, along with MDHHS testimony, alleged the OI was based on Respondent's residency in a correctional facility. A person in a federal, state or local correctional facility for more than [sic] 30 days is not eligible to receive FIP, SDA or FAP benefits. BAM 804 (July 2014), p. 1.

When a client group receives more benefits than it is entitled to receive, MDHHS must attempt to recoup the overissuance. BAM 700 (January 2016), p. 1. An overissuance [bold lettering removed] is the amount of benefits issued to the client group or CDC provider in excess of what it was eligible to receive. Id. Recoupment [bold lettering removed] is a MDHHS action to identify and recover a benefit overissuance. Id., p. 2.

MDHHS presented a Wayne County Inmate Inquiry (Exhibit A, pp. 47-49). The document stated that Respondent was booked on October 22, 2015, for various listed offenses.

MDHHS presented a Register of Actions (Exhibit A, pp. 50-51) from a county circuit court. The court document listed a term of “local confinement” beginning January 5, 2016, for one year. “No early release” for confinement was indicated. A time served period of 77 days was indicated.

County documents sufficiently verified that Respondent was incarcerated beginning in January 2015 for a period of less than one year. Respondent was precluded from receipt of FAP benefits during the period of incarceration.

MDHHS presented Respondent’s issuance history for FAP benefits (Exhibit 1, p. 54). Monthly issuances of $ [REDACTED] were listed from February 2016 through June 2016.

It is found that MDHHS established that Respondent received an OI of $ [REDACTED] in FAP benefits during the OI period. The analysis will consider whether the OI was caused by an IPV.

The Code of Federal Regulations defines an IPV. Intentional program violations shall consist of having intentionally: (1) made a false or misleading statement, or misrepresented, concealed or withheld facts; or (2) committed any act that constitutes a violation of the Food Stamp Act, the Food Stamp Program Regulations, or any State statute for the purpose of using, presenting, transferring, acquiring, receiving, possessing or trafficking of coupons, authorization cards or reusable documents used as part of an automated benefit delivery system. 7 CFR 273.16 (c).

[An IPV is a] benefit overissuance resulting from the willful withholding of information or other violation of law or regulation by the client or his authorized representative. Bridges Program Glossary (October 2015), p. 36. A suspected IPV means an OI exists for which all three of the following conditions exist:

- The client intentionally failed to report information or intentionally gave incomplete or inaccurate information needed to make a correct benefit determination, and
- The client was clearly and correctly instructed regarding his or her reporting responsibilities, and
- The client has no apparent physical or mental impairment that limits his or her understanding or ability to fulfill their reporting responsibilities.

BAM 720 (January 2016), p. 1; see also 7 CFR 273(e)(6).

IPV is suspected when there is clear and convincing [emphasis added] evidence that the client or CDC provider has intentionally withheld or misrepresented information for the purpose of establishing, maintaining, increasing or preventing reduction of program benefits or eligibility. Id. Clear and convincing evidence is evidence sufficient to result in a clear and firm belief that the proposition is true. See M Civ JI 8.01. It is a standard which requires reasonable certainty of the truth; something that is highly probable. Black’s Law Dictionary 888 (6th ed. 1990).

Clients must report changes in circumstance that potentially affect eligibility or benefit amount. BAM 105 (October 2016), p. 11. Changes [in income] must be reported within 10 days of receiving the first payment reflecting the change. Id. Other changes must be reported within 10 days after the client is aware of them. Id., p. 12.

In the OI analysis, it was found that Respondent received an OI of FAP benefits due to Respondent's incarceration for longer than 30 days. MDHHS alleged the OI was caused by Respondent's purposeful failure to report incarceration to MDHHS.

MDHHS presented Respondent's application for FAP benefits (Exhibit A, pp. 10-44). The application was electronically signed by Respondent on August 7, 2015. MDHHS presented the document to verify that Respondent was informed of a responsibility to report changes within 10 days. Boilerplate application language stated that the applicant's signature was certification that the applicant read and understood a section titled "Rights & Responsibilities"; reporting income within 10 days was a stated responsibility. MDHHS did not allege that the application misreported relevant information.

Respondent's alleged failure to report incarceration to MDHHS could reasonably be explained by Respondent forgetting. Though MDHHS applications are known to advise clients to report changes within 10 days, it does not ensure that a client would not accidentally forget. It is further possible that Respondent reported incarceration to MDHHS, but MDHHS did not process the reporting. The evidence was not supportive in Respondent innocently forgetting to report incarceration.

MDHHS presented a Semi-Annual Contact Report (Exhibit A, pp. 45-46) signed by Respondent on an unstated date in December 2015. MDHHS contended that the document was indicative of fraud. It was established that Respondent's incarceration began October 22, 2015, and that Respondent had 77 days of jail credit approximately 77 days later. The evidence established that Respondent was incarcerated as of the date of the Semi-Annual Contact Report and its preceding days. Respondent's failure to report to MDHHS in writing her incarceration is consistent with an intent to defraud.

MDHHS presented Respondent's application for FAP benefits (Exhibit A, pp. 55-92). The application was electronically signed by Respondent on September 9, 2016. The application indicated that Respondent lived with her two children at a residential address. It was already found that Respondent was incarcerated during the alleged OI period. Based on Respondent's one year jail sentence with "no early release", it can be concluded that Respondent was incarcerated as of the date her application was submitted to MDHHS in September 9, 2016.

MDHHS has policy to address misreporting. Clients must completely and truthfully answer all questions on forms and in interviews. BAM 105 (July 2015), p. 8.

Presented evidence established that Respondent misreported information by twice misreporting her address and household. Generally, a client's written statement which contradicts known facts resulting in an OI is clear and convincing evidence of an IPV. Respondent presented no evidence to rebut application of the generality.

It is found MDHHS clearly and convincingly established that Respondent committed an IPV. Accordingly, it is found MDHHS may proceed with disqualifying Respondent from benefit eligibility.

The standard disqualification period is used in all instances except when a court orders a different period. BAM 725 (January 2016), p. 16. [MDHHS is to] apply the following disqualification periods to recipients determined to have committed an IPV . . . one year for the first IPV . . . two years for the second IPV, [and] lifetime for the third IPV. Id.

MDHHS did not allege Respondent previously committed an IPV. Thus, an IPV disqualification period of one year is justified.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above findings of fact and conclusions of law, finds that MDHHS established that Respondent committed an IPV resulting in an overissuance of FAP benefits from February 2016 through June 2016 in the amount of $ [REDACTED]. The MDHHS request to establish an overissuance and a 1-year disqualification against Respondent is APPROVED.
